The CONCORD SERIES is the outcome of Mr. Surette's Summer School of Music established in Concord, Massachusetts in 1915.

The publications in this series comprise books of music for use in private and public schools, in homes, and for large and small groups of people who come together to sing.

The school books will include a complete series for use in all grades, from the kindergarten through to the high school; a Teacher's Manual; a hymnal for Sunday schools, day schools and homes; a book of marches for use in school, etc. The chief aim of these books is to provide the very best in music for every one, young and old.

PREFACE

The songs in this volume have been selected for the purpose of awakening and cultivating in young children the taste for the best music. It is obvious that such actual experience of music should precede instruction about it, and it is believed that singing beautiful songs by ear during the early years will not only facilitate later instruction in reading music, but will serve as a preparation for the study of pianoforte playing, violin playing, etc.

When these songs are used in schools, children who are able to read the words, should be provided with the Book of Words (No. 3 A in the Concord Series). During the last half of the third year (Grade III) the children should be provided with Book No. 3 in the Concord Series, containing the melodies of the songs without accompaniments. Simple instructions for teaching these songs are contained in that book, in which will be found also a division of the songs according to school grades. A Teachers' Manual, with full directions for teachers, will be published shortly.

The folk-songs in this book were doubtless originally sung without accompaniments. It is desirable that children should become familiar with the beauty of these melodies, apart from any artificial support. Therefore in teaching them, no accompaniment should be used until the melodies are thoroughly learned.

Look just like gardens growing,
With white and red and pink and blue
And gold and silver glowing.

*Il faisait ses quatre répas
Dans son palais de chaume,
Et sur un âne, pas à pas,
Parcourait son royaume.
Joyeux simple et croyant le bien
Pour toute garde il n'avait rien
Qu'un chien.
Oh! oh! oh! oh! ah! ah! ah! ah!
Quel bon petit roi c'était là,
La, la.*

3

*Il n'avait de gout onéreux
Qu'une soif un peu vive,
Mais en rendant son peuple heureux
Il faut bien qu'un roi vive.
Lui-même, à table et sans suppôt,
Sur chaque muid levait un pot
D'impôt.
Oh! oh! oh! oh! ah! ah! ah! ah!
Quel bon petit roi c'était là,

*Il n'agrandit point ses Etats,
Fut un voisin commode,
Et, modèle des potentats,
Prit le plaisir pour code.
Ce n'est que lorsqu'il expira
Que le peuple qui l'enterra
Pleura.
Oh! oh! oh! oh! ah! ah! ah! ah!
Quel bon petit roi c'était là,
La, la.*

5

*On conserve encor le portrait
De ce digne et bon prince;
C'est l'enseigne d'un cabaret
Fameux dans la province.
Les jours de fête, bien souvent,
La foule s'écrie en buvant
Devant:
Oh! oh! oh! oh! ah! ah! ah!
Quel bon petit roi c'était là,

The vocal part uses a treble clef, while the piano part uses both a treble and a bass clef. The key signature is G major (one sharp). The tempo markings include 'mp', 'poco rit.', 'p a tempo', 'a tempo', 'mf', and 'rit.'. The lyrics are integrated into the musical lines, with some words appearing above the staff and others below. |---|---------|
| No. 1 Twenty-five Chorales by John Sebastian Bach | net .60 |
|---|---------|

Selected, edited and provided with suitable English texts by Thomas Whitney Surette and Berta Elsmith.

The Chorales of Bach constitute the foundation of music. They are great not only as works of art, but as expression of deep human feeling and aspiration. These melodies are here presented with words drawn from various sources. It is believed that the use of words non-dogmatic in character will make it possible for the Chorales to be sung by a larger number of people. They belong rightly to everyone who loves fine music.

The songs in this volume have been selected for the purpose of awakening and cultivating the musical taste of young children. It is obvious that some such actual musical experience should precede instruction about music, and it is believed that a continuance of rote singing of beautiful songs (and none other) during the early years will facilitate rather than retard the later instruction in reading music.
