MUSICAL CHARACTERS EXPLAINED.

Examples.

The Bass Clif is placed on the fourth line, and called the F Clif, and is used only in Bass.

The Tenor & Treble Clif is placed on the second line, and called the G Clif, and is used in Tenor and Treble, and in Counter.

Examples.

The Counter Clif is placed on the third line, and called the C Clif, and is used in Counter.

A Staff is five lines with their spaces, whereon notes and other characters are written.

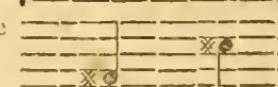

Ledger Lines are used when notes ascend or descend beyond the compass of the staff.

A Brace shows how many parts are sung together.

A Sharp set before a note raises it one semitone.

A Flat set before a note sinks it one semitone.

Either a Sharp or Flat set at the beginning of a tune have influence through it, unless contradicted by a natural.

A Natural restores a note, made flat or sharp, to its primitive sound.

Observe, that Sharps, Flats and Naturals affect the sound of no letters but those on which they are set.

A Repetit. Sign shows what part of a tune is to be sung over again.

Figures 1, 2, signify that the note under 1 is to be sung before repeating, and the note under 2 at repeating; if tied, both

A Slur shows what notes are sung to one syllable; but when notes are tied at the bottom, the slur is unnecessary.

Staccato Marks require that the notes over which they are set, should be sung distinctly.

A Point of Addition adds to a note one half its original length. When set after a Semibreve it makes it equal to three Minims, when set after a Minim, it makes it equal to 3 Crotchets, &c.

A Figure 3, placed over or under any three notes, reduces them to the time of two of the same kind.

Choosing Notes are placed in a direct line, one above another, either of which, or both may be sung.

A Legature, or Tye, comprehends two or more notes upon the same line, or space tied with a slur, which must be sung with one name and as one sound.

A Single Bar divides the time according to the measure note.

A Measure Note is that, which fills a bar.

Appoggiatures, or Leaning Notes, are sung according to the value of the note, which follows.

A Double Bar shows the end of a strain.

A Close shows the end of a tune.

OF NOTES.

SIX Notes are used in vocal music, which are of different forms and lengths, viz.:

1st. The Semibreve.....  which contains 2 Minims.

2d. The Minim.....  which contains 2 Crotchets.

3d. The Crotchet.....  which contains 2 Quavers.

4th. The Quaver.....  which contains 2 Semiquavers.

5th. The Semiquaver.....  which contains 2 Demisemiquavers.

6th. The Demisemiquaver...  which is the shortest note used.

OF RESTS.

RESTS require the same time as the notes they represent.

A Semibreve Rest.....  is equal in time to a Semibreve.

A Minim Rest.....  is equal in time to a Minim.

A Crotchet Rest.....  is equal in time to a Crotchet.

A Quaver Rest.....  is equal in time to a Quaver.

A Semiquaver Rest.....  is equal in time to a Semiquaver.

A Demisemiquaver Rest...  is equal in time to a Demisemiquaver.

SCALE SHOWING THE PROPORTION OF NOTES.

1 Semibreve		contains
2		Minims,
or 4		Crotchets,
or 8		Quavers,
or 16		Semiquavers.
or 32		Demi-semiquavers.

The above scale ought to be well understood, otherwise the Learner will gradually be lost.

OF TIME.

THERE are three divisions of Time, viz: Common, Triple, and Compound.

COMMON TIME is measured by even numbers, as 2, 4, &c. and has four Marks.

The First Mark has a Semibreve for its measure note, and is thus beaten,

- 1st. Let the ends of the fingers fall,
- 2d. Let the heel of the hand fall,
- 3d. Raise the heel of the hand,
- 4th. Raise the ends of the fingers, which completes the bar.

Example.

The Second Mark has a Semibreve for its measure note, and is beaten in the same manner as the first Mark.

Example.

The Third Mark D or $\text{D}^{\#}$ has a Semibreve for its measure note, and is beaten thus,

- 1st. Let the ends of the fingers fall,
- 2d. Raise the ends of the fingers, which completes the bar.

Example.

1 2. 1 2. 1 2.

A musical staff in common time (indicated by a 'C') with a bass clef. It contains two notes: a long note (Semibreve) and a short note (Minim). Below the staff, the fingerings 'du.', 'd', 'u.', 'd', 'u.' are written under each note respectively.

