A musical score page from Schubert's "Die Hölle". The top staff shows a soprano vocal line with lyrics in German and French. The middle staff contains piano accompaniment figures. The bottom staff shows bassoon (Bass.) parts with dynamic markings like "P" and "F". The lyrics describe a "glance" or "jet" from heaven ("Blick" or "jet") that is "tent"ing ("zum Tenten") and "lure"ing ("die Lure"). The piano accompaniment features eighth-note patterns.

A musical score for piano and voice. The vocal part is in soprano C major, 2/4 time. The piano accompaniment consists of two staves. The top staff shows eighth-note chords in the right hand and bass notes in the left hand. The bottom staff shows eighth-note chords in the right hand and bass notes in the left hand. The lyrics are in French and English:

A musical score for piano and voice. The vocal part is in soprano C major, 2/4 time. The lyrics are in French: "stü - - me Herz wird stil - - - le. heart will then be si - - - lent. tò - - mes de mon à - - - me!" The piano accompaniment features dynamic markings like f, p, and mf. Measure 12 concludes with a forte dynamic.

This image shows two staves of musical notation. The top staff is in treble clef and the bottom staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in common time (indicated by a 'C'). The key signature changes from G major (one sharp) to A major (two sharps) at the beginning of the second measure. Measure 11 starts with a half note in G major, followed by a series of eighth-note chords in A major. Measure 12 begins with a half note in A major, followed by a series of eighth-note chords. The notation includes various dynamic markings like crescendos and decrescendos, and performance instructions like 'dimin.' and 'Ped.'. Measures 11 and 12 conclude with a single eighth note per staff.

A musical score for piano and voice. The top staff shows a vocal line in G major, 2/4 time, with lyrics in German and English. The piano accompaniment is below, featuring bass and treble staves with various dynamics and markings like 'f' (fortissimo) and 'p' (pianissimo). The vocal line begins with eighth-note chords and transitions to a melodic line with sustained notes and grace notes.
