P S A L M S.

THAT the Psalms of David abound with Praises, Thanksgivings, and many pious Ejaculations, beautifully adapted to elevate the Heart of the devout Christian, cannot be denied; yet as being compos'd for particular Circumstances, tho' excellent in themselves, it may be allow'd that many Parts of them are rendered very unfit for public Worship, which should be calculated to suit the state of every sincere Christian, who is willing to lift up his Voice in Praise of his Creator.

As it ought to be the Desire, and constant Endeavour of every Clerk to a Church or Chapel, that this essential Part of our Church Service be perform'd with Decency and good Order, and, as St. Paul observes, with the understanding also; I have thought it my Duty, not only to collect such Portions of the Psalms as may answer the afore-mentioned Purposes; but also (by the Assistance of my Friend Mr. Dupuis) to adapt such Tunes to them, as, when sung with Spirit and Judgment will, I hope, give entire satisfaction to all who have a real Taste for Psalmody: And I think I may venture to affirm, that if the Congregations of our Establish'd Church were as industrious to become Proficients in this respect, as our modern Sectaries are, our mode of singing would be equally perfect and harmonious, and more solemn and suitable for Divine Worship than theirs. To accomplish this, I would recommend it to all Persons (especially the Female part of our Congregations), who play on the Harpsichord, or any other Musical Instrument, to practise these Tunes, that they may effectually join in singing, in the course of Divine Service: For which Purpose, I have taken care to have proper Bases affix'd and figur'd to each Tune. This, if properly attended to, would greatly enliven this delightful Part of our Duty in praising our Redeemer; and contribute to answer the pious Intention of the Royal Psalmist; who concludes his admirable Lessons, with an Invitation unto "every living Creature that hath Breath, to praise the Lord."

It will, no doubt, be objected by Persons who do not understand Music, that the Notes can be of no Use to them: To obviate which, I humbly beg Leave to observe, that such Part of the Congregation as hath a little Knowledge of the Tunes, will find the Notes of real Service, in enabling them to follow others, who sing the Tunes true; and prove a much stronger Guide to the rest, who, with a little Diligence and Attention to the Organ, will soon be convinced, that the Notes are of Service to all.

This Book is published in its present Form, at the Request of several in these Congregations, who have expressed a Desire, that some Tunes of modern Date might be added to those we have hitherto made Use of,—tho' many prefer the latter : I have, therefore, endeavoured to give Satisfaction to all ; having introduced select Tunes, composed by the most eminent Authors, of both Sorts ; and intend to use them (alternately) to the Praise and Glory of that GOD, who hath promis'd, that if we “ make his Service our Delight, he will make our Wants his Care.”

To this End, I humbly offer the following ABRIDGMENT, with my sincere Wishes that it may prove acceptable and beneficial to all who may use it :

And am, with due Respect,

Their dutiful and obliged

humble Servant,

Charlotte-Sreet,
Bloomfbury.

P S A L M. I.

C R O W L E T U N E,

HOW blest is he who ne'er consents
By ill advice to walk;

Nor stands in sinners ways, nor sits

Where men profanely talk:

But makes the perfect law of God,

His business and delight;

Devoutly reads therein by day,

And meditates by night.

Like some fair tree, which fed by streams,

With timely fruit does bend,

He still shall flourish, and success

All his designs attend.

Ungodly men, and their attempts

No lasting root shall find;

Untimely blasted and dispers'd,

Like chaff before the wind.

P S A L M III. (For the Morning.)

O X F O R D T U N E.

THOU, Lord, art my secure defence,

On thee my hopes rely;

Thou art my glory, and my help,

When any evil's nigh.

Guarded by thee, I laid me down,

My sweet repose to take;

For I thro' thee securely sleep,

Thro' thee in safety wake.

Salvation to the Lord belongs,

He only can defend:

His blessings he extends to all

Who on his name depend.

P S A L M IV. (For the Evening.)

St. ANN'S TUNE.

THE place of other sacrifice,
 Let righteousness supply;
 And let your hope securely fixt,
 On heaven alone rely.

While worldly minds impatient grow
 More prosp'rous times to see,
 O let the glories of thy face,
 Shine brightly, Lord, on me.

Then down in peace I'll lay my head,
 And take my needful rest;
 No other guard, O Lord, I crave,
 Of thy defence possess.

P S A L M V. (For the Morning.)

WINDSOR TUNE.

