Explanation of the Gamut.

III

The 4 Parts of Music, are distinguished from one another by 4 Semicircles, each including 5 Lines, with their Proper Cliffs and Letters. The first is the Bass, or lowest Part in Music, and known by the F Cliff.  which always stands on F. The 2.^d is the Tenor, with the C Cliff  on C, its 4.th Line. The 3.^d is Counter with the C Cliff  on C, its 3.^d Line; And the 4.th is Treble, the highest part of Music, with the G Cliff  on G, its 2.^d Line. The F & G Cliffs in most Authors are immovable, but when they move, the Letters, which are the Names of the Lines and Spaces, always move with them, in the same order as they stand in the Gamut. The C Cliff is movable in all Authors, but, the Line it stands on is always C, and must be sounded a 5.th above the F Cliff, and a 5.th below the G Cliff, except when the latter is prefix'd to a part design'd for mens Voices, (which is frequently the case, with the Tenor & Counter in this Book) then it is a 4.th above the G Cliff, for that is now an Octave, (or 8 Notes) below its usual place, and Unison, (or the same sound) with the highest G in the Bass.

The four Monosyllables sol, la, mi, fa, seldom change the Order in which they stand in the Gamut: viz. from mi, to mi ascending they are fa, sol, la, fa, sol, la, & descending la, sol, fa, la, sol, fa; And the two Semitones or half Notes in every Octave are invariably fix'd between mi & fa, & la & fa, throughout all the Removes of mi, except when a Flat, Sharp, or Natural, is plac'd immediately before some particular Note. All Notes upon Lines & Spaces, not mark'd with either Flats or Sharps, are call'd Natural Notes, & are represented by the Monosyllables in the 2.^d Column of the Gamut. In all the succeeding Columns, they are remov'd to other Letters by Flats & Sharps, according to the following Rules, but in such a manner, that they express those Flats & Sharps, without affecting any of the Natural Notes.

Of Time, or the Duration of Sounds in Music.

Time is of two Kinds, viz. Common, & Triple. in one or the other of which all Movements are included. Common Time is measured by an even Number of Beats in each Bar, the first half of which must be perform'd with the Hand or Foot down, & the other with it up; Its first Mood is a very slow & grave Movement, containing one Semibreve, or its Quantity, in every Bar, which ought to be sounded about 4 Seconds, or while you may leisurely say 1. 2. 3. 4. This Mood is mark'd thus.

 The 2^d Mood has a line drawn thro' the C  & should be sung about half as fast again as the first. The 3^d Mood is known by a C inverted  from which it is called the Pictorial Mood, or by a Figure of Two  And must be sung as quick again as the first Mood. The last Mood worthy of Notice in this Place is Mark'd thus  & called 2 to 4 containing one Minim or two Crotchets &c. in a Bar, which require nearly the same Time that y^e same Notes require in the 2^d Mood. In beating the 2 first of these Moods the Hands should have 4 equable Motions in every Bar, 2 down & 2 up. And in the 2 last Moods only 2 motions, one down and the other up: According to the following Examples in Common Time, where d is put for down, & u for up; and the Number of Beats in each

Bar

Triple Time is known by the following Characters $\frac{3}{2}$ $\frac{3}{4}$ $\frac{3}{8}$ the first of which contains 3 Minims in a Bar, which ought to be sung in the Time of 2 Minims, in the first Mood of Common Time. The 2^d contains 3 Crotchets in a Bar, which are sung about as quick as Crotchets, in the 2^d Mood of Common Time. The last contains 3 Quavers in a Bar, which are sung as quick as Crotchets in Retortive Time. Each Bar in Triple Time, whether quick or slow, is divided into three equal parts, the two first of which must be perform'd with the Hand, or Foot down, & the last with it up. according to the following Examples.

3., 1, 2., 3., 1., 2., 3., 1, 2, 3., 1, 2, 3., 1, 2, 3., 1, 2, 3., 1, 2, 3.

Example of Rests.

Semibreve Rest. Minim Rest. Crotchet Rest. Quaver R. Semiq. R. Demisemig. R. 2 Bars. 3 Bars. 4 Bars. 8 Bars.

Note. A Semibreve Rest is a whole Bar in any Time whatever.

A Single Bar  divides the Time according to the measure Note. A Double Bar  divides every Strain or Part of a Tune, & shows the End of the Lines in Psalm & Hymn Tunes. A Repeat  signifies that such a Part of a Tune, from the Note over or before which it is put, must be sung over again.