The Fourth Mark D has a Minim for its measure note, and is beaten like the third Mark.

Example.

1 2. 1 2. 1 2.

A musical staff in common time (indicated by a 'C') with a bass clef. It contains two notes, both of which are short (Minims). Below the staff, the fingerings 'du.', 'd', 'u.', 'd', 'u.' are written under each note respectively.

The first Mark has 4 beats in a bar.

The Second Mark has 4 beats in a bar.

The Third Mark has 2 beats in a bar.

The Fourth Mark has 2 beats in a bar.

TRIPLE TIME is measured by odd numbers, as 3, &c. and has three Marks, which are all beaten in the same manner, thus,

- 1st. Let the ends of the fingers fall,
- 2d. Let the heel of the hand fall,
- 3d. Raise the ends of the fingers, which completes the bar.

The First Mark D called three to two, has a pointed Semibreve for its measure note. D Three Minims fill a bar, or six Crotchets, &c.

Example.

1 2 3. 1 2 3. 1 2 3.

A musical staff in common time (indicated by a 'C') with a bass clef. It contains one long note (pointed Semibreve) and two short notes (Minims). Below the staff, the fingerings 'du.', 'd', 'u.', 'd', 'd', 'u.' are written under each note respectively.

The Second Mark D called three from four, has a pointed Minima for its measure note. D Three Crotchets, or six Quavers fill a bar.

Example.

1 2 3. 1 2 3. 1 2 3.

A musical staff in common time (indicated by a 'C') with a bass clef. It contains one short note (pointed Minima) and three short notes (Crotchets). Below the staff, the fingerings 'du.', 'd', 'u.', 'd', 'd', 'u.' are written under each note respectively.

The Third Mark D called three from eight, has a pointed Crotchet for its measure note. D Three Quavers, or Six Semiquavers fill a bar.

Example.

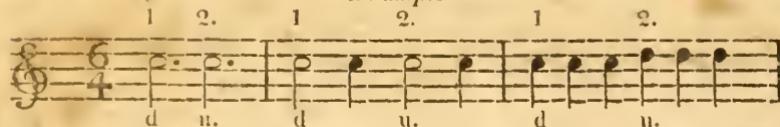

1 2 3. 1 2 3. 1 2 3.

A musical staff in common time (indicated by a 'C') with a bass clef. It contains one short note (pointed Crotchet) and three short notes (Quavers). Below the staff, the fingerings 'du.', 'd', 'u.', 'd', 'd', 'u.' are written under each note respectively.

COMPOUND TIME has two Marks.

The First Mark  called six to four, has either two pointed Minims, two Minims  and two Crotchets, or six Crotchets in a bar; two beats, one down and one up.

Example.

The Second Mark  called six from eight, has either two pointed Crotchets, two Crotches  and two Quavers, or six Quavers in a bar; two beats, one down and one up.

Example.

N. B. The figures refer to the number of beats in a bar; the letters d and u, for down and up beats.

OF ACCENT.

ACCENT belongs chiefly to the Composer. In vocal music the performer can be allowed only the natural accent, which arises from the proper pronunciation of words or syllables. The learner need not therefore trouble himself any further than has been mentioned.

OF THE MODES, OR KEYS.

THERE are but two Modes or Keys, the Major, or Sharp Key, and the Minor or Flat Key.

The learner may distinguish the Modes by the last note in the Bass, which note if it be Faw, is the Major mode, and if it be Law, it is the Minor.

The principles of the two modes must be explained by an Instructor.

OF NAMING THE NOTES.

WHEN a tune has neither sharps nor flats at the beginning, Mi is in B.	If there be 1 Sharp, Mi is in F sharp.	If there be 1 Flat, Mi is in E.
..... 2 Sharps, Mi is in C sharp. 2 Flats, Mi is in A.
..... 3 Sharps, Mi is in G sharp. 3 Flats, Mi is in D.
..... 4 Sharps, Mi is in D sharp. 4 Flats, Mi is in G.

Above Mi are faw, sol, law, faw, sol, law, and then comes Mi.

Below Mi are law, sol, faw, law, sol, faw, and then comes Mi.

