O florens rosa

This image shows a handwritten musical score for a voice part, specifically for the 'Contra' voice. The score is written on four staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The music is written in a style that appears to be from the 16th or 17th century, with square notes and a single melodic line. The lyrics 'O florens rosa' are written below the first staff. The score continues for several measures on the first four staves, with the music ending on the fourth staff. Below the fourth staff, there are two more empty staves, suggesting the score continues on the next page. The paper is aged and shows some staining and wear.

2 choir

This image shows a handwritten musical score for two choirs, labeled "2 choir". The score is written on six staves, arranged in three pairs. Each staff contains complex musical notation, including numerous notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The notation is dense and appears to be a form of shorthand or a specific dialect of musical notation. The staves are connected by a single line, and the overall layout is organized and professional. The handwriting is clear and legible, suggesting a high level of skill and experience in musical notation.

So gheftln:

El spagna

Tenor

A handwritten musical score for a Tenor part. The score begins with a large, ornate initial 'M' in the top left corner. The first staff of music is written on a five-line staff and contains a series of notes, mostly eighth and sixteenth notes, with stems pointing upwards. Above the first staff, the text 'So gheftln:' is written. Below the first staff, the text 'El spagna' is written. The second staff of music continues the melody. The third staff of music is also present. Below the third staff, there are four empty staves. The entire score is written in a cursive, handwritten style.

Titus

Handwritten musical score for the part of Titus, measures 1 through 3. The notation is written on three staves. The first staff contains measures 1 and 2, and the second staff contains measure 3. The music features a complex rhythmic pattern with many eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. The notes are written in a stylized, handwritten manner. The third staff is empty, indicating the end of the page.

Basius

Handwritten musical score for the part of Basius, measures 1 through 3. The notation is written on three staves. The first staff contains measures 1 and 2, and the second staff contains measure 3. The music features a complex rhythmic pattern with many eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. The notes are written in a stylized, handwritten manner. The third staff is empty, indicating the end of the page.

Tenor

This image shows a handwritten musical score for a Tenor voice part and piano accompaniment. The score is written on four systems of staves. The first system consists of a single staff with a treble clef, containing a melodic line with many beamed eighth and sixteenth notes. The second system also has a single staff with a treble clef, continuing the melodic line. The third system is a grand staff, with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff; the upper staff continues the melodic line, while the lower staff contains a few notes and rests. The fourth system is also a grand staff, with the upper staff continuing the melodic line and the lower staff containing notes and rests. Below the fourth system, there are two more systems of empty grand staves, each with a treble and bass clef, indicating space for further musical notation. The handwriting is in black ink on aged paper.