A Hold or Pause  signifies that the Note, over which it is plac'd, must be sounded something longer than its usual Time, it also denotes the End of a Tune. A Direct  is put at the End of the Lines, where broke off by the Narrowness of the paper, to show the Place of the first Note in the succeeding Lines.

A slur or Tye  drawn over or under any Quantity of Notes signifies, that they are all to be sung to one Syllable. Three Crotchets with a Figure of 3 over or under them  must be sung in the Time of a Minim; & three Quavers  in the Time of a Crotchet &c.

Of Flats Sharps & Naturals.

A Flat  placed before any Note signifies that, that Note (and all on the same Letter in that Bar, except mark'd to the contrary) must be sung a Semitone lower than its Natural Pitch. The Sharp  is of a contrary Nature, and raises a Note a Semitone higher than its Natural Sound. When Flats are set at the Beginning of a Tune, they affect all the Notes on the same Letters, in which they stand, thro' the whole Movement; thus if a Flat be set on B, B must be sounded half Note lower than its Natural Pitch, thro' the Tune, unless the Flat is removed by a Sharp or Natural. Sharps set at the Beginning of a Tune have the contrary Effect. A Natural  reduces any Note, made flat or sharp by the governing Flats or Sharps in the Beginning of a Tune, to its primitive Sound.

Of the Keys in Music.

The Letter, on which a Tune closes, is called its Key, which is known to be either flat or Sharp by the third above the last Note in the Bass; if that third contains two whole Tones, the Tune is on a sharp Key, but if only a Tone & Semitone, it is a flat Key.

Of Syncopation.

All Notes placed in such a Part of the Bar, that they require the Hand to be taken up or put down while they are sounding; or divided by a single Bar, as in this Example  are call'd Notes of Syncopation. Note, they are also called driving Notes.

Of Transposition.

When a Tune happens to be on a wrong Key, either too high or too low, it may be transpos'd or re-mov'd to any other Key, by adding Flats or Sharps, or by omitting them, as Occasion requires. But great Care must be taken, that the Notes retain their old Names, & bear the same Relation to each other, as before; and that all accidental Flats & Sharps are inserted, unless Naturals will answer the End better.

The above Example shews how the same Tune may be transpos'd, not only from G to C; or from C to G. But to any other of the 7 Letters. Example of pointed Notes. A Dot on the right side of a Note makes it half as long again. Thus one Semibreve is equal to 3 Minims &c.

Of the Graces in Music.

The Trill or Shake is used on all descending prickd Crochets; on the latter of two Notes on the same Line or Space; and generally before a Close. The other Graces are seldom used in plain Church Tunes, but are very proper in Hymns & Anthems. Note, the Turn may be used on a Note, that sinks a Semitone below two Notes on the same Line or Space, always beginning with the first; and also at the end of a Strain, when the last Note is grac'd, as in the following Examples

Some Directions for Singing.

1. In learning the 8 Notes, get the Assistance of some Person, well acquainted with the Tones & Semitones.
2. Chuse that Part, which you can sing with the greatest Ease, and make yourself Master of that first.
3. Sound all high Notes as soft as possible, but low ones hard and full.
4. Pitch your Tune so that the highest and lowest Notes may be sounded distinctly.

The image displays a handwritten musical score for a piece titled "Dorchester." The score is organized into two main sections: a solo section on the left and a chorus section on the right, separated by a vertical bar line. The solo section includes four staves: Tenor Solo (top), Treble Solo (second), Bass Solo (third), and Counter Solo (bottom). The chorus section includes three staves: Treble Chorus (top), Tenor Chorus (middle), and Bass Chorus (bottom). Each staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a time signature of 3/2. The music is written in a cursive, handwritten style. The Tenor Solo part starts with a dynamic marking of g^u. The Treble Solo part also starts with g^u. The Bass Solo part starts with g^u. The Counter Solo part starts with g^u. The Treble Chorus part starts with g^u. The Tenor Chorus part starts with g^u. The Bass Chorus part starts with g^u. The score concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots at the end of each staff.

Be thou by all thy works ador'd.

Thy Lark

When all thy mercies, O my God, My rising soul surveys, Transported with the view I'm lost, In wonder love

To all my weak complaints and cries,
Thy mercy lent an ear.
E'er yet my feeble thoughts had learn'd,
To form themselves in prayer.

II Unnumber'd comforts to my soul,
Thy tender care bestow'd.
Before my infant heart conceiv'd,
From whom those comforts flow'd.

and praise. Thy providence my life sustain'd, and all my wants redress'd. While in the silent womb I lay.

