QUATRE FUGUES.

Fuga I.

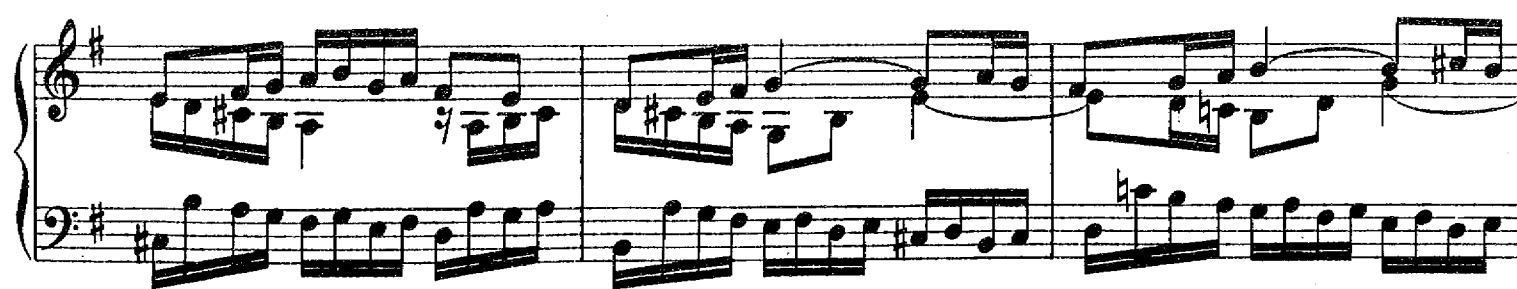

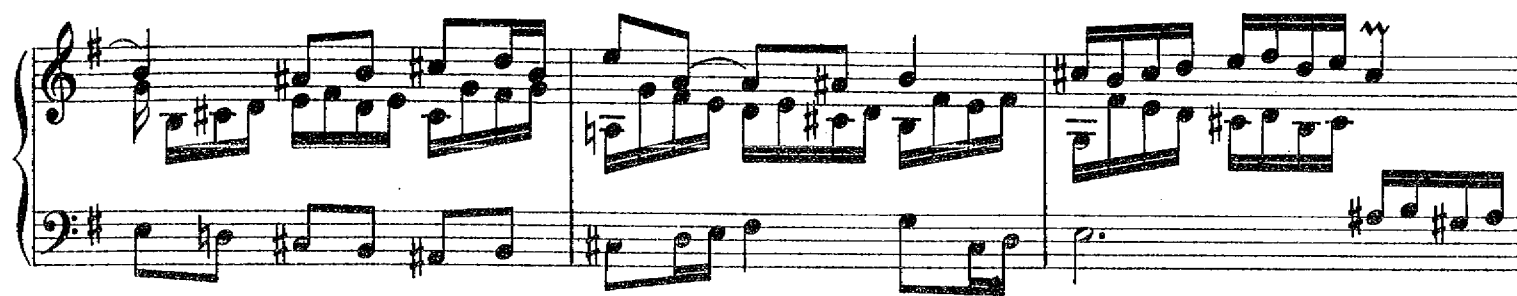

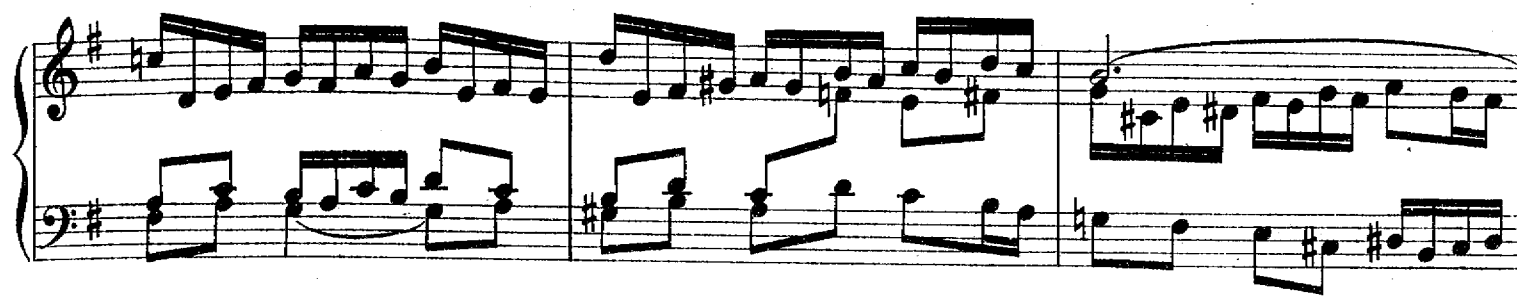

a 3 Voci.

