We send forth this little book to our young friends in the Sabbath School, by the fireside, and elsewhere, in the hope that it will suit their taste, instruct their minds, purify their hearts, and strengthen them in every good purpose. The music which it contains has been selected with special reference to their wants, and the words are all designed to minister to right thoughts, kindly, brotherly feeling, generous and noble actions, and to a true Christian life. The book has been made small so that all can possess it; yet it contains a greater variety, both in style and in number than is to be found in books of much greater cost and pretensions. Many of the tunes are old standard tunes, mswrought into the affections of both young and old by a thousand precious memories, which will never grow old, and are favorites everywhere. These have in some cases been newly harmonized and arranged so as to produce better effect, and especially to enlist the interest of all. There are, also, a large number of new tunes which have been expressly prepared for this work, and are full of the life and animation which form so essential a part of successful juvenile music. They are also united to admirable words, and will contribute a suggestive and pleasing element to the existing stock of Sabbath School music. Most of the tunes have been arranged so that, if desired, they may be sung as duets and choruses—by which a more pleasing and dramatic effect can be produced, and a larger proportion of scholars be induced to participate in singing. Choruses are proverbially contagious, and many a boy and girl who can hardly be persuaded to sing an entire tune, will join in the sweep of a full chorus with zest and advantage. Teachers who have not tried it, are scarcely aware of the enthusiasm and fervor with which the recurrence of a stirring refrain will be caught up and echoed by an assembly, however unaccustomed to sing. Many of the hymns are specially fitted for seasons of revival, and we think the entire book will be found to accord with the highest religious aims of teachers or parents, and will contribute to the best spiritual good of those who use it.

It is the Publisher's design to follow this with other works of the kind, cheaply published, in numbers, so as to meet the demands of taste, and the wants of the young, by a succession of new tunes, which shall grow better and better as they proceed. The present work contains 151 hymns and tunes. Thankful for the favor thus far extended to his humble labors, he adds his fervent prayer that these little songs may promote the joy and peace of the young both here and hereafter.

700,000 copies of Bell No. 1, has been issued, and the demand is rapidly increasing. During the months of May, June and July, 1862, we have issued 10,000 copies weekly. Bell No. 2 is selling very fast, nearly 100,000 copies have been issued. It contains 40 pages more than Bell No. 1. Words and music new. Both volumes can be had bound in one.

OH COME, LET US SING

1. Oh come let us sing! Our youthful hearts now swelling, To God above, a God of love: Oh come, let us sing!
 2. The full notes prolong; Our festal celebrating, We hail the day with cheerful lay, And full notes prolong.

Our joyful spirits glad and free, With high emotions rise to thee, In heavenly melody—Oh come, let us sing!
 Both cheerful youth and silvery age, And childhood pure, the gay, the sage, These thrilling scenes engage, Full notes
 [to prolong.]

3. Oh swell, swell the song,
 His praises oft repeating:
 His Son he gave our souls to save—
 Oh swell, swell the song,
 The humble heart's devotion bring,
 Whence gushing streams of love do spring,
 And make the welkin ring
 With sweet-swelling song.

4. We'll chant, chant his praise—
 Our lofty strains now blending:
 A tribute bring to Christ our King,
 And chant, chant his praise!

Our Saviour, Prince, was crucified,
 "Tis finished," then he meekly cried,
 And bowed his head and died—
 Then chant, chant his praise!

5. All full chorus join,
 To Jesus condescending,
 To bless our race with heavenly grace,
 All full chorus join!
 To God, whose mercy on us smiled,
 And Holy Spirit, reconciled
 By Christ, the meek and mild,
 All full chorus join!

WE'RE GOING HOME TO DIE NO MORE.

Arranged by S. J. ANDERSON.

 Cho. We're go - ing home, we're go - ing home, We're go - ing home to die no more;

2. The ways of God are ways of bliss, And all his paths are hap - pi - ness,

So let us leave this sin - fal shore, For realms where we shall die no more.
 To die no more, to die no more, We're go - ing home to die no more.

Then, wea - ry souls, your sighs give o'er, We're go - ing home to die no more.

3. There is a land beyond the sky
 Where happy spirits never sigh,
 Then, erring souls, your sins deplore,
 And sing of where we'll die no more.

4. Come, sinners, come, O, come along,
 And join our happy pilgrim throng;
 Farewell, vain world, and all your store,
 We're going home to die no more.

WE ARE PASSING AWAY.

 Obey the gospel's joyful sound;
 Come, go with us, and you shall prove
 The joy of Christ's redeeming love.

 Come, share with us eternal joys;

 For yet his love remains the same,
 Say, will you to Mount Ziou go?
 Say, will you have this Christ, or no?

2. Let us be thankful while we are gay,
 On this our holiday ;
 Let us be peaceful and gentle as May,
 On this our festal day.
 In thanks and praise our voices raise,
 Lift the heart, join the song,
 Our grateful notes prolong.
 Let us be happy, &c.
3. Let us be humble while we are gay,
 On this our holiday ;
 Let us be lowly, though cheerful as May,
 On this our festal day.
 Jesus was meek, Him we will seek,
 With the heart, with the voice,
 Our early, heartfelt choice.
 Let us be happy, &c.

4. Let us be holy, though we are gay,
 On this our holiday ;
 Let us be prayerful and lovely as May,
 On this our festal day.
 God reigns above, his throne is love,
 Bow the heart, bend the knee
 Before his majesty.
 Let us be happy, &c.
5. While we are happy, and while we are gay
 On this our holiday ;
 Let us remember, while yet we may,
 The solemn judgment day.
 O, let us strive, while yet we live,
 With the heart, with the voice,
 To make a heavenly choice.
 Then we'll be happy, where joys ne'er decrease,
 Through an eternal day.

