The musical score consists of four staves of music. The top two staves are for the piano, and the bottom two are for the voice. The vocal part begins with a melodic line, accompanied by the piano's bass and harmonic support. The lyrics are integrated into the musical phrases, with some words appearing below the staff. The piano parts feature various textures, including sustained notes, chords, and rhythmic patterns. The vocal line continues through several measures, with dynamics like p, pp, f, and ff indicated. The piece concludes with a final piano coda.