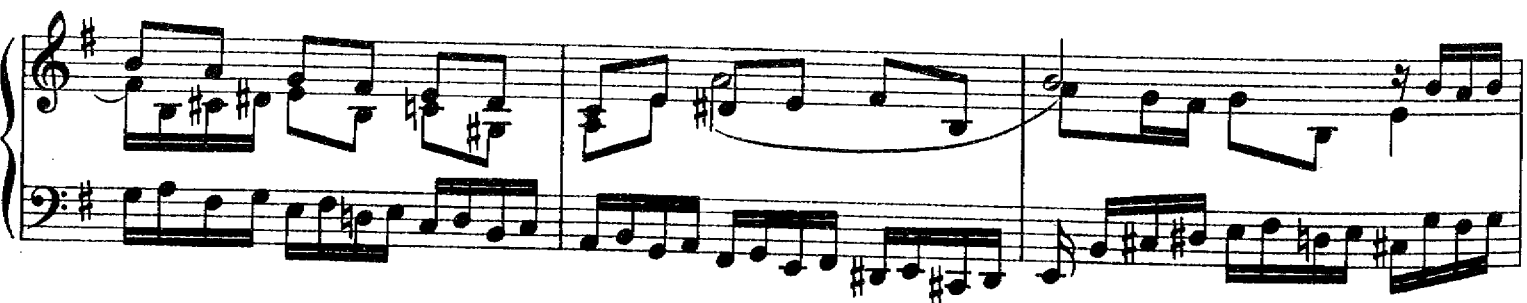

W. Pogojeff, Op. 2.

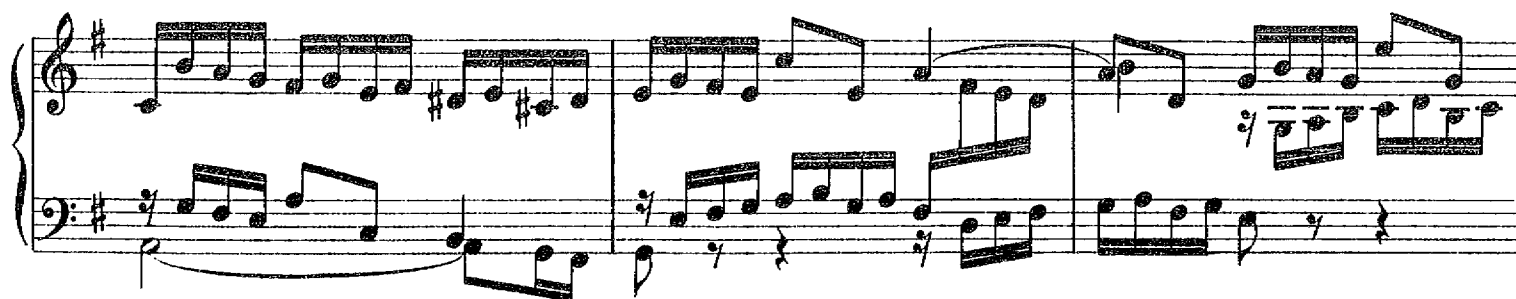

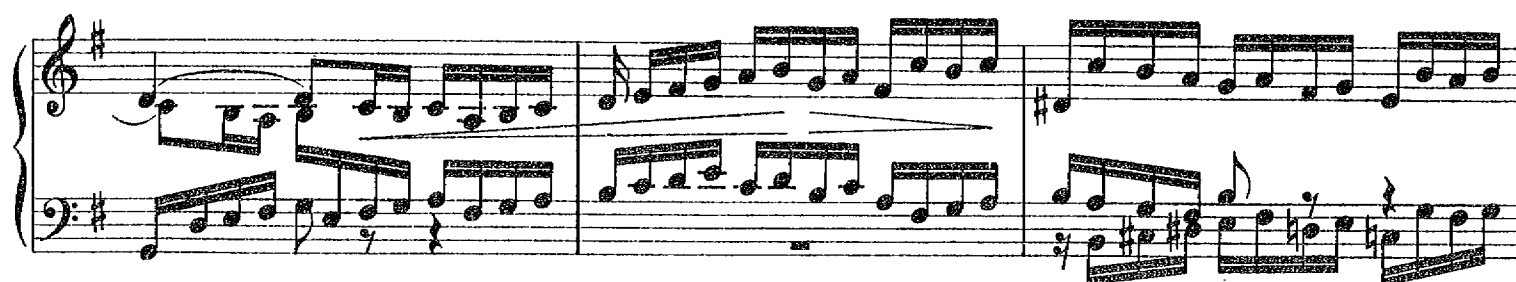

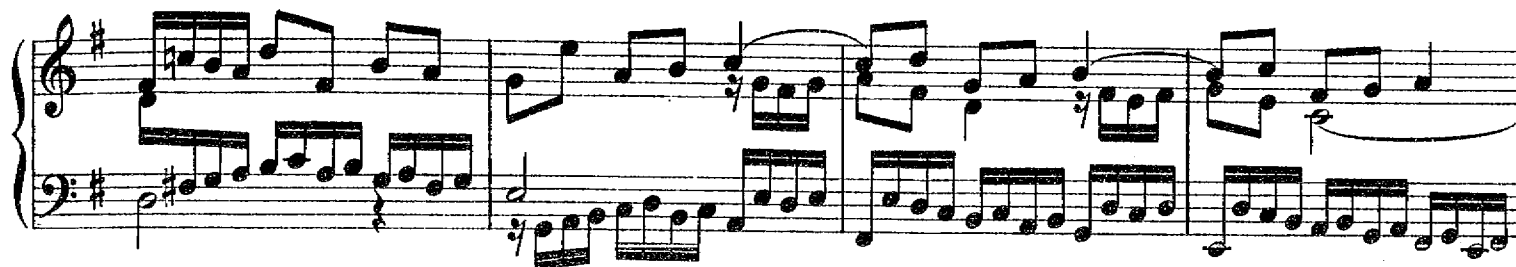

Allegro.

Piano.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of five systems of music. Each system contains two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 3/4. The tempo is marked 'Allegro.' and the dynamics include 'p' (piano) and 'mf' (mezzo-forte). The score features complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and various rests. The first system begins with a treble staff melody starting on a quarter rest, followed by a series of sixteenth notes. The second system continues the treble staff melody with more complex rhythmic figures. The third system introduces a 'mf' dynamic and features a more active bass staff. The fourth and fifth systems continue the development of the fugue with intricate melodic and harmonic lines in both staves.