WHAT'S THE NEWS?

Rev. J. W. DADMUN. 7

The special interest of these lines arises from the circumstance that the author, a young man, since dead, was insane on every point except that of religion, on which he continued to the last thoroughly sound and intelligent.

DO GOOD—FOR THE SABBATH SCHOOL.

Rev. C. W. DENISON.

1. Do good! do good! we are never too young
To be useful in many a way;
For all have a heart, and a hand, and a tongue,
'To feel, and to labor, and pray.
Let us think, when crowds of poor children we meet,
All thronging their pathways of gloom,
That in every damp alley, in every dark street,
There's a passage that leads to the tomb.
Chorus.—Then do good, &c.
2. We'll seek in that passage that wandering throng,
And take them in love by the hand;
With kindness receive them, with music and song,
And guide to ^{our} ^{own} ^{heavenly} land.

- If we have but a moment, that moment employ,
To pluck the young brands from the flame; [Joy,
We may change their deep guilt to a Christian's full
And save them for ever from shame.
Chorus.—Then do good, &c.
3. What joy, what joy will the least of us know,
When called to our Father's abode.
To find that beside us in glory there stands
Some whom we first placed on the road!
Then seek in the highways and byways of earth,
And bring in the lowly to feast:
Remember, in heaven the greatest may be
The one who on earth was the least.
Chorus.—Then do good, &c.

 Of our much-loved Sabbath School.

THE CHILD'S MORNING PRAYER.

1. Jesus, Lord, to thee I pray:
 Guide and guard me through this day.
 2. As the shepherd tends his sheep,
 Lord, me safe from evil keep.

3. Keep my feet from every snare,
 Keep me with thy watchful care.
 4. All my little wants supply,
 If I live, or if I die.
 5. And when life, O Lord, is past,
 Take me to thyself at last.

1. Come, children, and join in our festival song, And hail the sweet joys which this day brings a-long,
2. Our Father in Heaven, we lift up to thee, Our voice of thanks-giving, our glad ju-bi-lee;

We'll join our glad voices in one hymn of praise To God, who has kept us, and lengthened our days,
Oh, bless us, and guide us, dear Saviour we pray, That from thy blest precepts we never may stray.

CHORUS.

Happy greeting to all! Happy greeting to all! Happy greeting, happy greeting, happy greeting to all!

Happy greeting to all! Happy greeting, &c.

3. And if, ere this glad year has drawn to a close,
Some loved ones among us in death shall repose,
Grant, Lord, that the spirit in heaven may dwell,
In the bosom of Jesus, where all shall be well.
4. Kind teachers, we children would thank you this day
That faithfully, kindly, you've taught us the way.
How we may escape from the world's sinful charms,
And find a safe refuge in the Saviour's loved arms.

5. Dear Pastor, we ask thee, as lambs of thy fold,
To teach us that wisdom more precious than gold.
Our footsteps to guide in the pathway of truth,
To "love our Creator in the days of our youth."
6. And now, as we part, let us bid you good cheer,
We pray for a blessing on your labors here:
May many "bright jewels" be your blest reward,
And "crowns of rejoicing, in the day of the Lord."

In general anniversaries, omit the last two verses.

1. { We're go - ing home, we've had visions bright, Of that ho - ly land, that world of light, }
 { Where the long, dark night of time is past, And the morn of e - ter - ni - ty dawns at last; }

{ Where the wea - ry saint no more shall roam, But dwell in a hap - py, peace - ful home; }
 { Where the brow with sparkling gems is crowned, And the waves of bliss are flow - ing round. }

O that beau - ti - ful world! O ... that beau - ti - ful world!

2. We're going home, we soon shall be
 Where the sky is clear, and all are free;
 Where the victor's song floats o'er the plains,
 And the seraph's anthems blend with its strains;
 Where the sun rolls down its brilliant flood,
 And beams on a world that is fair and good;
 Where stars, once dimmed at nature's doom,
 Will ever shine o'er the new earth bloom.
 O, that beautiful world! O, that beautiful world!

3. 'Mid the ransomed throng, 'mid the sea of bliss,
 'Mid the holy city's gorgeousness;
 'Mid the verdant plains, 'mid angels' cheer,
 'Mid the saluts that round the throne appear;
 Where the conqueror's song as it sounds afar,
 Is wafted on the ambrosial air;
 Through endless years we then shall prove.
 The death of a Saviour's matchless love.

JUST AS I AM—WITHOUT ONE PLEA.*

" Him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out."

1. Just as I am—without one plea, But that thy blood was shed for me,
2. Just as I am; and wait - ing not To rid my soul of one dark blot—

And that thou bid'st me come to thee, O Lamb of God, I come, I come.
To Thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot, O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

3. Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
With fears within, and foes without—
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.
4. Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind:
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

5. Just as I am, thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
Because thy promise I believe—
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.
6. Just as I am—thy love unknown,
Has broken every barrier down:
Now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

heaven we would not roam. No! No! No! For tho' we love you dearly, From heaven we would not roam.

The above verses were composed under some holy influence, to comfort a disconsolate mother, who had parted with both her children.

THE ANCHOR

DUET. ALLEGRETTO.

1. Days, and weeks, and months, returning, Bear us gently down life's way ; Still their lesson we are learning, With each anni-

2. Glad our hearts, and glad our voices, Joy controls the hasting hour ; None so sad, but he rejoices 'Neath to-day's controlling

We'll stand the storm, it won't be long, We'll anchor by-and-by ; We'll stand the storm, it won't be long, We'll anchor by-and-by.

| Glad for classmates and for teachers,
Guiding us with gentle rule ;
Glad for all the gifts that reach us
Thro' our own loved Sunday School. | Yet tho' glad, we'll still remember
What the moments always say ;
Life must have its cold December,
Just as surely as its May. | Let us not forget the meaning,
Days like thee for ever wear ;
One more field has had its gleanings,
One more sheaf our arms should bear. |

LITTLE THINGS.

