

OLD GLORY

WORDS BY

JOHN NORTHERN HILLIARD.

MUSIC BY

GEORGE NEWELL LOVEJOY.

Published by

THE NOVELLO MUSIC CO.

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Copyright 1898 by Novello Music Co.

10

"OLD GLORY!"

757550

Words by JOHN NORTHERN HILLIARD.

Music by GEO. NEWELL LOVEJOY.

Moderato.

f* Espress.

1. The flag that flaunts the stripes and stars, All
 2. When ty - rants trod our na - tive shore, Great
 3. Our hands are strong, our swords are true, Our Con spirito.

heaven's dome com - mand - ing, What foe can take this land of ours, While Freedom's cause to sun - der, Our fa - thers raised the flag and bore It hearts with free - dom glow - ing, Come war's a - larms we'll rush to arms, Our 'neath its folds we're stand - ing? Of all the flags of safe through bat - tle's thun - der; Though shot and shell a - bu - gles gai - ly blow - ing; With loy - al hearts our accel.

all the lands Long famed in song and sto - ry, None can compare to the round it fell, And life - blood dyed it go - ry, It float - ed high in gal - lant boys, And sir - es old and hoar - y, Will fight till death to rit.

ban - ner fair, The flag we call "Old Glo - ry!"
Free - dom's sky, " " " " " "
float on high, " " " " " "

rit.

CHORUS.Animato.rit.

AIR.

Of all the flags of all the lands, long famed in song and sto - ry, None

ALTO.

TENOR.

Of all the flags of all the lands, long famed in song and sto - ry, None

BASS.

ACC.

can com - pare to our ban - ner fair, The flag we call "Old Glo - ry!"

can com - pare to our ban - ner fair, The flag we call "Old Glo - ry!"