

421.8-

THE BOY AND BIRD.

NEW YORK.
C. H. DITSON & CO. 711 BROADWAY.
BOSTON, D. DITSON & CO.

Chicago.
Lyon & Healy.

Cinn.
J. Church & Co.

Boston.
J. G. Haynes & Co.

Phil^a.
Lee & Walker.

Copyright secured by Congress & renewed 1879 by C. H. Ditson & Co. in the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

THE BOY AND BIRD.

3

Poetry by PETER PARLEY.

Music by J. HAYDN WAUD.

Andante.

semplice.

hap - py lit - tle boy To be free is all my joy In the shade or in the sun I am still a hap - py one. poco ritard.

p poco ritard. In the a tempo.

gay and mer - ry spring I am free to play and sing In the sum - mer free to fly Where I will beneath the sky.

f

But in win - ter sad and drear What, my

p

Bird will give you cheer? What will warm you in the frost What will poco ritard. - - -

save when tempest toss'd

mf poco ritard. - - - a tempo.

Be - ing free my lit - tle boy Freedom is my winters joy This will ev - - er cheer my heart Tho' all o - ther joys de -

- part. This will keep me blithe and warm Thro' the frost and thro' the storm Lit - tle Boy O live like me ev-er, ev-er to be free Free to do and free to dare The ve-ry worst for freedoms air Free and fear- less of the strong Free to all but do ing wrong

f ritard.

dim. rall.