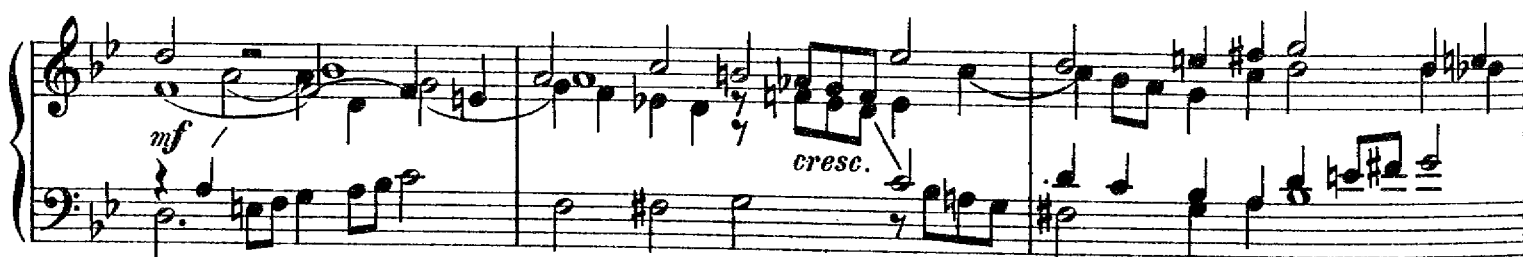

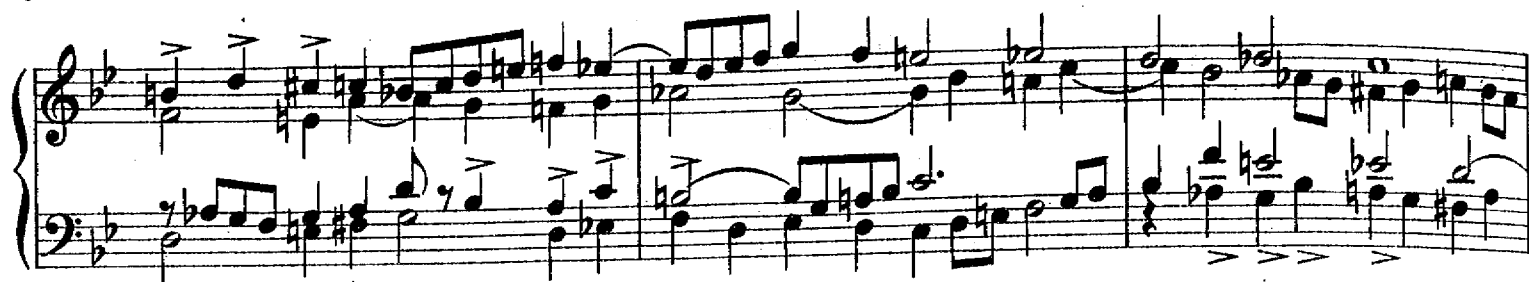

Fuga II.

a 4 Voci.

Adagio alla breve.

