The Metronome-marks at the head of each movement are those given in the German edition of this work, published under the editorship of Ferdinand Spohr. As they may be assumed to have had some authority, it has not been thought desirable to alter them; but it will be found that, in many cases, they direct a much slower pace than is now customary.

It was no doubt owing to this fact that Mr. Edward Taylor, assuming the German directions in such cases to be accidental errors, halved the Metronomic sign, and so led performers into the opposite error of taking several movements much too fast. The following were altered by him:—

	(GERMAN EDITION.)	(TAYLOR'S EDITION.)
No. 12. "Lord God of Heaven and earth"	$\text{♩} = 72$ (too slow) . . .	$\text{♩} = 72$ (too fast).
No. 15. "Forsake me not"	$\text{♩} = 76$ (too slow) . . .	$\text{♩} = 76$ (too fast).
No. 19. "Blest are the departed"	$\text{♩} = 72$ (too slow) . . .	$\text{♩} = 72$ (too fast).
No. 22. Andante (p. 98) "O Lord, who shall not fear Thee" . . .	$\text{♩} = 108$ (too slow) . . .	$\text{♩} = 108$ (too fast).

It is to be feared that the above lovely movements have suffered much in the hands of inexperienced performers or conductors in consequence of this unfortunate disagreement.

The following is a list of important movements with Metronomic signs which seem to be more in accordance with the nature of the music and the customary pace of performance than those given at the head of the respective numbers:—

No. 5.	$\text{♩} = 95$ (not 80).
No. 8.	$\text{♩} = 104$ (not 84).
No. 10.	$\text{♩} = 120$ (not 88).
No. 12.	$\text{♩} = 92$ (not $\text{♩} = 72$).
No. 13. Andante grave (p. 57)	$\text{♩} = 66$ (not 56).
No. 15.	$\text{♩} = 69$ (not 76).
No. 19.	$\text{♩} = 80$ (not $\text{♩} = 72$).
No. 20.	$\text{♩} = 100$ (not 84).
No. 22. Allegro maestoso .	$\text{♩} = 108$ (not 96).
Andante (p. 98).	$\text{♩} = 96$ (not $\text{♩} = 108$).
Allegro (p. 100).	$\text{♩} = 132$ (not $\text{♩} = 112$).

In No. 15 the original form of the first theme may be preserved by transposing the words thus:—

A musical score in G major, 2/4 time. The melody is in soprano voice. The lyrics are: "In this dread hour, for - sake me not, O God most mer - ci - ful". The score includes a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a 2/4 time signature. The melody consists of eighth and sixteenth note patterns.

THE LAST JUDGMENT.

Part the First.

No. 1.—OVERTURE.

No. 2.—CHORUS.

Praise his awful name, who was, and is, and is to come: praise to Him who giveth immortality: all glory and majesty surround his throne. Worship and adore Him! Praise! Glory to God!

SOLO (SOPRANO).

Mighty He cometh to judgment; for He shall judge the world in righteousness, and his people with his truth.

SOLO (BASS).

Fear thou not, O man! for thy Redeemer liveth. He that died is risen, and He shall live to all eternity; and He shall reign, and shall conquer all his enemies.

CHORUS:

Praise his awful name, etc.

SOLO (BASS).

“I know thy works, and thy labor, and thy patience; for my sake thou hast endured affliction. Yet thy first and chiefest duty thou hast forsaken; and thou art fallen from thy high estate. Repent! and return to thy first work. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.”

CHORUS.

Praise his awful name, etc.

No. 3.—SOLO (BASS).

“Come up hither, and I will show thee what shall be hereafter.”

RECITATIVE (TENOR).

And lo! a throne was set in heaven, and on the throne One stood. And a rainbow was round about the throne; and the Elders knelt before the throne, clad in white raiment: and on their heads were crowns of gold: and from the throne came thunderings and lightnings, and voices, crying day and night:

No. 4.—SOLO (TENOR) AND CHORUS.

“Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty! who wast, and who art, and art to come!”

No. 5.—RECITATIVE (SOPRANO).

Behold the Lamb that was slain!

(4)

No. 6.—SOLO (TENOR).

Weep no more; behold, He that died is risen, and hath conquered Death and Hell.

No. 7.—RECITATIVE (SOPRANO).

And the Elders fell down before the Lamb, with their harps and golden urns bearing odors, singing this song of praise:

No. 8.—SOLO (SOPRANO) AND CHORUS.

“All glory to the Lamb that died, exalted now at God’s right hand, in blessing and wisdom and honor and praise for ever.”

No. 9.—RECITATIVE (TENOR).

And every creature that is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and in the sea, cried aloud and said:

No. 10.—SOLO (TENOR) AND CHORUS.

“Blessing, honor, glory and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever!”

No. 11.—RECITATIVE (TENOR).

And lo! a mighty host of all nations and people stood before the throne and the Lamb. Of spotless white was every garment: in every hand a palm was borne. They fell before the throne of God with holy fear.

SOLO (SOPRANO).

These, who passed through heavy tribulation, have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. They stand before God’s throne, and serve Him day and night; and the Lamb shall lead them to fountains of living waters, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

No. 12.—QUARTET.

