

Depos. June 25. 1849.
Recorded Vol. 24. P 205
Recd at D. of S July 12/49

No. 156.

11

Over

The C A S K E T

a Collection of

BALLADS

Composed & Arranged by

FRANK HOWARD.

Pr. 25 cts. nett.

No 1 THE INDIAN'S DREAM.
.. 3 COME LIVE WITH ME.

No 2 CHILDREN IN EXILE.
.. 4 MARY AND THE MOSSY OLD STILE.

BOSTON

Published by S.W. MARSH Piano Forte Maker No 5 ADAMS HOUSE.

MARY AND THE MOSSY OLD STILE.

Symphonies and accompaniments arranged by

FRANK HOWARD,

and Sung by him at the Serenaders Concerts.

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1849 by S.W. Marsh & Co. in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Massachusetts smile of that smile be ye wa - ry On her head was that dear Gip-sey

Bonnet, Blue bell, Rose, and Li - ly up - on it, But ral.....en.....tan.....do.. scarce were they seen for the laughing eyes sheen, And the lovely sweet face of my

Ma - ry But scarce were they seen for the laughing eyes sheen, And the lovely sweet face of my Ma - ry.

Oh! see you yon mossy old stile there Oh! I first saw her soft gentle smile there Oh! it was that sweet smile did my bosom beguile For sweet is the smile of my Ma - ry Dear to me is that mossy old stile there For O my young heart she did wile there But I rall...en...tan...do.

know she'll be true, or else I might rue That stile and that smile and my Ma - ry But I know she'll be true, or else I might rue That stile and that smile and my Ma - ry.