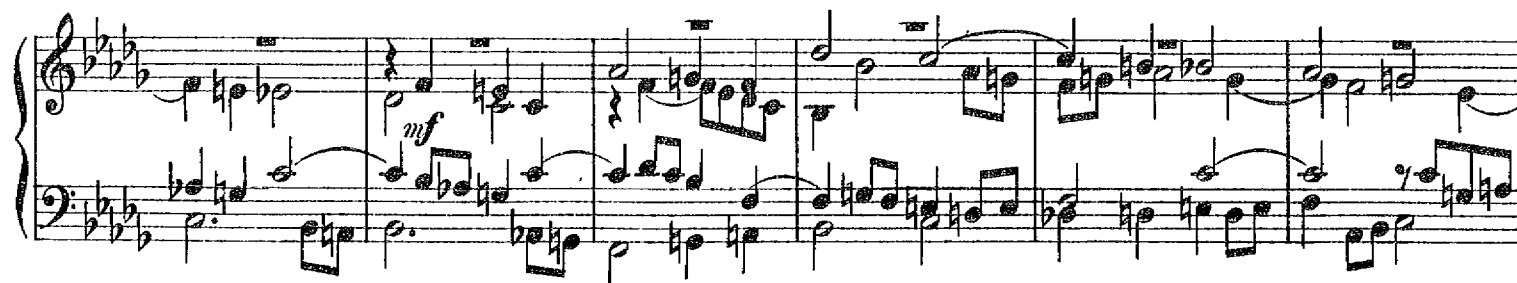

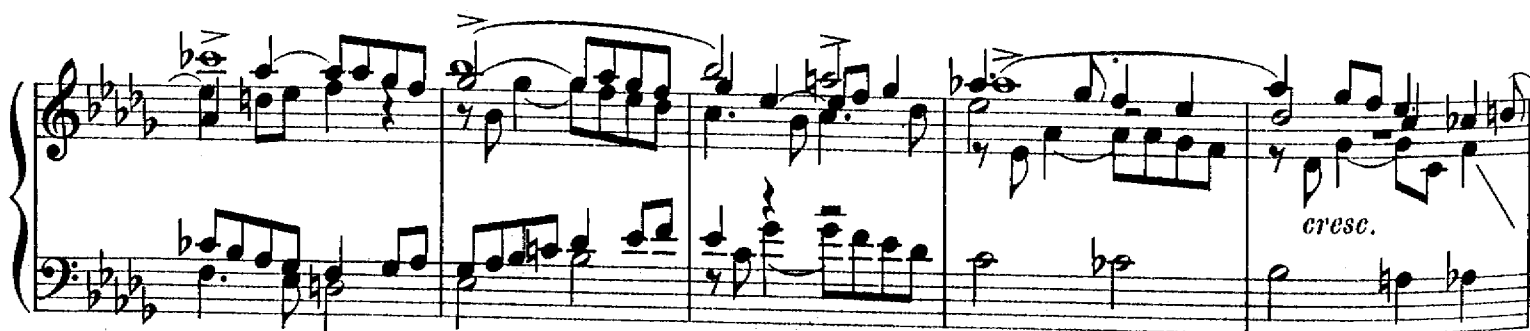

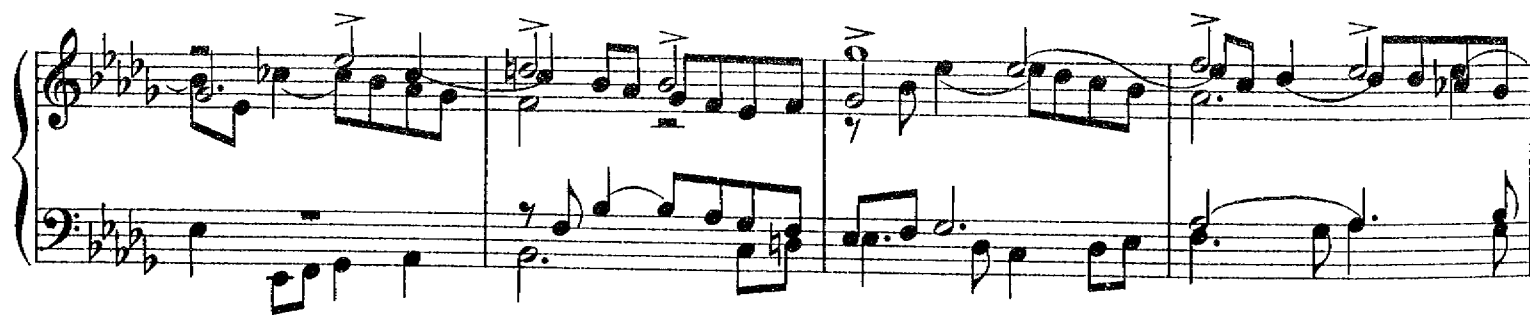

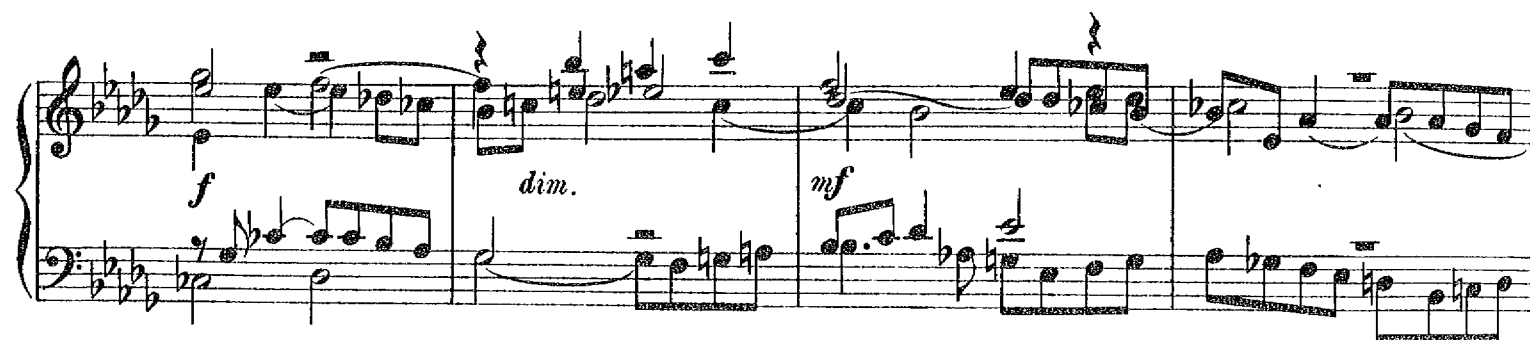

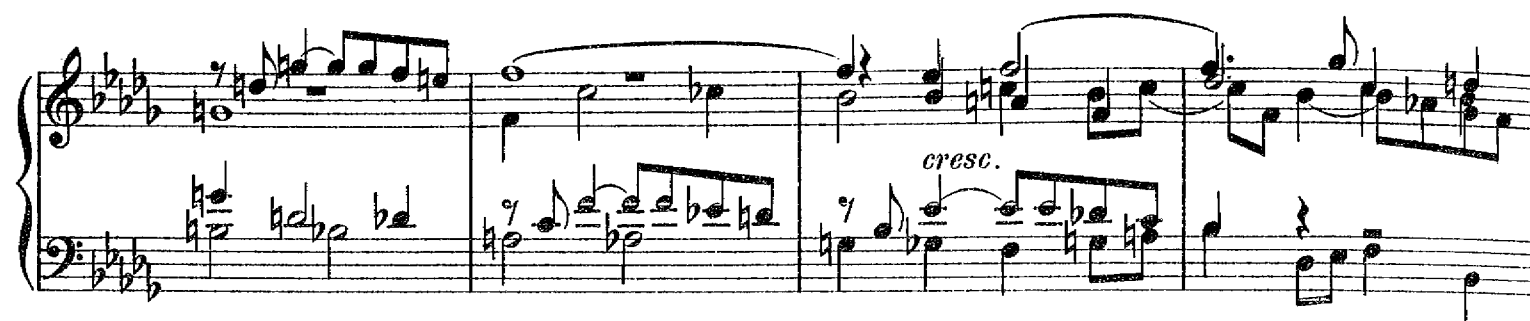

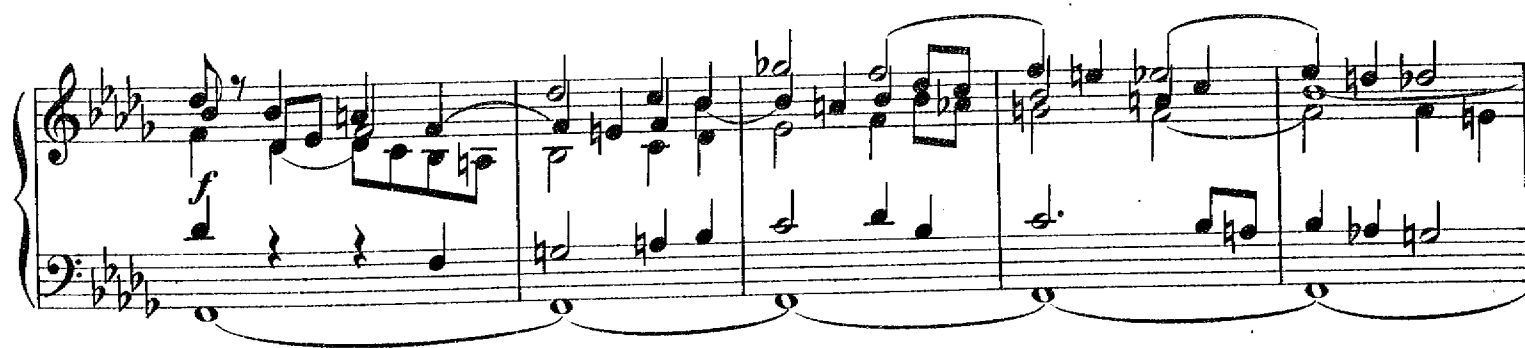

Fuga III.

a 5 Voci.

Andante non tanto.

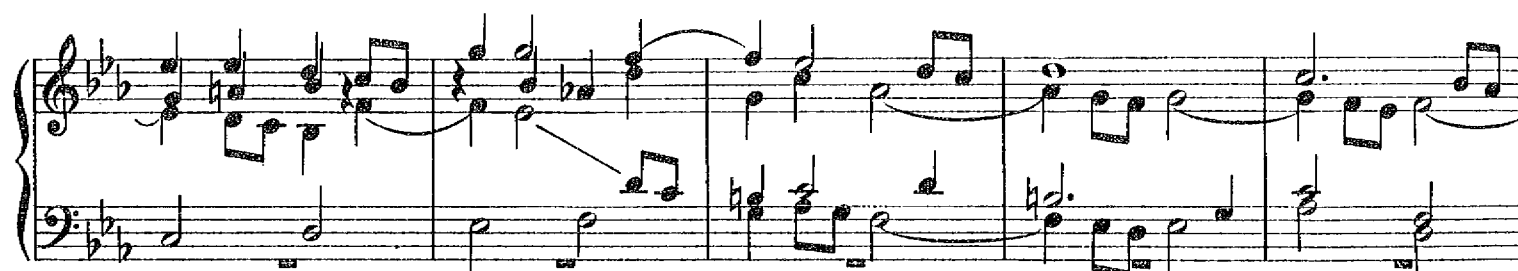

