Musical Characters.

Clefs are used to designate the parts, and are the three following. The first is being placed on the letter F, and is used in the Bass marked thus, only.

The second is being placed on the letter G, and is used in the parts marked thus, above the Bass.

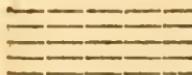

The third is and has its place commonly on C, though it is removable to any other letter, in which case it removes the order of all the other letters with it.

Staff.

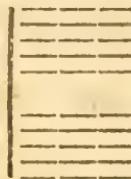

A Staff is five lines with their spaces, whereon notes are written.

Ledger Lines.

Ledger lines are added when notes ascend, or descend from the staff.

A Brace

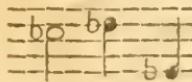

Shows how many parts move together.

Sharps.

A Sharp set before a note, raises it half a tone.

Flats.

A Flat set before a note, sinks it half a tone.

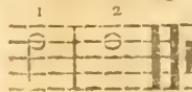

Naturals.

A Natural destroys the effect of flats and sharps, and restores the note before which it is set, to its primitive sound.

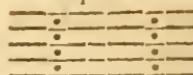

Either a flat or a sharp set at the beginning of a tune have influence through the tune unless contradicted by a natural.

Double Ending.

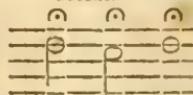

A double ending shows that the notes under figure 1, are sung before repeating; and under figure 2, at repeating; if tied together, all are sung at repeating.

Repeat.

Shows what part of an air is sung over again.

Holds.

A Hold gives the performer liberty to continue the sound of the note, to which it refers, beyond its common length.

Staccato Marks.

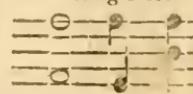

Staccato Marks are to be performed distinctly.

Slurs.

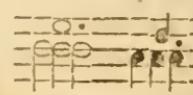

A Slur shows the number of notes sung to one syllable.

Choosing Notes.

Choosing Notes gives the performer liberty to perform which he pleases, or both may be sung at the same time.

Point of Addition.

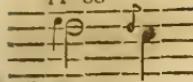

A Point of Addition set after any note, adds to it half its original length; which makes the pointed semibreve equal to three minims, &c.

Point of Diminution.

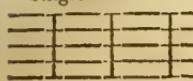

A figure 3 set over or under any three notes, diminishes them to the time of two of the same kind.

Appoggiaturas.

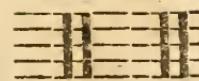

Appoggiaturas are small notes to lean on in passing intervals, and must be dwelt upon according to the length or value of the note.

Single bars.

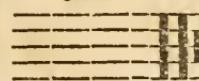

Single Bars divide the time according to the measure note.

Double Bars.

Double Bars shows the end of a strain.

Close.

A Close shows the end of a tune.

Of Notes and their Rests.

Semib. Rest. Minim Rests. Crotchet Rests. Quaver Rests.

Semiquaver Rests.

Demisemiquaver Rests.

The Notes and Rests thus arranged, explain at one view the proportion they bear to each other in length of sound. The first bar being filled with a semibreve, the second with two minims, show, that the semibreve is twice as long as the minim, the minim twice as long as the crotchet, &c. You should keep silence at any one Rest as long as you would be sounding the note it represents.

When there are neither flats nor sharps at the begining of a tune, mi is in B.

If there is 1 sharp, it is in F sharp.
2 sharps, it is in C sharp.
3 sharps, it is in G sharp.
4 sharps, it is in D sharp.

If there is 1 flat, it is in E.
2 flats, it is in A.
3 flats, it is in D.
4 flats, it is in G.

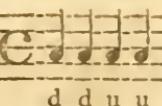

Above mi, is fa, sol, law, fa, sol, law, twice over, and below mi, is law, sol, fa, law, fol, fa, then come the mi again. From mi to fa, and from law to fa, are but half tones.

Common Time.

First Adagio, has four beats in a bar, two down and two up, has four crotchets or their a. Mode, mount, accented on the first and third.

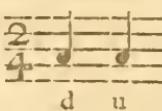

Second Mode, Largo, has four beats in a bar, two down and two up, has four crotchets, accented as the former, and performed about one quarter quicker.

Third Mode, Allegro, has two beats, one down and one up, four crotchets in a bar, accented on the first.

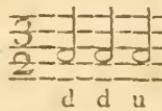

Fourth Mode, Has two crotchets or their amount, in a bar, and has two beats, accented as the third mode, and performed about one quarter faster.

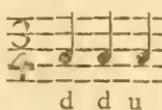

Triple Time.

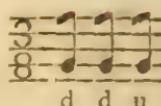

First Mode, Has three beats in a bar, two down, and one up; three minims or their amount fill a bar, accented chiefly on the first, and faintly on the third parts of the bar.

Second Mode, Has three crotchets in a bar, or their amount; beat and accented as the first, and performed about one quarter quicker.