Between Mi and Faw—and Law and Faw, there is but a Semitone; between the rest are whole tones.

 THE learner ought to commit the most of the preceding rules to memory, before he attempts to call the notes; a neglect of this is one of the principal causes of the inaccurate performance, which at present exists in many choirs of singers. Many persons, having a good musical ear, are very apt to trust to that, rather than confine themselves to rules, and afterward blame their Instructors for their own negligence. Instructors ought to insist that their pupils pay a particular attention to the principles, and in no case to suffer them to neglect it.

When the learner has acquired a ready acquaintance with the rules, he ought to attend to the lessons for tuning the voice, on which depends his future progress, and he ought not to attempt a tune, till he can sing the several intervals in the octave readily.

Many schools have begun upon tunes, when they could scarcely have given a letter upon the scale, which is another cause that there are so many half singers. The learner may be sure that the more thoroughly he understands the principles, when he ought to attend to them, the more swift will be his progress afterward.

Schools then ought to be solicitous that their Instructors be well qualified, for how can they instruct others, when they are ignorant themselves? Learners, in that case, are led to suppose that they have improved, when they really have not, and consequently their time and money are both spent to no manner of purpose.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

WHEN a tune is well learnt by note, it may be sung in words. Pronounce every word as distinctly as possible. Singers generally fail in this point, by which means, half the beauty of the music is lost, the words not being understood.

In assigning voices to the several parts, the Teacher must be the judge. For if a voice, which is suitable only for Bass, be put upon the Tenor, it will hang as a weight upon that part, and have a tendency continually to lower the pitch.

Never sing through the Nose, for that will spoil the voice, make the music disagreeable, and have a disgusting effect upon the hearer.

High notes should generally be sung softer than the low. The Subject ought however to regulate the strength of voice. The tone of the Bass should be full and majestic; of the Tenor, bold and manly; of the Counter, soft yet firm; of the Treble, smooth and delicate. Suitable attention should always be paid to the Directive terms. A good tune, performed without any variation, will be dull and insipid.—In a company of singers it would have a good effect for some of the performers, on each part, to be silent, when passages marked Soft occur; the additional strength of their voices in the Loud, which generally succeeds the Soft, would mark the contrast more strongly, and give peculiar force and energy to the performance.—A becoming manner of conduct in a collection of singers, will greatly increase the agreeable sensations, which naturally arise from good performances.

The graces and ornaments of music, such as Holds, Trills, Appoggiatures, Transitions, &c. must be acquired by great practice and attention; the learner had better omit them till his knowledge and judgment dictate when and where to apply them.

 PASSAGES, where Syncopation takes place, are better explained by the Instructor, than by words; for this reason, an explanation is here omitted.

LESSONS FOR TUNING THE VOICE.

WHEN learning the following lessons for tuning the voice, be careful to give every note its proper sound, and pay particular attention to the situation of the semitones. Let the motion, of the hand, in keeping the time, be even and exact; always remembering that the hand must fall at the beginning of a bar, and rise at the close.

The more time you allow for the practice of the lessons, the easier you will learn a tune afterward. Should you neglect them wholly, or cannot read music hereafter with any firmness and certainty of tone.

A handwritten musical score for three voices (Soprano, Alto, Bass) on five-line staff paper. The score consists of two systems of music. Each system begins with a clef (Soprano: F, Alto: C, Bass: C), a key signature (Soprano: B-flat major, Alto: G major, Bass: E major), and a time signature (Soprano: common time, Alto: common time, Bass: common time). The vocal parts are written in a single staff, with vertical bar lines dividing measures. The vocal parts are labeled above the staff: Soprano, Alto, and Bass. The music includes various note heads (circles with dots) and rests, with some notes having stems pointing up or down. The handwriting is cursive and appears to be in ink.

A handwritten musical score for three voices. The top staff is in bass clef, the middle in tenor clef, and the bottom in soprano clef. The key signature is two flats. The time signature is common time. The music consists of four staves of eight measures each. The lyrics are written below the notes. The first stanza starts with "Now shall my head be lift-ed high, A-bove my foes a-round," followed by a repeat sign and the second stanza: "And songs of joy and victory, Within thy temple sound, sound, Within thy temple sound, sound, Within thy temple sound." This pattern repeats for the third and fourth stanzas.