Tritus

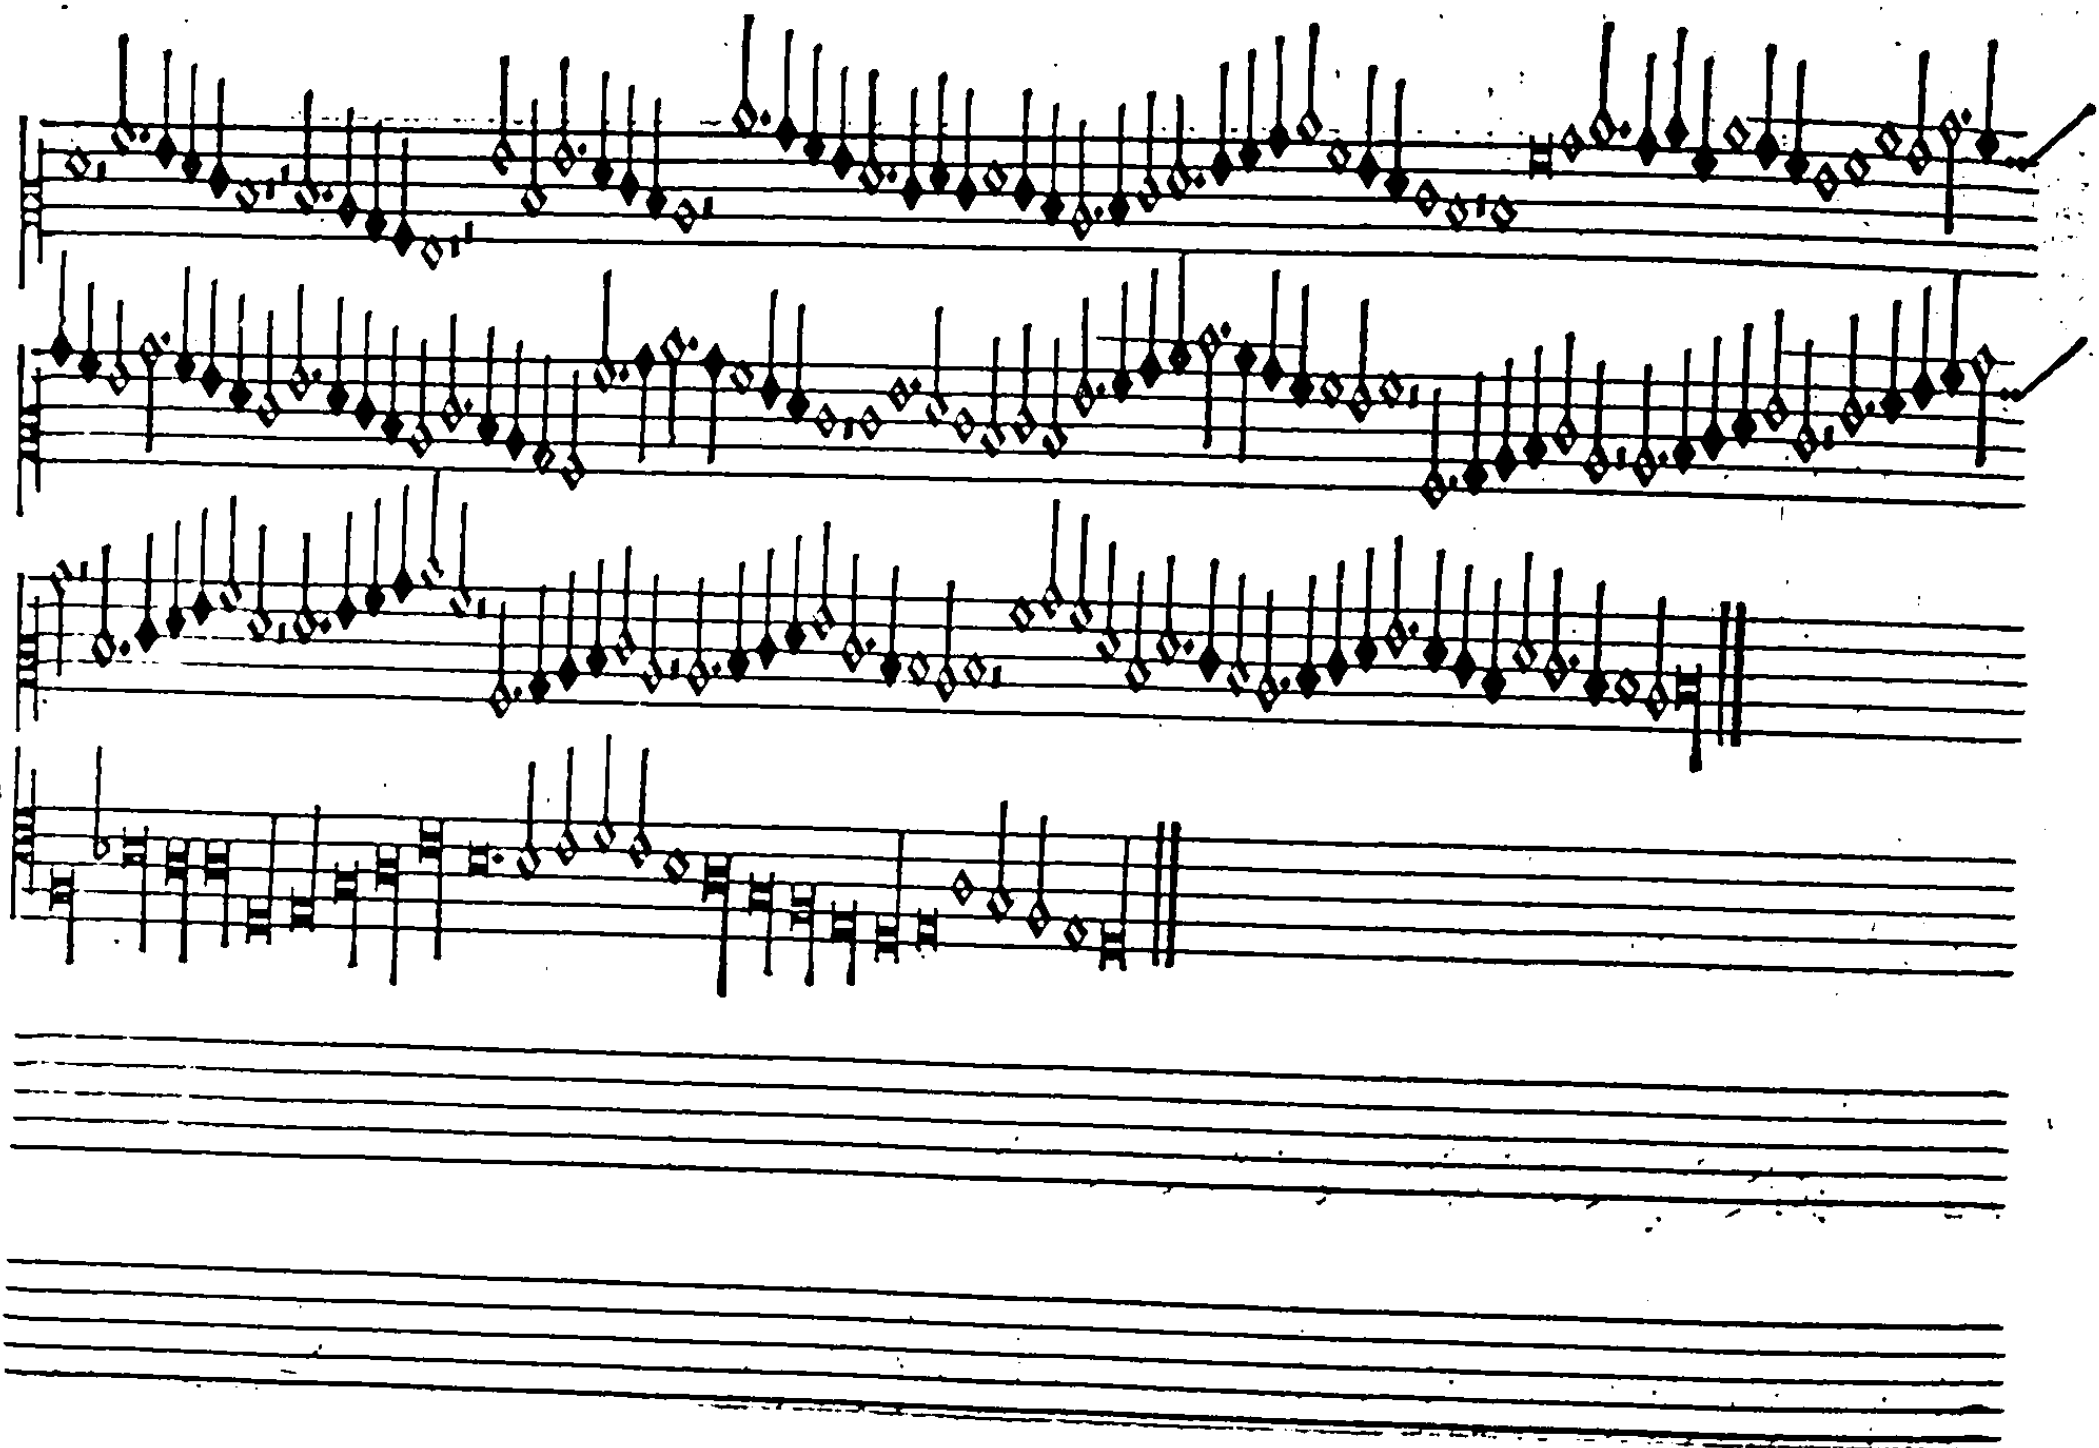

La Spagna

Three staves of musical notation for the Tritus section. The notation consists of diamond-shaped notes with stems, typical of early printed music. The first staff contains measures 33 and 34, the second staff contains measure 35, and the third staff contains measures 36 and 37. Each staff ends with a diagonal line indicating the end of the phrase.