1. Little drops of water, Little grains of sand, Make the mighty ocean, And the beautiful land.
2. And the lit-tle moments, Humble tho' they be, Make the mighty a - ges Of e - ter - ni - ty.
3. So our lit-tle errors Lead the soul a - way From the paths of virtue Oft in sin to stray.

Words by Miss CAROLINE O. LAMBORN.

1. Here we throg to praise the Lord ; Listen now, listen now, Here we throg to praise the Lord, With our infant lays.

He who oncelay in a manger, Now enthroned, our blest Redeemer, With a father's love has said, He'd accept our praise.

2. "Let young children come to me,"
 Jesus said, Jesus said ;
 "Let young children come to me,
 And forbid them not—
 For of such," the Saviour told them,
 "Is composed my heavenly kingdom."
 What a rapturous thought it is,
 Christ forgets us not !

3. Let us love, and now adore ;
 Love him now, love him now
 Let us love, and now adore,
 Our youthful strength.

Let us never grieve our Saviour,
 Who hath died to win us favor—
 Ah ! this thought should melt our hearts—
 Children's hearts can melt.

4. But we'll have a joyous song,
 Joyous song, joyous song ;
 But we'll have a joyous song
 For our jubilee.
 Jesus lives and reigns for ever ;
 This will make us joyous ever.
 Saviour, hear this praise to thee,
 Who remembered me.

KIND WORDS CAN NEVER DIE

Words by M. Music by SISTER ABBY, of the HUTCHINSON Family. Arr. by H. WATERS

1. Kind words can never die, Cherished and blest, God knows how deep they lie Stor'd in the breast;
 2. Child-hood can never die—Wrecks of the past, Float o'er the mem-o-ry, Bright to the last.
 3. Sweet tho'ts can never die, Tho' like the flowers There brightest hues may fly, In wintry hours.
 4. Our souls can never die, Though in the tomb We may all have to lie, Wrapt in its gloom.

BALL. TEMPO.

Like Childhood's simple rhymes, Said o'er a thousand times, Go thro' all years and climes The heart to cheer,
 Ma - ny a hap - py thing, Ma - ny a dai - sy spring Float o'er time's ceaseless wing, Far, far away.
 But when the gentle dew Gives them their charms anew, With many an added hue, They bloom again.
 What tho' the flesh decay, Souls pass in peace a - way, Live thro' e - ter - nal day With Christ above.

CHORUS. Music by H. WATERS.

Kind words can never die, never die, never die, Kind words can never die, no, never die.
 Childhood can nev - er die, never die, never die, Childhood can nev - er die, no, never die.
 Sweet tho'ts can never die, never die, never die, Sweet tho'ts can never die, no, never die.
 Our souls can never die, never die, never die, Our souls can never die, no, never die.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL.

25

SPRIGHTLY.

Music by W. M. B. BRADBURY.

1. The Sabbath school's a place of prayer, I love to meet my teachers there, I love to meet my teachers there.

They teach me there that every one May find, in heaven, a happy home, May find, in heaven, a happy home.

I love to go, I love to go, I love to go to Sabbath school, I love to go, I love to go, I love to go to Sabbath school.

In God's own book we're taught to read
How Christ for sinners groaned and bled:
That precious blood a ransom gave
For sinful man, his soul to save.

I love to go, I love to go,
I love to go to Sabbath school.

3.
In Sabbath school we sing and pray,
And learn to love the Sabbath day;
That, when on earth our Sabbaths end,
A glorious rest in heaven we'll spend.

I love to go, I love to go,
I love to go to Sabbath school.

And when our days on earth are o'er,
We'll meet in heaven to part no more;
Our teachers kind we there shall greet
And oh! what joy 'twill be to meet

In heaven above, in heaven above,
In heaven above, to part no more.

1. I'm a pilgrim, and I'm a stranger; I can tar-ry, I can tarry but a night.

Do not de-tain me, For I am go-ing To where the fountains are ev-er flowing.

2. There the glory is ever shining!
O, my longing heart, my longing heart is there.
Here in this country so dark and dreary,
I long have wandered forlorn and weary;
I'm a pilgrim, and I'm a stranger, &c.
3. There's the city to which I journey;
My Redeemer, my Redeemer is its light!
There is no sorrow, nor any sighing,
Nor any tears there, nor any dying;
I'm a pilgrim, and I'm a stranger, &c.

4. Father, mother, and sister, brother!
If you will not journey with me I must go!
Now since your vain hopes you will thus cherish,
Should I, too, linger, and with you perish?
I'm a pilgrim, and I'm a stranger, &c.
5. Farewell, dreary earth, by sin so blighted,
In immortal beauty soon you'll be arrayed!
He who has formed thee will soon restore thee!
And then thy dread curse shall never more be:
I'm a pilgrim, and I'm a stranger,
Till thy rest shall end the weary pilgrim's night.

THE EDEN ABOVE.

Arranged by Rev. J. W. DABMUN. 27

1. { We're bound for the land of the pure and the holy, The home of the happy, the kingdom of love; }
 Ye wanderers from God in the broad road of folly, O say, will you go to the E - den a -bove? }
2. { In that blessed land, neither sighing nor anguish Can breathe in the fields where the glorified rove; }
 Ye heart burdened ones who in misery languish, O say, will you go to the E - den a -bove? }
3. { Nor fraud, nor deceit, nor the hand of oppression, Can in -jure the dwellers in that ho -ly grove; }
 No wickedness there, not a shade of transgression; O say, will you go to the E - den a -bove? }
4. { Nor poverty there—No, the saints are all wealthy, The heirs of his glo -ry whose nature is love; }
 Nor sickness can reach them—that country is healthy; O say, will you go to the E - den a -bove? }

Will you go, Will you go, Will you go, Will you go, O say, will you go to the E - den a -bove?