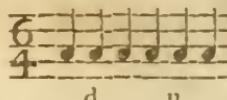

Third Mode, Has three quavers in a bar; beat and accented as the former, and performed about one quarter quicker than the second.

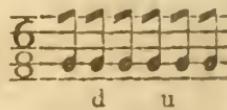

Compound Time.

First Mode, Has six crotchets in a bar, or their amount; two beats, one down and one up, and accented on the first.

Second Mode, Has six quavers, or their amount, in a bar, beat and accented as the former, performed about one quarter faster.

Of the Keys in Musick.

There are but two keys in musick, the sharp or major key, and the flat or minor key, which may be distinguished by the last note in the bass, which if it be next above mi, it is sharp, if next below, it is a flat key; or by the third, sixth and seventh above its key; for if either of them are lesser, it is flat, if greater, it is sharp.

The musical score consists of six staves of music. The first three staves are for 'St. Bridge's. S. M.' and the last three are for 'Dr. Howard.' Air. The music is in common time, with a key signature of one flat. The vocal parts are in soprano range, and the bass part is in bass range. The lyrics are as follows:

I lift my foul to God,
My trust is in his name;
Let not my foes, that seek my blood,
Still triumph in my flame.

Musical score for two voices in common time. The top voice uses soprano C-clef, and the bottom voice uses alto C-clef. The music consists of two staves of six measures each, separated by a repeat sign with a brace. The notation includes various note heads (solid, hollow, cross-hatched) and rests, with some notes having stems pointing up and others down. Measure 1 starts with a solid eighth note in the soprano and a hollow eighth note in the alto. Measures 2-3 show a mix of solid and hollow notes. Measures 4-6 continue this pattern, with measure 6 ending on a solid eighth note in the soprano and a hollow eighth note in the alto. Measures 7-8 show a mix of solid and hollow notes.

to the throne of grace, There wait the welcome mess - age, That bids us go in peace.

2 Lord, we are helpless creatures
Full of the deepest need,
Throughout defil'd by nature,
Stupid and only dead ;
Our strength is perfect weakness,
And all we have is sin,
Our hearts are all uncleanness,
A den of thieves within.

3 In this forlorn condition,
Who shall afford us aid,
Where shall we find compassion,
But in the church's head ;
Jesus, thou art all pity,
O take us to thine arms,
And exercise thy mercy,
To save us from all harms.

Blessed are the sons of God, They are bought with Christ's own blood,

2 God did love them in his Son,
Long before the world begun;
They the seal of this receive,
When on Jesus they believe.

3 They are justified by grace,
They enjoy a solid peace;
All their sins are wash'd away,
They shall stand in God's great day.

4 They produce the fruits of grace,
In the works of righteousness!
They are harmless, meek, and mild,
Holy, humble, undefiled.

5 They are lights upon the earth,
Children of an heav'nly birth,
One with God, with Jesus one,
Glory is in them begun.

Rondeau or Rondo, an air ending with the first strain.

Sotto Voce, middling strength of voice.

Sempre Piano, soft throughout the movement.

Sicilliano, a pathetick air of $\frac{9}{8}$ or $\frac{5}{8}$.

Solo, for one principal Instrument, or voice.

Soli, one to each part.

Symphony, for Instruments only.

Syncopation, slurring, applied to passages where a long note comes between two short ones.

Tacet, remain silent.

Tempo Minuetto, in minuet time.

Trio, in three parts.

Tutti, all the parts together.

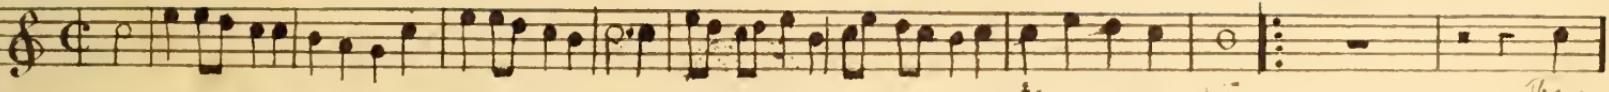

Vivace, with life and spirit.

ERRATA.

Page 16th, in the two upper parts to "Victory, repeat the words to crown.....Page 29th, the last bar but one in the Air of Interment, the pointed crotchet on F, should be on G, and the quaver on E, should be on F.....Page 74, the third bar in the Air of Bramshot, the crotchet on E* should be on G* and the one on F, should be on A.

N. B. A critical eye will undoubtedly discover some few errors more, but it is presumed they are such as can easily be corrected by the performer.

Allegro Moderato

Portuguese Hymn. L.M.

A handwritten musical score for a Portuguese Hymn. The score consists of eight staves of music, divided into two systems. The first system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature (indicated by a '2'). The second system begins with a bass clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature. The music is composed of eighth and sixteenth note patterns, with various rests and dynamic markings. The score is written on five-line staff paper.
