

TENOR.

OF
THOMAS MORLEY
THE FIRST BOOKE OF CANZONETS
TO TWO VOYCES.

IN LONDON
BY THOMAS ESTE.

CIO. IO. XC. V.

TO THE MOST VERTV-
OVS AND GENTILE LADIE
THE LADIE PERIAM.

OE heere, most worthy Ladie these Canzonets of mine like two wayting maydes desiring to attend vpon you; destinated by my Wife (euen beefore they were borne) vnto your Ladiships seruice. Not that for any great good or bewtie in them shee thought them worthy of you: but that not being able as heeretofore still to serue you; shee would that these therefore with their preferre should make good & supply that hir absence. For hir sake then vouchsafe, gentle Ladie, to entertain them; hauing no other thing to commend them to you for, but this that they are Virgins, neuer yet hauing once been out at doores, nor seene the fashions of the world abroad. And therefore notwithstanding perhaps in the highest degree they shall not satisfie you: yet if they shal but in any sort content you; I know that the greatest fault you will finde in them shalbe for their finalnesse. And so good Madame I cease further to trouble: but not still to serue and honor you.

From London the 17. of Nouember. 1595.