LORD hear the voice of my complaint;
 Accept my secret pray'r:
 To thee alone, my King, my God,
 Will I for help repair.

Thou in the morn my voice shalt hear:
 And with the dawning day,
 To thee, devoutly, I'll look up,
 To the, devoutly pray.

For thou the wrongs the just sustain,
 Can'st never, Lord, approve,
 Who from thy sacred dwelling place,
 All evil dost remove.

Not long shall wicked men remain
 Unpunish'd in thy view;
 All such as act unrighteous things,
 Thy vengeance shall pursue.

St, M A R Y's T U N E.

O GOD, to whom all Creatures bow,
 Within this earthly frame;
 Through all the world how great art thou!
 How glorious is thy name!

In Heav'n thy wond'rous acts are sung,
 Nor hardly reckon'd there;
 And yet thou mak'st the infant tongue
 Thy boundless praise declare.

When e'er thy beauteous works on high
 Employ our wond'ring sight,
 The Moon, that nightly rules the Sky,
 With Stars of feeble light;

What's man, say we, that, Lord, thou lov'st
 To keep him in thy mind?
 Or what his offsprings, that thou prov'st
 To them so wond'rous kind?

P S A L M IX.

B R A I N T R E E T U N E.

TO celebrate thy praise, O Lord,
 We will our hearts prepare,
 To all the list'ning world thy works,
 Thy wond'rous works declare.

The thoughts of them shall to our soul
 Exalted pleasure bring,
 Whilst to thy name, O thou most high,
 Triumphant praise we sing.

Thou shalt for ever live, who hath
 A righteous throne prepar'd,
 Impartial justice to dispence,
 To punish or reward.

PSALM XV.
BURFORD TUNE.

LORD, who's the happy Man that may
To thy blest courts repair;
Not, Stranger-like, to visit them,
But to inhabit there?

'Tis he, whose plighted vows and trust
Has ever firmly stood;
And tho' he promise to his loss,
He makes his promise good.

Whose soul in usury disdains
His treasure to employ;
Whom no rewards can ever bribe
The guiltless to destroy.

The Man, who by this steady course
Has happiness insur'd,
When Earth's foundation shakes, shall stand,
By Providence secur'd.

PSALM XVI.

St. DAVID'S TUNE.

I'LL strive my actions to approve
To his all-seeing eye:
Nor danger shall my hopes remove,
While my Redeemer's nigh.

Therefore my heart all grief defies,
My glory does rejoice;
My flesh shall rest, in hope to rise,
Wak'd by his powerful voice.

Thou, Lord, when I resign my breath,
My soul from Hell shalt free,
Who did not let thy Holy One
In death, corruption see.

YE worshippers of Jacob's God,
 All ye of Isr'els line,
 O praise the Lord, and to your praise
 Sincere obedience join.

He ne'er disdain'd on low distress
 To cast a wishful eye,
 Nor turn'd from poverty his face,
 But hears its humble cry.

'Tis his supreme prerogative
 O'er subject Kings to reign,
 'Tis just that he should rule the world,
 Who does the world sustain.

The rich who are with plenty fed
 His bounty must confess;
 The sons of want by him reliev'd,
 Their gen'rous patron bless.

With humble worship to his throne,
 They all for aid resort:
 That pow'r which first their beings gave,
 Can only them support.

O may a chosen spotless race,
 Devoted to his name,
 To their admiring heirs his truth
 And glorious acts proclaim.

In tender grass he makes me feed,
 And gently there repose:
 Then leads me to cool shades, and where
 Refreshing water flows.

He does my wand'ring soul reclaim,
 And to his endless praise,
 Instruct with humble zeal to walk,
 In his most righteous ways.

MY Shepherd is the living Lord,
 Nothing therefore I need;
 In pastures fair, near pleasant streams,
 He setteth me to feed.

He shall convert and glad my soul,
 And bring my mind in frame,
 To walk in paths of righteousness,
 For his most holy name.

Yea, though I walk in vale of death,
 Yet I will fear no ill;
 Thy rod and staff do comfort me,
 And thou art with me still.

Through all my life thy favour is
 So frankly shew'd to me,
 That in thy house for evermore

A handwritten musical score for a two-part setting of the hymn "Nun danket alle Gott". The score is written on two staves, both using a treble clef and a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The music is in common time (C). The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of two sharps. The second staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of two sharps. The music is written in a simple, clear hand. The first staff contains the melody, and the second staff contains the harmony. The score is divided into two measures by a double bar line. The first measure contains the main melody, and the second measure contains a continuation of the melody. The score is written on aged, slightly discolored paper.