Fuga IV.

a 5 Voci.

Allegro.

Choral.

The first system of musical notation consists of five measures. The treble clef staff features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, and some notes have accents. The bass clef staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat).

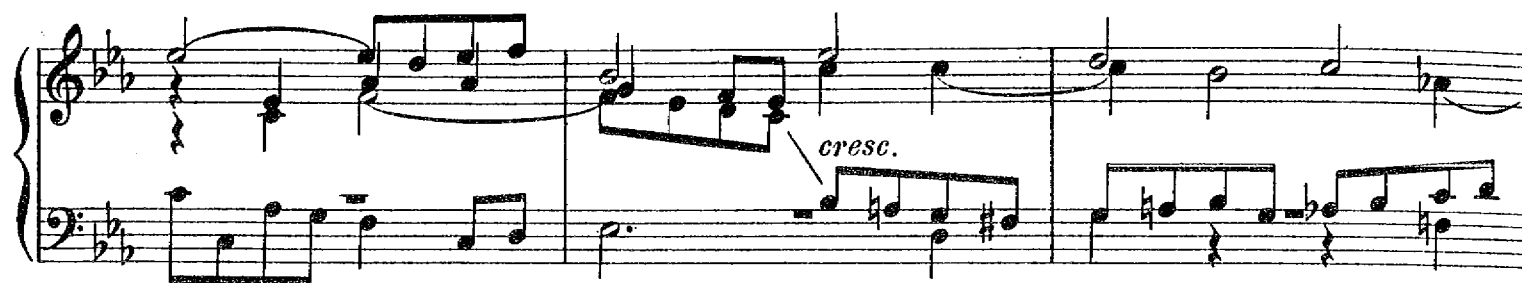

The second system of musical notation consists of five measures. The treble clef staff continues the melodic development. The bass clef staff includes dynamic markings: a forte 'f' in measure 7 and a mezzo-forte 'mf' in measure 9. The musical texture remains consistent with the first system.

