

SONGS BY BRITISH COMPOSERS

Leo Smith
A PRISON SONG

Poem by
WILLIAM MORRIS

In a Musical Setting
For High or Medium Voice
With Piano Accompaniment

Composed by
LEO SMITH

Price, 60 cents, net

New York • G. SCHIRMER • Boston

M
5-1
S 54p

520709

3

A Prison Song

William Morris

Leo Smith

Voice

Piano

With pathos (♩ = about 54)

harshly

sf

p cresc

legato

p rall.

pp

sf a tempo

cresc.

harshly

mf

p rall.

pp

a tempo

mf

p sadly
Wear - i - ly,
a tempo.

dim. pp rall. pp m.d. p m.s.

drear - i - ly, Half the day long,

f espress. mf

mf Flap the great ban-ners High o-ver the stone; (with nasal quality) Strange-ly and

mf f

dim. ee - ri - ly Sounds the winds song, Bend - ing the ban-ner poles,

dim. p senza rit.

with a little more movement

rall.
dim.
p
pp
led.

p
 While all a-lone, Watch-ing the loop-hole's spark, espress.

Lie I, with life all —
espress.

cresc. (sternly)
 dark, Feet teth-er'd,
with increasing excitement cresc. poco (b) a
led.

hands fet-ter'd Fast to the stone, The

poco string.

poco

mf

f

grim walls, square let - ter'd With pris - on'd men's

cresc. sempre

poco allargando

cresc. sempre

mf

f

groan.

ff a tempo

portando

a tempo

ff

ff

rall. molto

f

f dim.

Tempo I?

pp sf harshly

again sadly, as at first

Still strain the ban-ner poles rall. dim. pp m.d p m.s.

Through the wind's song, West - ward the ban-ner rolls

espress.

O - ver my wrong.

sf

rall. molto rall. calando dim. pp

520709