

Content is rich

William Byrd

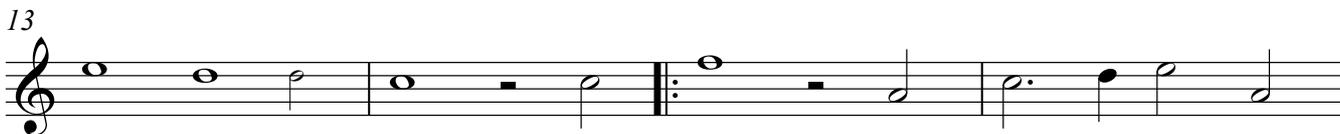

Con - tent is rich, but who is he
The poor that holds the toi - ling plough;
When not - hing could my fan - cy please,

Up - on the earth that lives con - tent? From high es - The rich that sails in - to the Ind; The prince to At last I fell in - to a dream; Me-thought I tate to low de - gree, They all proclaim'd, they all proclaim'd with whom the no - bles bow; The lo - ver in the lo - ver in his saw u - pon the seas A ship that sail'd a ship that sail'd a - one con - sent, That he, that he who hath what plea - sures shrin'd: I ask'd I ask'd them all, and gainst the stream: And so and so do they that heart can wish Hath not con - tent serv'd in his none could tell Where sweet Con - tent doth use to seek to find Con - tent but in a qui - et dish, hath not con - tent serv'd in his dwell. Where sweet Con - tent doth use to mind. Con - tent but in a qui - - et dish. That dish.

dwell. I dwell.
mind. And mind.