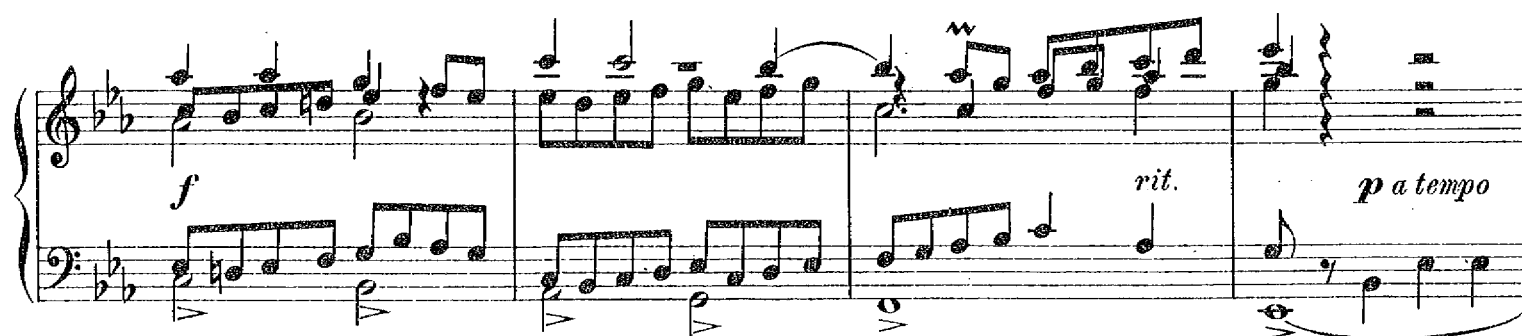

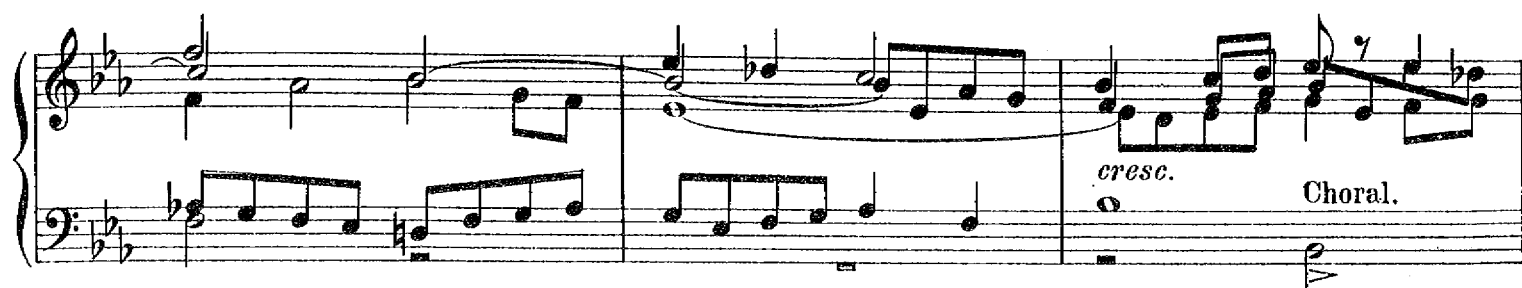

Choral.

The third system of musical notation consists of five measures. The word 'Choral.' is written above the treble staff in measure 12. The notation continues with similar melodic and harmonic patterns as the previous systems.

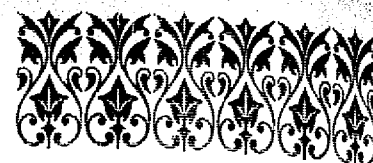

The fourth system of musical notation consists of five measures. The word 'Choral.' is written above the treble staff in measure 18. The musical notation shows a continuation of the piece's themes.

The fifth system of musical notation consists of five measures. The word 'Choral.' is written above the treble staff in measure 24. The system concludes the page's musical content.
