Moderato

Till Ready

I've seen man-y pain-tings sup-posed to be grand, But nev-er a one was like you, — I've seen all the stat-ues by each mas-ter's hand, — But

I look at the flow-ers that blush in the morn', And then at the blue in the skies, — The blush in your cheeks makes the flow-ers for-lorn, — And they seem to lack some-thing too. I read the old class-ics, then noth-ing com-pares with your eyes. I see all your vir-tues, and I look at you, And think of what I'd like to do.

wor-ship them so, I wish I could let the world know.

CHORUS

If I were an art-ist I'd paint you so beau-ti-ful, p f

Then all the world could see just how you look to me, If I were a sculp-tor, I'd carve you in stone, As one of the won - ders you would be known. If I _____ but had the gift of a po - et I'd write so they'd read of you too, _____ But I know noth-ing of art, And I have on-ly a heart, So all I can do_ is just love you! If love you!