5. Each saint has a mansion prepared and all furnished,
 Ere from this clay house he is summoned to move;
 Its gates and its towers with glory are burnished:
 O say, will you go to the Eden above?

Will you go, Will you go,

O say, will you go to the Eden above?

6. March on, happy pilgrims! that land is before you,
 And soon its ten thousand delights we will prove:
 Yes, soon we shall walk o'er the hills of bright glory,
 And drink the pure joys of the Eden above.

Will you go, Will you go?

⊙ yes, we will go to the Eden above.

7. And yet, guilty sinner, we would not forsake thee,
 We halt yet a moment as onward we move;
 O come to thy Lord—in his arms he will take thee,
 And bear thee along to the Eden above.

Will you go, Will you go,

O say, will you go to the Eden above?

8. Methinks thou art now in thy wretchedness saying,
 O, who can this guilt from my conscience remove?
 No other but Jesus; then come to him praying,
 Prepare me, O Lord, for the Eden above.

Will you go, Will you go,

At last, will you go to the Eden above?

1. Save all my chil - dren, Lord! For less I dare not ask;

I know thou wilt ful - fill thy word; May I ful - fill my task.

2. Thy word is, "Work and pray,
Toil on, 'mid hopes and fears:
The sowing brings the reaping days,
The harvest follows tears."

3. Oh! let me strive to be
The laborer thou wilt bless;
And hourly offer unto Thee
The works of righteousness.

4. Yet, when my best is done,
'Tis sin and folly still;
My only plea is, that thy Son
Wrought out thy perfect will.

5. Then hear me while I ask,
"Save all my children, Lord;
While I, in faith, fulfill my task,
Do thou fulfill thy word.

1. O, do not be discouraged, For Jesus is your friend; O, do not be dis-couraged, For Jesus is your friend. He will give you grace to conquer, He will give you grace to conquer, And keep you to the end.

CHORUS.

Repeat from f to Fine.

I am glad I'm in this army, Yes, I'm glad I'm in this army, Yes, I'm glad I'm in this army, And I'll battle for the [school.

2. Fight on, ye little soldiers,
The battle you shall win,
Fight on, ye little soldiers,
The battle you shall win;
For the Saviour is your Captain,
For the Saviour is your Captain,
And he hath vanquished sin,

3. And when the conflict 's over,
Before him you shall stand;
And when the conflict 's over,
Before him you shall stand;
You shall sing his praise for ever,
You shall sing his praise for ever,
In Canaan's happy land.

COME TO THE SABBATH SCHOOL.

31

Words by Rev. C. W. DENISON.

HINDOSTAN AIR.

1. Come to the Sabbath School, All children come; Cheerful its pi-ous rule, Pleasant as home.
2. Come, where our teachers meet, Faithful and true; Come, learn the lessons sweet, Ready for you.
3. Oh! there's a school on high, Where angels praise: Joy beams in every eye, Sweet strains they raise,

Leave rude and naughty plays, Live and keep the holy days, Come, learn to pray and praise In Sabbath School.
Come, school will not be long; Come, join our happy throng; Come, sing our pretty song In Sabbath School.
There seraph children sing Anthems to our glorious King, And crowds to Jesus bring, Blest Sabbath School.

THE HAPPY LAND.

There is a happy land,
Far, far away;
Where saints in glory stand,
Bright, bright as day;
Oh, how they sweetly sing,
Worthy is the Saviour King,
Loud let his praises ring,
Praise praise for aye!

2.

Come to that happy land,
Come, come away;
Why will ye doubting stand,
Why still delay?
Oh, we shall happy be,
When from sin and sorrow free,
Lord, we shall live with thee,
Blest, blest for aye.

3.

Bright, in that happy land,
Beams every eye;
Kept by a Father's hand,
Love cannot die.
Oh, then, to glory run,
Be a crown and kingdom won,
And, bright above the sun
We reign for aye.

I WANT TO BE AN ANGEL.

Melody by E. L. WHITE

1. { I want to be an angel, And with the angels stand, }
 { A crown upon my forehead, A harp within my hand; } There, right before my Saviour, So glo rious and so bright, I'd wake the sweetest mu - sic, And praise him day and night.

 I never would be weary,
 Nor ever shed a tear,
 Nor ever know a sorrow,
 Nor ever feel a fear;
 But blessed, pure, and holy,
 I'd dwell in Jesus' sight,
 And with ten thousand thousands
 Praise him both day and night.

3.
 I know I'm weak and sinful,
 But Jesus will forgive,
 For many little children
 Have gone to heaven to live,
 Dear Saviour, when I languish,
 And lay me down to die,
 O! send a shining angel,
 And bear me to the skies.

 Oh, there I'll be an angel,
 And with the angels stand,
 A crown upon my forehead,
 A harp within my hand;
 And there, before my Saviour,
 So glorious and so bright,
 I'll join the heavenly music,
 And praise him day and night.

WHO SHALL SING IF NOT THE CHILDREN.

FINI.

1. { Who shall sing, if not the chil- dren? Did not Je - sus die for them? }
 { May they not, with oth - er jew - els, Sparkle in his di - a - dem? }
 D. C. Why, un - less the song of heav - en They be - gin to prac - tice here?