Now shall my head be lift-ed high, A-bove my foes a-round,
And songs of joy and victory, Within thy temple sound, sound, Within thy temple sound, sound, Within thy temple sound.
And songs of joy and victory, Within thy temple sound, sound, Within thy temple sound, sound, Within thy temple sound.

Lord what a tho'tless wretch was I, To mourn and murmur and repine, To see the wicked plac'd on high, In pride and robes of honor shine.

But, O their end, their dreadful end, Thy sanctuary taught me so ; On slipp'ry rocks I see them stand, And fi'ry billows roll below.

Jesus, lover of my soul, Let me to thy bosom fly, While the nearer waters roll, while the tempest still is high ; Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,

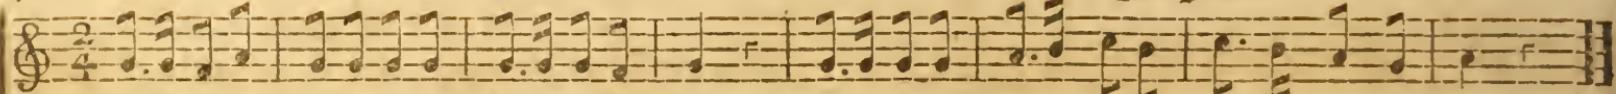

Till the storm of life is past; Safe into the haven guide, O receive, O receive, O receive my soul at last.

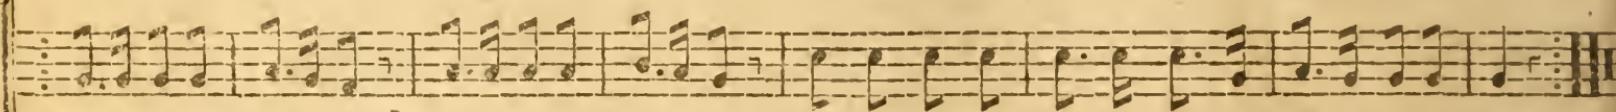

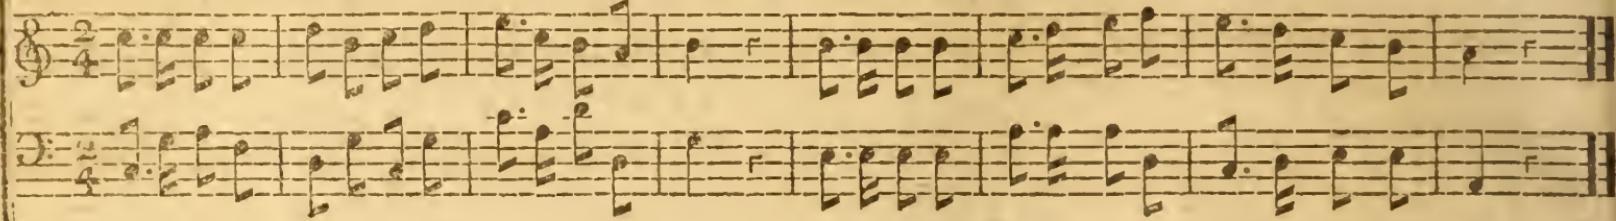

2 Other refuge have I none,
Hangs my helpless soul on thee ;
Leave, ah ! leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me !
All my trust on thee is stay'd,
All my help from thee I bring,
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of thy wing.

3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
More than all in thee I find ;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind ;
Just and holy is thy name ;
I am all unrighteousness ;
False and full of sin I am ;
Thou art full of truth and grace.

4 Plenteous grace with thee is found,
Grace to cover all my sin :
Let the healing streams abound ;
Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of thee,
Spring thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

Praise the Lord who reigns above, And keeps his courts below ; Praise the holy God of love, And all his greatness show ;

Praise him for his noble deeds, Praise him for his matchless pow'r ; Him from whom all good proceeds, Let heav'n and earth adore.

2 Publish spread to all around
The great Emmanuel's name ;
Let the trumpet's marshal sound
Him Lord of hosts proclaim.

Praise him, ev'ry tuneful string,
All the reach of heav'nly art,
All the pow'rs of music bring,
The music of the heart.

