THE rapid sale of fifty-two thousand copies of the "Congregational Psalmist" is a gratifying indication of the interest felt in popular Psalmody, as well as of the adaptation of this work to meet the want which occasioned its compilation.

The object of the Editor was to render available for worshipping use the finest chorals of every age and of every section of the Church. Gifts of poetry and of song have been bestowed upon every generation, and upon none, perhaps, more richly than our own. Hence the canon of Church song can never be completed; additions will continuously be made to the richness of the worship of the Church, and to the joy of its spiritual life. It were, therefore, an egregious folly and loss, either to refuse the precious inheritance of the past, or to exclude ourselves from the fresh contributions to it that from time to time are proffered. The past is commended to us by the test of successive generations, the present by contemporary form and feeling; the old that remains to us has filtered out of much that has perished, and the new that is proffered to us is doubtless destined to undergo the same process. It is simple pedantry to restrict the music of the Church to either any particular age or any particular school. Like a hymn-book, a tune-book should provide for various tastes and degrees of capacity; the ruling canon of its compilation should be, not conformity to dogmatic rules, but practical fitness for devotional use. Whatever contributes to worshipping reverence and joy—so long as it is free from incongruous associations—is both legitimate and desirable. In the "Congregational Psalmist," both tunes and harmonies of various periods, and of various schools, will be found; of the chorals of the Latin Church, from Ambrose to Luther, it contains twenty-five; from the rich choral treasures of the German Protestant Churches, ninety-five have been selected; the limited Psalmody of the French Protestant Church has furnished seven; from the English and Scottish Psalters of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, thirty-four have been taken; living composers of various churches and schools have contributed seventy-six; the rest have been gathered from various writers of the last two centuries. It is scarcely too much to say that no existing English compilation contains so large and so Catholic a representation of the worship-song of "the Holy Church throughout the world."

The varying capacities of congregations have also been considered; while the great bulk of the tunes are such as the least advanced may use, some tunes are inserted which only the cultured can sing.

To the Catholic character of the book, to the imperishable qualities of the grand chorals which have come down to us from past generations, and to the variety of taste and capacity for which it provides, its large success is doubtless owing.

The present Edition contains fifty-three additional tunes. These are added, partly, to supply such deficiencies as the practical use of the book had revealed, partly, to add some tunes of unquestionable excellence which had been overlooked, and partly, to enable the use of tunes which have appeared since this work was published, and which, from various causes, have become popular. Permission to use the latter has in every instance been most readily and generously given, and is hereby most gratefully acknowledged.

HENRY ALLON.

Behold the Lamb of God! O Thou for sinners slain, Let it not be in vain That Thou hast died.
Thee for my Saviour let me take, My on-ly refuge let me make Thy piercèd side. A-men.

Behold the Lamb of God!

Into the sacred flood

Of Thy most precious blood

My soul I cast:

Wash me and make me clean within,
And keep me pure from every sin,
Till life be past.

Behold the Lamb of God!

All hail, Incarnate Word,

Thou everlasting Lord,

Saviour most blest:

Fill us with love that never faints,
Grant us with all Thy blessed saints
Eternal rest.Behold the Lamb of God!
Worthy is He alone,
That sitteth on the throne
Of God above;
One with the Ancient of all days,
One with the Comforter in praise,
All Light and Love. Amen.

For mercy on the souls of men;

 Thine is the victor's laurel,
 And thine the golden dower.
 The Lamb is all thy splendour,

 When shall I see thy face ?
 O sweet and blessed country,
 When shall I win thy grace ?

The day is gone, its hours have run,
 And Thou hast taken count of all,
 The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
 The broken vow, the frequent fall.
 Through life's long day and death's dark night,

 Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
 True absolution and release;
 And bless us, more than in past days,
 With purity and inward peace.
 Through life's long day and death's dark night,
 O gentle Jesus, be our Light.
 Do more than pardon ; give us joy,
 Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
 And simple hearts without alloy,

That only long to be like Thee.
 Through life's long day and death's dark night,
 O gentle Jesus, be our Light.
 Labour is sweet, for Thou hast toiled;
 And care is light, for Thou hast cared;
 Ah ! never let our works be soiled
 With strife, or by deceit ensnared.
 Through life's long day and death's dark night,

When the weary, seeking rest, To Thy goodness flee ; When the heavy laden cast All their load on Thee ; When the troubled, seeking peace, On Thy name shall call ; When the sin - ner, seeking life, At Thy feet shall fall :

Hear, then in love, O Lord, the cry, In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.
When the worldling, sick at heart,
Lifts his soul above ;
When the prodigal looks back
To his Father's love ;
When the proud man from his pride,
Stoops to seek Thy face ;
When the burdened brings his guilt
To Thy throne of grace :
Hear then, in love, O Lord, the cry,
In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.
When the stranger asks a home,
All his toils to end ;
When the hungry craveth food,
And the poor a friend ;
When the sailor on the wave
Bows the fervent knee ;
When the soldier on the field
Lifts his heart to Thee :
Hear then, in love, O Lord, the cry,
In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.
When the man of toil and care
In the city crowd ;
When the shepherd on the moor
Names the name of God ;
When the learned and the high,

Tired of earthly fame,
Upon higher joys intent,
Name the blessed Name :
Hear then, in love, O Lord, the cry,
In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.
When the child, with grave fresh lip,
Youth, or maiden fair ;
When the aged, weak and grey,
Seek Thy face in prayer ;
When the widow weeps to Thee,
Sad and lone and low ;
When the orphan brings to Thee
All his orphan woe :
Hear then, in love, O Lord, the cry,
In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.
When creation, in her pangs,
Heaves her heavy groan ;
When Thy Salem's exiled sons
Breathe their bitter moan ;
When Thy waiting, weeping church,
Looking for a home,
Sendeth up her silent sigh,
Come, Lord Jesus, come !
Hear then, in love, O Lord, the cry,
In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

PSALM LXXXIV.

The musical notation consists of two systems of four staves each, written in common time with a key signature of one sharp. The top staff uses a treble clef, and the bottom staff uses a bass clef. The music is divided by vertical bar lines and includes several rests. The title "Joyful." is written above the first staff. The author's name, "T. NORRIS", is printed at the top right of the second system.

1 How amiable are thy tabernacles, O | Lord of | hosts ! || My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth | for the | courts - of the | Lord :

My | heart - and my | flesh, || Crieth | out for - the |
li...ving | God.

2 Yea, the sparrow hath | found a | house, || And the |
swallow a | nest for - her | self,

Where she may | lay her | young, || Even thine altars
O Lord of | hosts, my | King - and my | God.

3 Blessed are they that | dwell - in thy | house : || They | will - be still | prais...ing | thee.

Blessed is the man whose | strength - is in | thee ; ||
In whose | heart are - the | ways of | them.

4 Who passing through the valley of Baca | make - it a |
well ; || The rain | al...so | filleth the | pools.

They go from | strength to | strength, || Every one of them in Zion ap | peareth be | fore | God.

5 O Lord God of hosts, | hear my | prayer : || Give |
ear, O | God of | Jacob.