D. C.

Why to them were voi - ces giv - en— Bird-like voi - ces, sweet and clear?

2.

There's a choir of infant songsters,
 White-robed, round the Saviour's throne;
 Angels cease, and waiting, listen!
 Oh! 'tis sweeter than their own!
 Faith can hear the rapturous choral,
 When her ear is upward turned;
 Is not this the same, perfected,
 Which upon the earth they learned?

3.

Jesus, when on earth sojourning,
 Loved them with a wondrous love;
 And will he, to heaven returning,
 Faithless to his blessing prove?
 Oh! they cannot sing too early;
 Fathers, stand not in their way!
 Birds do sing while day is breaking—
 Tell me, then, why should not they?

1. We speak of the realms of the blest, Of that country so bright and so fair, And oft are its glories confessed:
 2. We speak of its pathways of gold, Of its walls deck'd with jewels so rare, Of its wonders and pleasures untold:

But what must it be to be there? But what must it be to be there?
 But what must it be to be there? But what must it be to be there?

We speak of its freedom from sin,
 From sorrow, temptation, and care,—
 From trials without and within:
 But what must it be to be there?

We speak of its service of love,—
 Of the robes which the glorified wear,—
 Of the church of the first-born above:
 But what must it be to be there?

5.

Do thou, Lord, midst gladness or woe,
 Still for heaven our spirits prepare
 And shortly we also shall know,
 And feel, what it is to be there.

Then anthems of praise we will sing,
 When safe in that heavenly rest,
 To Jesus, our Saviour and King,
 Who reigns in those realms of the blest.

JOYFULLY, JOYFULLY.

Arr. by H. WATERMAN 51

1. { Joyful-ly, joy-ful-ly, onward we move, Bound to the land of bright spirits above; }
 { Je-sus, our Saviour, in mercy, says, Come, Joy-ful-ly, joy-fully, haste to your home. }

Soon will our pil-grimage end here be-low, Soon to the presence of God we shall go,

Then, if to Je-sus our hearts have been given, Joyful-ly, joy-ful-ly rest we in heaven.

2. Teachers and scholars have passed on before;
 Waiting, they watch us, approaching the shore;
 Singing to cheer us, while passing along,
 Joyfully, joyfully haste to your home.
 Sounds of sweet music there ravish the ear,
 Harps of the blessed, your strains we shall hear,
 Filling with harmony heaven's high dome,
 Joyfully, joyfully, Jesus, we come.

3. Death with his arrow may soon lay us low,
 Safe in our Saviour, we fear not the blow;
 Jesus hath broken the bars of the tomb,
 Joyfully, joyfully we will go home.
 Bright will the morn of eternity dawn,
 Death shall be conquered, his sceptre be gone;
 Over the plains of sweet Canaan we'll roam,
 Joyfully, joyfully, safely at home.

1. { When the morning light drives a - way the night, With the sun so bright and full, } For 'tis
And it draws its hue near the hour of nine, I'll a - way to the Sabbath school, }

there we all a - gree, All with hap - py hearts and free, And I love to ear - ly be At the

2. On the frosty dawn of a winter's morn,
When the earth is wrapped in snow,
Or the summer breeze plays round the trees,
To the Sabbath school I go.
When the holy day has come,
And the Sabbath breakers roam,
I delight to leave my home,
For the Sabbath school: I'll away, &c.
3. In the class I meet with the friends I greet,
At the time of morning prayer;
And our hearts we raise in a hymn of praise
For 'tis so very pleasant there:

- In the Book of holy truth,
Full of counsel and reproof,
We behold the guide of youth,
At the Sabbath school: I'll away, &c.
4. May the dews of grace fill the hallow'd place,
And the sunshine never fail.
While each blooming rose which in memory grows
Shall a sweet perfume exhale;
When we mingle here no more,
But have met on Jordan's shore,
We will talk of moments o'er,
At the Sabbath school: I'll away, &c.

OH! WE LOVE TO COME.

Music by Prof. T. Wood, of Albany, 33

Arranged by A. CULL.

1 Oh! we love to come to our Sab-bath home, And learn of our teach-ers dear.

Who point us, with love, to our home a - bove, And the crown that a-waits us there.

And the crown that a-waitz us there, And the crown that a - waits us there ;

- 2 Oh! we love to come to our Sabbath home,
When the six days' toil is o'er.
And read and sing of our heavenly King,
And learn to love Him more.
- 3 Oh! we love to come to our Sabbath home,
Eut we would not come alone ;
We would each bring in, from the depths of sin,
Some wretched, wandering one :

4. Whose feet now stray in the broad, broad way,
Who know not of God or heaven ;
And would bid them taste of the blessed feast,
Which our Father's love hath given.
5. Then toil we on till the race is won.
And the pearly gates unfold,
And we find our rest on the Saviour's breast,
At home in the city of gold.

1. Hark the angels singing, Wake the happy morn, Joyful tidings bringing, "Christ, the Lord is born!
 2. Sisters dear, and brothers, Sing, sing a-way! This of all the others, Is the Children's day.
 3. Where's a chorus meeter For his advent here? Where a ca-rol sweeter To his gen-tle ear!

In a low-ly manger (This shall be the sign) See the new-born stranger, Hail the Babe divine!"
 Hear the blessed story, "Once as young as we, Christ, the Prince of Glory, Slept on Mary's knee.
 None can come so near him, The Holy, Unde-fined, None so love and fear him, As a Christian child.

CHORUS. Arr. by A. CULL.

Glo - ry! To our God and King! Glo - ry! Glo - ry! Glo - ry!

Peace to earth a - gain! Glo - ry! Glo - ry! Glo - ry! And good will to men!

