Critical notes

This score is the first modern edition of the song "Ich bin dein von I. F. Castelli" (G.198) by the Danish composer "Georg Gerson" (1790-1825). The composition is dated July 7, 1823, composed in Mariánské Lázně (Marienbad). The sources are

The poem "Ich bin dein" is by the German poet, Ignaz Franz Castelli (1781–1862), published in "I. F. Castelli's Poetische Kleinigkeiten", Wien 1822.

In his manuscripts Gerson made use of various shorthand notations like slashed notes representing repeated notes. Such notation types are also found in music prints from that period like Gerson's string quartet no. 5 (G.63) published as part books 1826. The full score of this modern edition comes in two versions: a score keeping as close as possible to the original notation and an alternative, 'contemporized' score expanding the shorthand notations. In the contemporized scores the beaming of vocal staffs has been adapted to modern practices. Separate parts are contemporized as well.
