Do we pursue the timid hare
As trembling o'er the lawn he bounds
Still of her safety have we care
While seeming death her steps surround
We the defenceless creature spare
And instant stop the well taught hounds
For cruelty shou'd ne'er disgrace
The well earn'd pleasures of the chace.

Return'd with shaggy spoils well stor'd
To our convivial Joys at night
We toast — and first our Country's Lord
Anxious who most shall do him right
The fair next crowns the social board
Britons shou'd love as well as fight
For he who flights the tender race
Is held unworthy of the chace.

 That I am just as well as kind;
 I am, 'tis true, Elmira's friend,