4. In the highest regions,
 Now upon his throne,
 All the blood-bought legions
 Claim him Lord alone;
 But of all wh' adore him,
 With triumphant song,
 Children stand before him
 In the greatest throng.
Cho. Glory, &c.

5. Let us then pursue him
 To his throne of grace;
 Let us pray unto him,
 Looking in his face:
 "Once in childhood's weakness,
 Christ, like us, wert thou;
 In love, truth, and meekness,
 Make us like thee now."
Cho. Glory, &c.

6. This, of all the others,
 Is the Children's day,
 Sisters dear, and brothers,
 Sing, sing away.
 Bless Him for its story:
 "Once as young as we,
 Jesus, Lord of glory,
 Slept on Mary's knee."
Cho. Glory, &c.

LET US WALK IN THE LIGHT.

Arr. by A. CULL.

 { 'Tis religion must supply—In the light, in the light: Solid comfort when we die—In the light of God. }

Pleasant is the Sabbath bell—
 In the light, in the light:
 Seeming much of joy to tell—
 In the light of God.
 But a music sweeter far—
 In the light, in the light.
 Breathes where angel-spirits are—
 In the light of God.

Cho. Let us walk in the light—
 Walk in the light:
 Let us walk in the light—
 In the light of God.

 Where immortal praises swell?
 And can children ever go
 Where eternal Sabbaths glow?

Yes, that bliss our own may be,
 All the good shall Jesus see
 For the good a rest remains,
 Where the glorious Saviour reigns.

 Oh what is its name? who can tell?
 And the hill—where, oh where can it be?
 By thy side I will haste me to dwell,
 O wonderful—beautiful tree.

 There lifts its tall head to the skies;

AL SEGNO.

2. There, they sing of him who never
Thrust aside their precious claims.
But took children to his bosom,
As a shepherd doth his lambs.
Some there were who tried to keep them
Waiting, till some other day;
Yet the Lord, their zeal rebuking,
Told them of a better way.
3. There, their hearts go up to heaven,
On the fragrant breath of prayer:
Who shall say it is too early
For the children to be there?

- Jesus says, Why should they linger,
(Speaking from his throne above,)
Till they are a little older,
Since they're old enough to love?
4. O, then, let them have their concert,
Be the weather foul or fair:
So that when the Saviour calls them,
They may answer, "Here we are."
Tell them they can't come too early,
To their Friend who reigns above;
For, ere they can lip his praises,
They are old enough to love.

NOTE.—This song was written by thoughts suggested from the following narrative:—"A beautiful incident occurred in a family near the city of New York a short time since. A son, some eight or nine years of age, laid very ill, and had been so for some days, when a little brother, some six or seven years old, came into the house, and said to his mother, 'Alle (the sick brother) is going away where we can't see him. He is going to heaven; two little angels came and told me he was going, but he would come back and see me after he went away.' In a day or two Alle's spirit took its departure. His little brother supposed he had departed bodily. Previous to the funeral, the father took the child into the room to see the body, and explain to him his mistake. Entering the room, he exclaimed, 'Oh, there's Alle; the little angels told me he would come back and see me.'" ..

And our loved ones never die.

SING TO THE LORD THE CHILDREN'S HYMN. E. L. WHITE. 71

1. Sing to the Lord the children's hymn, His gentle love de - clare, Who bends a - mid the
D. S. He learn'd the first small

Cherubim, To hear the children's prayer. He at a mother's breast was fed, Tho' God's own son was He, words He said At a meek mother's knee.

FINE. D. S.

2. He held us to his mighty breast,
The children of the earth;
He lifted up His hands and blessed
The babes of human birth.
So shall He be to us, our God,
Our gracious Saviour, too:
The scenes we tread his footsteps trod,
The paths of youth he knew.

3. Lo, from the stars His face will turn
On us with glances mild;
The angels of his presence yearn
To bless the little child.
Sing to the Lord the children's hymn,
His gentle love declare,
Who bends amid the Seraphim,
To hear the children's prayer.

COME, YE CHILDREN AND ADORE HIM.

TEACH- { Come, ye children, and a-dore him, Lord of all, he reigns above; }
 ERS. { Come, and worship now be-fore him, He hath call'd you by his love, } He will grant you ev'ry blessing, Of his all-abounding grace: Come, with humble hearts, expressing All your gratitude and praise.

CHILDREN.

On this holy day of gladness,
 We will join in praises meet;
 Every bosom free from sadness—
 All with happiness replete.
 Oh to feel the love of Jesus!
 Oh to know that from above,
 Still our heavenly Father sees us
 With an eye of tender love!

TEACHERS.

Dearest children, now adore him;
 Swell aloud the joyful strain:
 Let the nations bow before him—
 Echo back the notes again.
 While he will accept the praises,
 E'en from every heart and tongue,
 Those to him an infant raises,
 Still are sweetest of the song.

CHILDREN.

Lord of all, our heart's oblation
 Now ascends to thee alone;
 We would come, with all the nation,
 Now to worship at the throne.
 Teachers! will you join the chorus?
 Join in hymning forth thy praise,
 Who, for our redemption, shows us
 All the riches of his grace.

TEACHERS AND CHILDREN.

Praise to thee, O Lord, for ever!
 Gladly now we all unite;
 Praise to thee, O Lord, the giver,
 Blessed Lord, of life and light!
 Ransomed nation, spread the story:
 Resued people, ne'er give o'er,
 All his grace and all his glory,
 Oh proclaim for evermore.

DEAR FATHER, ERE WE PART.

73

1. { Dear Fa - ther, ere we part. Now let thy grace descend, }
 { And fill our youthful heart With peace from Christ our Friend. } May show'rs of blessings from a - bove De -

2. { May we, in af - ter years, With grat - i - tude re - view, }
 { The ser - vice of this day, The work we now pur - sue; } And speed our way to worlds above, With

Descend and fill our hearts with love, De - scend and fill our hearts with love.