THY splended throne, O Christ is fixed
For ever to endure,
Thy sceptre's sway shall always last,

The first system of the musical score for 'The Bird Song' consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains a melody of quarter and eighth notes, with some notes beamed together. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature. It provides a harmonic accompaniment with a mix of quarter and eighth notes. Below the lower staff, the numbers '6 6 — 7 6 5 6' are written, likely indicating a fingering or a specific musical technique for the bass line.

PSALM CXXXVI.

P R O P E R 148th. TUNE.

TO God, the mighty Lord,
 Your joyful thanks repeat;
 To him due praise afford,
 As Good as he is Great.
 For God does prove
 Our constant Friend;
 His boundless Love shall never end.

To him, whose wond'rous Pow'r
 All other Gods obey;
 Whom earthly Kings adore,
 This grateful Homage pay.
 For God, &c.

By his almighty hand
 Amazing works are wrought;
 The Heav'n's by his command,
 Were to perfection brought.
 For God, &c.

To God the Father, Son
 And Spirit ever blest,
 Eternal three in one,
 All worship be address,
 As heretofore
 It was, is now
 And shall be so
 Forever more.

WITH my whole heart, my God and King,
 Thy praise I will proclaim;
 Before the World with joy I'll sing,
 And bless thy holy name.

I'll worship at thy sacred seat,
 And with thy love inspir'd:
 The praises of thy truth repeat,
 O'er all thy works admir'd.

Thou graciously inclin'd'st thine ear,
 To all who to thee cry;
 And when our souls are press'd with fear
 Dost inward strength supply.

Therefore shall all thy humble saints,
 Thy name with praise pursue;
 Who by thy mercies stand convinc'd,
 That all thy works are true.

They all thy wond'rous ways, O Lord,
 With chearful songs shall bless;
 And all thy glorious acts record,
 Thy awful pow'r confess.

 To think of once deserting thee !
 Where, Lord, could I thy influence shun,
 Or whether from thy presence run ?

If up to Heav'n I take my flight,
 'Tis there thou dwell'st enthron'd in light ;
 Or down to Hell's infernal plains,
 'Tis there almighty veng'ance reigns.

If I the morning's wings cou'd gain,
 And fly beyond the western main ;
 Thy swifter hand would first arrive,
 And there arrest thy fugitive.

Or should I try to shun thy sight,
 Beneath the sable wings of night ;
 One glance from thee, one piercing ray,
 Would kindle darkness into day.

 With which our praise should equal run.

 Make rocks and hills his praise resound;
 Praise him with harp's melodious noise,
 And gentle psaltry's silver sound.
 Let virgin-troops soft timbrels bring,
 And some with grateful motion dance;
 Let instruments of various strings,
 With organs join'd, his praise advance.
 Let them who joyful hymns compose,
 To cymbals set their songs of praise,
 Cymbals of common use, and those
 That loudly sound on common days.

For EASTER DAY.

ST. MATTHEW'S TUNE, (FIRST HYMN.)

SINCE Christ our Passover, is slain
A sacrifice for all :

Let all with thankful hearts agree
To keep the festival :

Not with the leaven, as of old,
Of sin and malice fed ;
But with unfeign'd sincerity,
And truth's unleaven'd bread.

† Christ being rais'd by power divine,
And rescu'd from the grave,
Shall die no more, death shall on him
No more dominion have :

‡ For that he dy'd, 'twas for our sins
He once vouchsafed to die ;
But that he lives, he lives to God,
For all eternity.

§ So count yourselves as dead to sin
But graciously restor'd,
And made henceforth, alive to God,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

To Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
To God whom we adore,
Be glory ; as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

 For, as by man came death, by man
 Did resurrection come.

† For, as in Adam, all mankind
 Did guilt and death derive;
 So, by the righteousness of Christ,
 Shall all be made alive.

‡ If then ye risen are with Christ,
 Seek only how to get
 The things that are above, where Christ
 At God's right-hand is set.

To Father, Son and Holy Ghost,

WESTONFAVEL TUNE.

COME, Holy Ghost, Creator, come,
 Inspire the souls of thine,
 'Till ev'ry heart which thou hast made
 Is fill'd with grace divine.