Yes, every tear and every sorrow the Lord shall wipe away from their eyes: nor sin, nor death, nor pain, nor sorrow shall there be known. He is our God, and we are his people. Hail, our Redeemer! Hail!

CHORUS.

Lord God of heaven and earth, we adore thee! Blessing and power be thine, our Redeemer! Thou art the Lord our God, and we are thy people. Hail! our Redeemer! Hail!

Part the Second.

No. 13.—SYMPHONY.

No. 14.—SOLO (BASS).

Thus saith the Lord: "The end is near, and all the winds of heaven proclaim its coming. Prepare to meet thy God! I will reward thee even as thy works have been, and judge thee as thou hast deserved. To me is every action known; each secret thought is unveiled before me."

RECITATIVE (BASS).

The day of wrath is near: the Almighty shall reveal his power! The reaper's song is silent in the field, and the shepherd's voice on the mountain. The valleys then shall shake with fear: with dread the hills shall tremble. It comes! the day of terror comes! The awful morning dawns! Thy mighty arm, O God, is uplifted! Thou shalt shake the earth and heavens: they shall shrivel as a scroll, when Thou in wrath appear-est. For men shall cast away their silver, and count their gold as dross: it shall not save in the great and awful day! Where is now the monarch's might, where all his splendor, where the dreams of earthly greatness? The princes of the earth shall cast their crowns before Thee; and all the power of the mighty shall fail, when Thou, O Lord, shalt come to judge the world.

No. 15.—DUET (SOPRANO AND TENOR.)

Forsake me not in this dread hour, O God most merciful! Thou art my hope, O Lord, give ear unto my prayer! O spare Thy servant, and cast him not away! If Thou forsake me, whither shall I flee? No friend is nigh, no arm to save, but only Thou, Almighty Lord of Hosts. In Thee, O Lord, in Thee alone I trust!

No. 16.—CHORUS.

"If with your whole hearts ye humbly seek me, I will be found of you," saith the Lord; "and if ye return to me sincerely, I will receive you from all the ends of the earth. I will be your Father, and ye shall be my people:" thus saith the Lord.

No. 17.—SOLO (TENOR).

Jehovah now cometh to judgment! Bow down to worship Him who made the heavens and earth.

No. 18.—CHORUS.

Destroyed is Babylon the mighty! The smoke of her torment ascendeth for evermore. The hour of judgment is come! Now is the Lord at hand! The grave gives up its dead: the sea gives up its dead: the seals are broken; the books are all unclosed: the mighty now tremble before Him!

SYMPHONY.

SOLO (TENOR).

It is ended:

No. 19.—QUARTET AND CHORUS.

Blest are the departed who in the Lord are sleeping, from henceforth for evermore: they rest from their labors, and their works follow them.

No. 20.—RECITATIVE (SOPRANO).

I saw a new heaven and a new earth, by God prepared and adorned as a bride. Lo! the house of God is with men, and He will dwell among them, and they shall be his people. Nor sun shall be, nor moon: God is their sun; there shall his majesty unclouded rise. No earthly house is there: God is their temple, and their light.

No. 21.—SOLO (TENOR).

Behold! He soon shall come, in his might arrayed, to give to every one according to his work.

QUARTET.

"Then come, Lord Jesus!"

No. 22.—CHORUS.

"Great and wonderful are all thy works, O thou Almighty God! How just and true are all Thy commandments, Jehovah, King of Saints!"

QUARTET AND CHORUS.

"O Lord, who shall not fear Thee, who shall not glorify Thee! All nations of the earth shall come and worship before Thy throne, for Thou alone art holy."

CHORUS.

Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for evermore! Hallelujah! Amen!

Spohr's "Last Judgment."

This musical score page from Spohr's "Last Judgment" contains ten staves of music. The top section consists of five staves, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The vocal parts sing the lyrics "more, for e - ver - more, for e - ver - more, for e - - ver - more." The bottom section also has five staves, with the vocal parts singing "The hour of judg - ment is come!" The music includes dynamic markings like 'p' (piano) and 'f' (fortissimo), and various rests and note heads. The instrumentation is indicated by a bassoon-like symbol above the first staff and a cello-like symbol above the second staff.

89

The musical score consists of six staves of music. The top four staves are vocal parts (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and the bottom two are instrumental (Cello and Double Bass). The vocal parts sing a repetitive phrase: "Now, . . . now . . . is the Lord at hand, now . . . is the Lord at hand!". The instrumental parts provide harmonic support. Measure 89 concludes with a forte dynamic followed by a piano dynamic. The vocal parts then sing the same phrase again. The instrumental parts continue to play. The score ends with a final section where the vocal parts sing "The grave gives up its dead!" and "The sea gives". The instrumental parts provide harmonic support.

Spohr's "Last Judgment."

The musical score consists of two systems of ten staves each. The top staff is soprano, the second is alto, the third is tenor, and the fourth is bass. The piano part is on the fifth staff. The vocal parts sing "A-men." and "Hal-le-lu-jah!" in various rhythmic patterns. The piano part provides harmonic support with sustained notes and chords. Dynamics like p, pp, f, and cres. are indicated throughout. The music is arranged in two systems separated by a brace.