With hearts all fired hearts all fired with ho - ly love, With hearts all fired with ho - ly love.

3. We know that soon on earth
 The fondest ties must end,—
 Our own most cherished hopes
 To death's cold hand must bend.
 The fairest flowers in all their bloom,
 Must soon lie withered in the tomb.

4. Then, when our spirits leave
 These tenements of clay,
 May they to God who gave,
 Ascend, in endless day.
 And sing with parents, teachers, friends,
 That anthem sweet which never ends.

VITAL SPARK OF HEAVENLY FLAME.

Poetry by ALEXANDER POPE.

A FUNERAL HYMN.

Music by HORACE WATERS.

Andante.

1. Vit - al spark of heavenly flame, Quit, oh quit this mortal frame, Trembling, hoping, lingering, fly-ing—

Oh, the pain, the bliss of dy-ing! Cease, fond nature, cease thy strife, And let me languish in-to life.

Hark! they whisper; angels say,
 "Sister spirit, come away;"
 What is this absorbs me quite?
 Steals my senses, shuts my sight,
 Drowns my spirit, draws my breath!
 Tell me, my soul, can this be death?

3.

The world recedes: it disappears!
 Heaven opens on my eyes; my ears
 With sounds, with sounds seraphic ring:
 Lend, lend your wings! I mount! I fly!
 O grave! where is thy victory?
 O death! O death! where is thy sting?

- O'er the gloomy hills of darkness,
Look, my soul—be still and gaze;
See the promises advancing
To a glorious day of grace!
Blessed jubilee!
Let thy glorious morning dawn!
- Let the dark, benighted pagan,
Let the rude barbarian, see
That divine and glorious conquest

- Once obtained on Calvary,
Let the gospel
Loud resound from pole to pole.
- Fly abroad, thou mighty gospel:
Win and conquer—never cease;
May thy lasting, wide dominious
Multiply, and still increase;
Sway the sceptre,
Saviour, all the world around!

THE OBJECT OF OUR CREATION.

1. Why have we lips if not to sing
The praises of our heavenly King?
Why have we hearts, if not to love
Our Father and our Friend above?
- Why were our curious bodies made,
And every part in order laid?
Why but that each of us might stand
A living wender from his hand?
- Why have we souls, if not to know
The God from whom our mercies flow?
Sure this can never be our lot,
Like senseless brutes, to know him not.

4. Why have we life?—if not to gain
Immortal life, 'tis worse than vain:
This is the end from which 'twas given
We live on earth, to live in heaven.
5. Why did the Saviour leave the sky,
Hang on a cross, and bleed, and die?
And why are kind persuasions sent
To call and win us to repent?—
6. Surely it is—that robed in white,
And made well-pleasing in his sight,
Our souls may join the happy throng,
And sing the everlasting song.

Tune, DUANE STREET. L. M.

1. A poor, wayfaring man of grief
 Flain often crossed me on my way,
 Who sued so humbly for relief,
 That I could never answer Nay.
 I had not power to ask his name,
 Whither he went, or whence he came,
 Yet there was something in his eye
 That won my love, I knew not why.
2. Once, when my scanty meal was spread,
 He entered; not a word he spake;
 Just perishing for want of bread,
 I gave him all; he blessed it, brake,
 And ate, but gave me part again.
 Mine was an angel's portion then;
 And while I fed with eager haste,
 The crust was manna to my taste.
3. I spied him where a fountain burst
 Clear from the rock; his strength was gone
 The heedless water mocked his thirst,
 He heard it, saw it hurrying on.
 I ran and raised the sufferer up;
 Thrice from the stream he drained my cup,
 Dipped, and returned it running o'er,
 I drank, and never thirsted more.
4. 'Twas night; the floods were out; it blew
 A wintry hurricane aloof;
 I heard his voice abroad, and flew
 To bid him welcome to my roof.
 I warned, I clothed, I cheered my guest;
 Laid him on mine own couch to rest;
 Then made the earth my bed, and seemed
 In Eden's garden while I dreamed.
5. Stripped, wounded, beaten nigh to death,
 I found him by the highway side;
 I roused his pulse, brought back his breath,
 Revived his spirit, and supplied
 Wine, oil, refreshment, he was healed.
 I hid, myself a wound concealed:
 But, from that hour, forgot the smart,
 And peace bound:— my broken heart.

6. In prison I saw him next, condemned
 To meet a traitor's doom at morn;
 The tide of lying tongues I stemmed,
 And honored him 'mid shame and scorn.
 My friendship's utmost zeal to try,
 He asked if I for him would die;
 The flesh was weak, my blood ran chill,
 But the free spirit cried, "I will."
7. Then, in a moment, to my view
 The stranger started from disguise;
 The tokens in his hands I knew;
 My Saviour stood before my eyes!
 He spake, and my poor name he named:
 "Of me thou hast not been ashamed;
 These deeds shall thy memorial be:
 Fear not; thou did'st it unto me."

Tune, WINDHAM. L. M.

1. Jesus, and shall it ever be,
 A mortal man ashamed of thee!
 Ashamed of thee whom angels praise,
 Whose glories shine thro' endless days.
2. Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far
 Let evening blush to own a star:
 He sheds the beam of light divine
 O'er this benighted soul of mine.
3. Ashamed of Jesus! that dear Friend
 On whom my hopes of heaven depend!
 No! when I blush, be this my shame,
 That I no more revere his name.
4. Ashamed of Jesus! yes, I may
 When I've no guilt to wipe away;
 No tear to wipe, no good to crave;
 No fear to quell, no soul to save.
5. Till then—nor is my boasting vain—
 Till then I boast a Saviour slain!
 And oh! may this my glory be,
 That Christ is not ashamed of me.