When in the slippery paths of youth,
With heedless steps I ran,
Thine arm unseen convey'd me safe,
And led me up to man.

Thro' hidden dangers, toils, and deaths,
It gently clear'd my way.
And thro' the pleasing snares of vice,
More to be fear'd than they.

Thro' every period of my life,
 Thy goodness I'll pursue;
 And after death, in distant worlds,
 The pleasing theme renew.

II Thro' all eternity, to thee,
 A grateful song I'll raise:
 But O! eternity's too short,
 To utter all thy praise.

Salisbury.

es to every land, The work of an almighty hand, The work of an almighty hand.

Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
And nightly to the list'ning earth,
Repeats the story of her birth;
Whilst all the stars that round her burn,
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they rove,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

What though in solemn silence all,
Move round the dark terrestrial ball,
What tho' no real voice nor sound,
Amid their radiant orbs be found;
In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice,
For ever singing, as they shine,
The hand that made us is divine.

Resurrection

Rejoice, the Lord is king, your Lord and king adore: Mortals give thanks and sing. And triumph evermore.

Jesus the Saviour reigns,
The God of truth and love;
When he had purg'd our stains,
He took his seat above.
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice,
Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.

His kingdom cannot fail,
He rules o'er earth and heav'n:
The keys of death and hell
Are to our Jesus given.
Lift up your hearts, lift up your voice,
Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.

Lift up your heart. lift up your voice. Rejoice again. I say rejoice, Rejoice, rejoice, rejoice, again I say rejoice

He all his foes shall quell,
Shall all our sins destroy,
And every bosom swell,
With pure seraphic joy.
Lift up your heart. lift up your voice.
Rejoice, again I say rejoice.

Rejoice in glorious hope,
Jesus the judge shall come,
And take his servants up,
To their eternal home.
We soon shall hear th' arch angels voice,
The trump of God shall sound Rejoice.

Judgment

When the fierce north wind, with his airy forces, Rears up the Baltick to a foaming fury,

Flow the poor sailors stand amaz'd and tremble,
 While the hoarse thunder, like a bloody trumpet,
 Roars a loud onset to the gaping waters.
 Quick to devour them,
 Such shall the noise be, and the wild disorder,
 (If things eternal may be like these earthly)
 Such the dire terror, when the great archangel
 Shakes the creation.

Tears the strong pillars of the vault of heaven,
 Breaks up old marble, the repose of princes,
 See the graves open, and the bones arising.
 Flames all around them.
 Hark the shrill outcries of the guilty wretches!
 Lively bright horror, and amazing anguish,
 Stare thro' their eyelids, while the living worm lies
 Gnawing within them.

 And the smart twinges, when the eye beholds the Stop here my fancy. Call away ye horrid

 Doleful ideas, & come arise to fests.

 O may I sit there, when he comes triumphant,
 Dooming the nations, then ascend to glory.
 While our hosannas all along the pious page
 Shout the red center.

and like a robe & like a robe, his glory wears.
 The heavens are for his curtains spread.
 The unfathom'd deep he makes his bed:
 Clouds are his chariot, when he flies
 On winged storms, a'cross the skies.
 Great is the Lord; what tongue can frame
 An equal honour to his name?

Great is the Lord; what tongue can frame
 An equal honour to his name?

Hallelujah

Praise ye the Lord, immortal choir, That fill the realms above; Praise him, who form'd you of his sin, and seed you with his love.

Thou restless globe of golden light,
Whose beams create our days,
Join with the silver queen of night,
To own your borrow'd rays.

Winds, ye shall bear his name aloud,
Thro' the ethereal blue;
For when his chariot is a cloud,
He makes his wheels of you.

The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the various methods which have been proposed for the determination of the rate of reaction between a solid and a liquid. It is found that the most reliable method is that of measuring the change in weight of the solid during the reaction. This method is applicable to all reactions in which a solid is consumed or a solid is formed. It is particularly useful in the case of reactions which are slow and in which the solid is in excess. The method involves the measurement of the weight of the solid at regular intervals during the reaction. The rate of reaction is then calculated from the change in weight divided by the time interval.

The second part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the various factors which influence the rate of reaction between a solid and a liquid. It is found that the rate of reaction is influenced by the surface area of the solid, the concentration of the liquid, the temperature, and the nature of the solid and liquid. The rate of reaction is found to increase with increasing surface area, increasing concentration, increasing temperature, and with increasing reactivity of the solid and liquid.
