In God the Lord be glad and light, praise him through-out the earth:
In God the Lord be glad and light, praise him through - out the earth:
In God the Lord be glad and light, praise him through - out the earth:
In God the Lord be glad and light, praise him through - out the earth:

Serve him and come be - fore his sight with sing - ing and with mirth.
Serve him and come be - fore his sight with sing - ing and with mirth.
Serve him and come be - fore his sight with sing - ing and with mirth.
Serve him and come be - fore his sight with sing - ing and with mirth.

2. Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keep:
Not we ourselves, for we are his own folk and pasture sheep.

3. O go into his gates always,
give thanks within the same:
Within his courts set forth his praise,
and laud his holy name.

4. For why? the goodness of the Lord
for evermore doth reign:
From age tot age throughout the world
his truth doth still remain.

Critical notes:

this setting is similar to the one of Psalm 115;
the plainchant is the same as Psalms 27 & 66 and 'A Prayer to the Holy Ghost' from the same book;
text somewhat modernised
