

Certificate dated 12 day of January A.D. 1844
Publication deposited same day

69.

THE MOON O'ER THE HILLS IS BEAMING

Composed &

Respectfully Dedicated to

MISS MARY N. SINGER

of Philadelphia,

by a Gentleman of

BALTIMORE.

Tenderly.

Published by F. D. Benteen Baltimore.

VOICE.

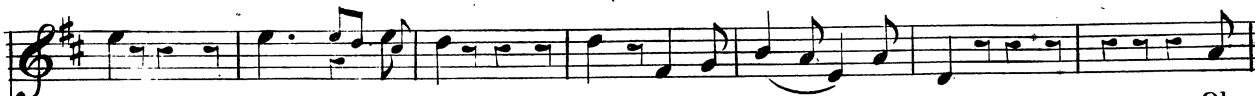

PIANO.

The moon o'er the hills is bea - - - - - ming, The moon o'er the hills is bea - - - - - ming, Wake a - wake, wake a - wake, List to the light gui - tar. Oh lis - ten to the sound love, Of the chrys - tal pure and bright - - -

--- From the moun - tains rug - ged brow - - - love, Fal - ling in gay - - - de - light - - - - From the moun - tains rug - ged brow - - - love, Fal - ling in gay de - light.

2

The lake in the vale is sleeping,
 The lake in the vale is sleeping,
 Haste, oh haste, oh haste,
 Haste to the gondolier:
 While twilight glimmers o'er us
 And the lake unruffled lies,
 'Tis the time to bind our vows love,
 You know how swift it flies.

L.W.Webb.