The image shows a handwritten musical score for a three-part setting of the Latin text "Dixit Dominus". The score is written on ten staves, each with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The music is in a single system. The lyrics are written below the notes in a cursive hand. The text includes the words "Dixit Dominus", "Sede a dextris meis", and "Sede a dextris meis". The score is marked with "all^o" at the beginning and "all^o" in the middle. There are also some markings like "17" and "16" on the staves. The paper is aged and shows some staining.

Handwritten musical score on ten staves. The notation includes treble clefs, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and various note values including quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes. There are several dynamic markings such as coro, Solo, In splendo, and rit.. The lyrics are in Latin and are written below the corresponding staves of music. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a fermata.
