

W 481
Dep: Nov 16 1847
Geo Willig
Prop.

THE BELL OF THE ATLANTIC
A BALLAD

WRITTEN ON THE LOSS OF THE ILL FATED STEAMER ATLANTIC

BY a Young Lady of Richmond, Va.
Music Composed by

A GENTLEMAN OF TRENTON N. J.

AND RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED

MISS E. H. NOTTINGHAM.

25 Cts net

Philadelphia GEORGE WILLIG 177 Chesnut St
Richmond Va DRINKER & MORRIS

Entered according to act of Congress in the Year 1847 by George Willig in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Penn^a

THE BELL OF THE STEAMER ATLANTIC.

Espressivo.

VOICE.

A fear - - ful dirge

PIANO.

sweeps o'er the sea, A wild and mourn - - ful sound, A - - -bove the wind's shrill min - - strel - - - sy And the white waves rest - - less bound, The tide flows high and loud - - er still Swells out the deep toned knell, 'Tis e - - - choed from the roc - - ky hill And o - - - cean's low - est cell.

ad lib:

colla voce.

Toll on, toll on, beau - - ty and pride, Man -

- hood's strength, youth - - - - ful bloom And ho - - - - ry age lie side by side, In one en-gul-phing tomb, The bil-lows roar breaks not their sleep. What boots its rage to them? Peace-ful-ly rest be-neath the deep, And thou dost peal their re-qui-em, ad lib

colla voce.