2^d Verse. Yon tree that with fra..grance is fil .. ling the air, Is rich with its blos..soms, so thrif .. ty and fair. By his own hand was planted and well did he say, It would live when its plan..ter had mouldered a..way. Chorus.

3^d There's the well that he dug, with the wa .. ter so cold, With its urt dripping bucket so mos ... sy and old. No more from its depths by the pa ... triarch drawn, For the pit ... cher is broken- the old man is gone. Chorus.

4th For up .. right and hon ... est the old farmer was, His God he revered, he res .. pec ... ted his laws. Though fame .. less he lived, he has gone where his worth, Will out .. shine like gold all the dross of this earth. Chorus.