3 Him in whom we live and move,
Let ev'ry creature sing ;
Glory to their Maker give,
And homage to their King,

Hollowed be his name beneath,
As in heav'n on earth ador'd :
Praise the Lord in ev'ry breath,
Let all things praise the Lord.

Swiftly vanishing out of my sight,
My triumph and boast
On a sudden were lost,
And my day it was turn'd into night.

4 Only pride could destroy
That innocent joy,
And make my Redeemer depart :
But whate'er was the cause,
I lament the sad loss,
For the veil is come over my heart,

5 Ah! wretch that I am !
I can only exclaim,
Like a devil tormented within,
My Saviour is gone,
And has left me alone,
To the fury of Satan and sin.

6 Nothing'now can relieve,
Without comfort I grieve,
I have lost all my peace and my pow'r,
No access do I find
To the friend of mankind :
I can ask for his mercy no more.

7 Tongue cannot declare
The torment I bear,
(While no end of my troubles I see)
Only Adam could tell
On the day that he fell,
And was turn'd out of Eden like me,

8 Driven out from my God,
I wander abroad,
Thro' a desert of forrows I rove ;
And how great is my pain,
That I cannot regain
My Eden of Jefus's love !

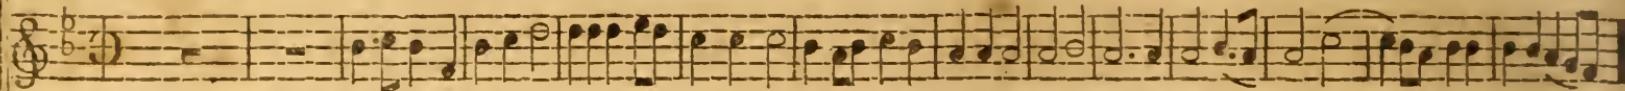

9 I never shall rise
To my first paradise,
Or come my Redeemer to see,
But I feel a faint hope,
That at last he will stoop,
And his pity shall bring him to me.

Hark ! the herald angels sing,

Glory to the new-born King

Peace od earth and mercy mild,

Hark ! the heardl angels sing,

Glory to the new-born King,

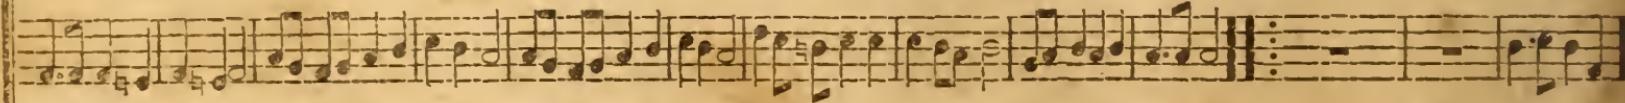

God and sinners reconcil'd,

Joyful all ye nations rise,

With the angelic host proclaim,

Hark ! the herald angels sing,

God and sinners recencil'd.

Join the triumph of the skies,

Christ is born at Bethlehem.

Come, thou Almighty King, Help us thy name to sing, Help us to praise! Father all glorious, O'er all victorious, Come, and reign over us Ancient of days.

2 Jesus, our Lord, arise,
Scatter our enemies,
And make them fall!
Let thy almighty aid,
Our sure defence be made,
Our souls on thee be stay'd
Lord hear our call.

3 Come, thou incarnate Word,
Gird on thy mighty sword,
Our pray'r attend:
Come, and thy people bless,
And give thy word success;
Spirit of holiness,
On us descend.

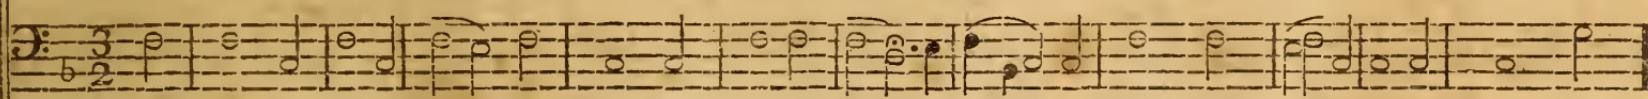

4 Come, holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witnes bear
In this glad hour;
Thou who almighty art,
Now rule in ev'ry heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of pow'r.

5 To the great One in Three
Eternal praises be,
Heuce—evermore!
His sov'reign Majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity,
Love and adore.