Thou art the comforter, the gift,
 Of God, and fire of love;
 The everlasting spring of joy,
 And unctiön from above.

Thy gifts are manifold, thou writ'st
 God's laws in each true heart :
 The promise of the Father, thou
 Dost heav'nly speech impart.
 Enlighten our dark souls 'till they
 Thy sacred love embrace ;
 Assist our minds, (by nature frail,)
 With thy celestial grace.

Drive far from us the mortal foe,
 And give us peace within ;
 That by thy guidance blest, we may
 Escape the snares of sin.
 Teach us the Father to confess,
 And Son, from death reviv'd ;
 And with them both, The, Holy Ghost,
 Who art from both deriv'd.

With thee, O Father, therefore may,
 The Son, from death restor'd,
 And sacred comforter, one God
 Devoutly be ador'd.

As in all ages heretofore,
 Has constantly been done,
 As now it is ; and shall be so,
 When time his course has run.

BETIMES, on that auspicious morn,
 When the long promis'd Christ was born;
 An Angel unto Shepherds came,
 The glorious tidings to proclaim;
 Around him heavenly splendor shone,
 Glories before them unknown.

But soon they heard his chearing voice;
 "Shepherd's. I call to you, rejoice,
 "To David's City, hast away,
 "There Christ, the Lord, is born to day;
 "Laid in a manger, there you'll find,
 "The promis'd Saviour of mankind.

Soon as the Angel made an end,
 They saw the heavenly troops descend,
 In radiant clouds, on high, they hung,
 And thus in strains Celestial sung;
 To God on high, all praise bestow,
 Peace and good will to men below.

Shall Angels sing our Saviours name,
 With loud applause his birth proclaim;
 And shall not we, with voice and heart,
 With them, in consort, join our part;
 Glory to him in praises sing,
 Who this day, did Salvation bring.

A MORNING HYMN;

(As originally wrote by the late Bishop KENN).

A WAKE, my soul, and with the sun,
Thy daily stage of duty run,
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise,

To pay thy morning sacrifice.

Thy precious time mispent, redeem,

Each present day thy last esteem,

Improve thy talent with due care,

For the great day, thyself prepare.

In conversation be sincere,

Keep conscience as the noon-tide clear:

Think how all-seeing God thy ways,

And all thy secret thoughts surveys.

By influence of the light divine,

Let thy own light to others shine,

Reflect all Heaven's propitious rays,

In ardent love, and chearful praise.

Wake, and lift up thy self, my heart,

And with the Angels bear thy part,

Who all night long unwearied sing,

High praise to the Eternal King.

I wake, I wake, ye heavenly choir,

May your devotion me inspire,

That I like you my age may spend,

Like you may on my God attend.

May I like you in God delight,

Have all day long my God in sight,

Perform like you my Makers will,

O may I never more do ill.

Had I your wings to Heaven I'd fly,
But God shall that defect supply,
And my soul wing'd with warm desire,
Shall all day long to Heav'n aspire.
All praise to thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refresh'd me whilst I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake.
I would not wake, nor rise again,
Ev'n Heaven itself I would disdain,
Were't not thou there to be enjoy'd,
And I in hymns to be employ'd.
Heav'n is, dear Lord, where e'er thou art,
O never then from me depart:
For to my soul, 'tis Hell to be,
But for one moment, void of thee.
Lord, I my vows to thee renew,
Disperse my sins as Morning dew,
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thy self my spirit fill.
Direct, controul, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say,
That all my powers with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite.
Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise him all creatures here below,
Praise him above ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

ALL.

ALL praise to thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light,
Keep me, O keep me, King of Kings,
Beneath thy own Almighty wings.

Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done;
That with the world, my self and thee,
I, e'er I sleep, at peace may be.

Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed;
To die, that this vile body may
Rise Glorious at the awful day.

O! may my soul on thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eye-lids close;
Sleep that may me more vig'rous make,
To serve my God when I awake.

When in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts supply;
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.

Dull sleep of sense me to deprive,
I am but half my time alive,
Thy faithful lovers, Lord, are griev'd,
To lie so long of thee bereav'd,

But tho' sleep o'er my frailty reigns,
Let it not hold me long in chains;
And now and then let loose my heart,
Till it an hallelujah dart.

The faster sleep the senses binds,
The more unfetter'd are our minds,
O may my soul, from matter free,
Thy loveliness unclouded see.

O when