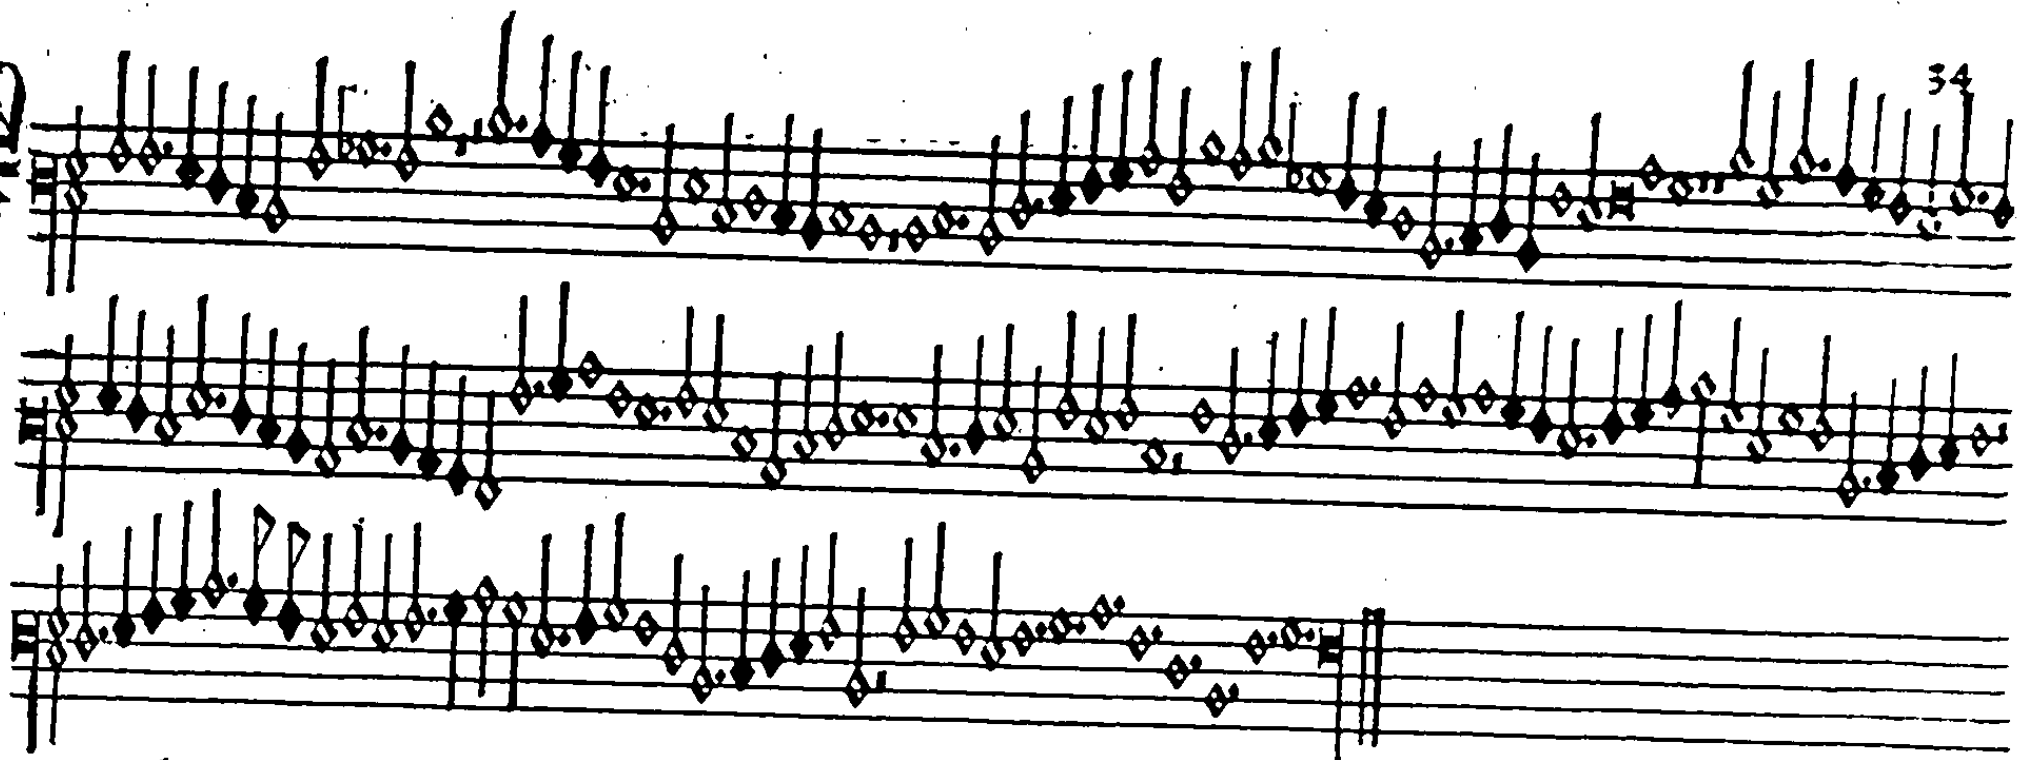

Quintus

Two staves of musical notation for the Quintus section. The notation consists of diamond-shaped notes with stems. The first staff contains measures 38 and 39, and the second staff contains measures 40 and 41. Each staff ends with a diagonal line indicating the end of the phrase.

Handwritten musical score for "The Rose Tree" in G major, 2/4 time. The score is written on four staves. The first two staves are for the vocal melody, and the last two are for the piano accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves.

Lyrics:
 The rose tree in the garden,
 The rose tree in the garden,
 The rose tree in the garden,
 The rose tree in the garden.

A handwritten musical score for five voices, arranged in two systems of three staves each. The lyrics are written below the notes in a cursive hand. The first system contains the first two lines of the text, and the second system contains the next three lines. The music features various note values, rests, and bar lines, typical of a manuscript from the early modern period. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear.

Handwritten musical score for the first system. It consists of four staves. The top two staves are for vocal parts, with lyrics written below them. The bottom two staves are for piano accompaniment. The lyrics for the vocal parts are: "bis laum pre nsten", "bis", "can poen ter", "hal", and "bide". The piano part features a series of eighth notes in the right hand and a simpler bass line in the left hand.

Handwritten musical score for the second system. It continues the four-staff format. The vocal parts have lyrics: "er ne clau -", "das", "ra caen -", "him ca", "er ne clau -", "das", "ora caen -", "him", "ca men -", "him", "das", "ra caen -", "fi den", "caen -", "fi", and "ra caen". The piano accompaniment continues with similar rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes.
