The musical score consists of three staves of music in G major, 2/4 time. The top two staves are soprano voices, and the bottom staff is a basso continuo (BC) part. The lyrics are integrated into the music, appearing below the notes. The vocal parts begin with a melodic line, followed by harmonic chords. The basso continuo part provides harmonic support with sustained notes and chords.

How sweet to walk the vel - vet green,

WHEN SPRING BEGEMS THE DEWY SCENE.

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top two staves are for voices (Soprano and Alto/Tenor) and the bottom staff is for the piano. The music is in common time, with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The vocal parts enter in measures 11, 18, and 25, singing the lyrics "dew-y scene," "How sweet to walk the vel-vet," and "the vel-vet green," respectively. The piano part provides harmonic support throughout. Measure 11 starts with a forte dynamic (f), followed by measures 12-14 in piano dynamic (p). Measures 15-17 show a transition with dynamics p, f, and pp. Measures 18-20 continue the vocal line with the same lyrics. Measures 21-23 show another transition with dynamics p, f, and pp. Measures 24-26 continue the vocal line. Measures 27-30 conclude the section with a final transition, ending on a forte dynamic (f).

WHEN SPRING BEGEMS THE DEWY SCENE.

The musical score consists of three systems of music for voice and piano.

System 1: The vocal line starts with "lan - guid sighs," followed by "As o'er the scent - ed mead he flies, . . ." The piano accompaniment features eighth-note patterns. Dynamics include p dolce., p dolce., p dolce., pp, and p dolce.. The vocal line repeats the phrase "As o'er the scent - ed mead he flies," with each repetition starting with "lan - guid sighs," followed by "As o'er the scent - ed mead he flies, . . .".

System 2: The vocal line continues with "As o'er the scent - ed mead he flies, . . ." followed by "As o'er the scent - ed mead he flies, . . ." The piano accompaniment includes dynamics f, p, dim., dim., and f. The vocal line repeats the phrase "As o'er the scent - ed mead he flies, . . ." with each repetition starting with "As o'er the scent - ed mead he flies, . . .".

System 3: The vocal line begins with "staccato. à tempo." followed by "mead . . . he flies, . . . he flies. . . ."
