V.1 S.

(During the above Mokanna has entered preceded by slaves burning incense. He is dressed entirely in white; the upper part of his face is hidden by a silver veil or mask, the fringes of which mingle with his beard. During the latter part of the chorus he seats himself on the throne, his followers grouped around him.)

Durante il precedente movimento, Mokanna preceduto da schiari che ardono incensa, è entrata in scena. Egli è restito di bianco, e la parte superiore del viso è coperta da una maschera con frangia d'argento che si confonde colla sua barba. Egli s'assiede sul trono, circondato da suoi fedeli.

The musical score consists of several staves of music. The top staff shows an instrumental section with dynamic markings like ff, f, and tr. The subsequent staves feature vocal parts with lyrics in English and Italian. The lyrics include:

- Glo - ry to thee _____ oh great and full of might _____

Abdullah precipitandosi in scena.

Allegro.

The musical score consists of several staves of music. The top two staves show instrumental parts, likely strings, with dynamic markings like cresc. and ff. The subsequent staves are vocal parts:

- Abdullah: Starts with a forte dynamic (f). The lyrics are: "Ill news I bring! Per - du - ti siam."
- Sop. (Soprano): Enters with "Ill news!" and continues with "Per - du - ti?"

(Una piazza pubblica in Merou. A destra una gradinata conduce al palazzo del Profeta. A sinistra le mura della città, con una gran porta. Nel fondo fra le mura e il palazzo, uno stagno. Dei gradini qui danodale mura allo stagno. Altre lo stagno una fonte fra le palme. La scena buia, il palazzo è illuminato. Una guardia notturna con un fanale, cammina sulle mura. Le trombe del Califfo si odono ad intervallo, al di là delle mura.)

Abdullah (enters from the Palace.)

Music score for Abdallah's entrance and the pass-word exchange. The score consists of four staves of music. The first two staves are soprano voices, the third is bass, and the fourth is piano. The vocal parts sing in Italian. The piano part provides harmonic support with eighth-note chords. The vocal parts sing in unison at the beginning, then switch to a more rhythmic, eighth-note pattern. The piano part features a sustained note on the third staff during the eighth-note pattern.

VII. Scene. (Mokanna, Zelica.)

(Mokanna descends from the Palace, in his hand is a cup. He comes forward slowly without seeing Zelica.)
(Mokanna scende dal palazzo con una coppa fra le mani. Egli s'avanza lentamente senza vedere Zelica.)

Largo maestoso.

Mokanna. f

The musical score consists of ten staves of music for voice and orchestra. The vocal line is in soprano C-clef, with lyrics in English and Italian. The piano accompaniment is in bass F-clef. The score includes dynamic markings like f, p, and mf, and performance instructions like 'v.1 s.' at the bottom. The lyrics describe Mokanna's thoughts as he descends from the palace.
