The musical score is written for a vocal ensemble and piano. It consists of five systems of staves. The first four systems each have a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The fifth system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The lyrics are: "lov - - - ers, sweet lov - ers love the Spring." The music is in 4/4 time and features a key signature of one sharp (F#). The piano accompaniment includes a bass line and a right-hand line with chords and arpeggios.

The musical score for the second system continues the vocal and piano parts. The lyrics are: 'lend thee their light, Like ta - pers clear with -out num - ber.'. The piano accompaniment continues with the same melody and bass line, ending with a repeat sign and a final chord.

The first system of the musical score consists of six staves. The first five staves are vocal parts (Soprano, Alto, Tenor 1, Tenor 2, and Bass) and the sixth staff is the piano accompaniment. The music is in 4/4 time and G major. It begins with a piano (p) dynamic and features a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics are: 'mer-ri - ly, mer-ri - ly rung the bells, the bells of Saint Mi-chael's tow'r,'. The piano part provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines in both hands.

The second system of the musical score continues the vocal and piano parts. It consists of six staves, with the first five being vocal parts and the sixth being the piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'mer-ri - ly, mer-ri - ly rung the bells, the bells of Saint Mi - chael's tow'r.'. The piano part continues with a similar accompaniment style, featuring chords and moving lines in both hands.

* This spirit-stirring air (of which more than one mutilated version is in circulation, and from which is derived the song "John Anderson, my Jo") was long adapted to a drinking song in praise of a little goblet, "Cruiskeen." In Irish words the termination cen is both a diminutive and a term of endearment. The little goblet, being a trimmer, was especially praised, as "lawn, lawn, lawn," i.e. "full, full, full."