Tune, REST. L. M.

1. ASLEEP in Jesus! blessed sleep!
From which none ever wake to weep;
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes.
2. Asleep in Jesus! O how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet!
With holy confidence to sing
That death has lost its cruel sting.
3. Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest;
No fear, no woe shall dim that hour
That manifests the Saviour's power.
4. Asleep in Jesus! O for me
May such a blissful refuge be;
Securely shall my ashes lie,
Waiting the summons from on high.
5. Asleep in Jesus! far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be;
But there is still a blessed sleep,
From which none ever wake to weep.

Tune, WARD. L. M.

1. BEHOLD a stranger at the door;
He gently knocks—has knocked before,
Has waited long—is waiting still—
You treat no other friend so ill.
2. Oh! lovely attitude—He stands
With melting heart and loaded hands;
Oh! matchless kindness—and He shows
This matchless kindness to His foes.
3. But will He prove a friend indeed?
He will—the very Friend you need:
The Friend of sinners—yes, 'tis He,
With garments dyed on Calvary.
4. Rise, touched with gratitude divine,
Turn out His enemy and thine;
That soul-destroying monster, sin,—
And let the heavenly Stranger in.

5. Admit him, ere his anger burn—
His feet, departed, ne'er return;
Admit Him, or the hour's at hand
You'll at his door rejected stand.

Tune, WARD. L. M.

1. SAY, sinner! hath a voice within
Of whispered to thy secret soul,
Urged thee to leave the ways of sin,
And yield thy heart to God's control.
2. Sinner! it was a heavenly voice,—
It was the Spirit's gracious call;
It bade thee make the better choice,
And haste to seek in Christ thine all.
3. Spurn not the call to life and light;
Regard, in time, the warning kind;
That call thou may'st not always slight,
And yet the gate of mercy find.
4. God's Spirit will not always strive
With hardened, self-destroying man;
Ye who persist His love to grieve,
May not hear his voice again.
5. Sinner! perhaps, this very day,
Thy last accepted time may be:
Oh! should'st thou grieve Him now away,
Then hope may never beam on thee.

Tune, OLD HUNDRED. L. M.

1. FROM all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise;
Let the Redeemer's praise be sung,
Thro' every land, by every tongue.
2. Eternal are thy mercies, Lord,
Eternal truth attends thy word;
Thy name shall sound from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.
3. In every land begin the song:
In every land the strains belong;
In cheerful sounds all voices raise,
And fill the world with loudest praise.

For those whose sins he bore.

Tune, BOYLSTON. S. M.

1. BLEST be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.
2. Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers:
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.
3. We share our mutual woes;
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.
4. When we asunder part
It gives us inward pain,
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

Our courage by the way;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.

And sin we shall be free;
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

Tune, LENOX. H. M.

1. AGAIN we meet, O Lord,
Again we fill this place,
To hear thy holy word,
To ask thy promised grace.
To thank thee for the gifts we share,
The children of thy love and care.
2. Grant us the listening ear,
The understanding heart,
The mind and will sincere,
To choose the better part.
To take the learner's lowly seat,
And gather wisdom at thy feet.
3. Through this, and every day,
Teach us thy paths to tread;
Nor let our feet astray
By Satan's wiles be led;
But keep us in the narrow road,
The road to glory and to God.

Tune, GREENVILLE. 8s & 7s.

1. LORD, dismiss us with thy blessing
Fill our hearts with love and peace,
Let us each, thy love possessing,
Triumph in redeeming grace.
Oh! refresh us, oh! refresh us,
Traveling thro' this wilderness.
2. Thanks we give, and adoration,
For the gospel's joyful sound,
May the fruit of thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound;
May thy presence, may thy presence
With us evermore be found.

Tune, LEBANON. S. M. Double.

1. I was a wandering sheep,
I did not love the fold ;
I did not love my Father's voice,
I would not be controlled,
I was a wayward child,
I did not love my home,
I did not love my Shepherd's voice,
I loved afar to roam.
2. The Shepherd sought his sheep,
The Father sought his child ;
They followed me o'er vale and hill,
O'er deserts waste and wild ;
They found me nigh to death,
Famished, and faint, and lone ;
They bound me with the bands of love,
They saved the wandering one.
3. Jesus, my Shepherd is,
'Twas he that loved my soul,
'Twas he that washed me in his blood,
'Twas he that made me whole.
'Twas he that sought the lost,
That found the wandering sheep,
'Twas he that brought me to the fold,
'Tis he that still doth keep.
4. No more a wandering sheep,
I love to be controlled ;
I love my tender Shepherd's voice,
I love the peaceful fold ;
No more a wayward child,
I seek no more to roam,
I love my heavenly Father's voice,
I love, I love his home.

Tune, LEBANON. S. M. Double.

1. How beauteous are their feet,
Who stand on Zion's hill !
Who bring salvation on their tongues,
And words of peace reveal.
How charming is their voice !
How sweet their tidings are !
"Zion, behold thy Saviour King,
He reigns and triumphs here."

2. How happy are our ears,
That hear the joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found.
How blessed are our eyes,
That see his heavenly light !
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.
2. The watchmen join their voice.
And tuneful notes employ ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy !
O God, make bare Thine arm
Through all the earth abroad ;
Let every nation now behold
Their Saviour and their God.

Tune, LEBANON. S. M. Double.

1. I WANT a heart to pray,
To pray and never cease ;
Never to murmur at Thy stay,
Or wish my sufferings less.
This blessing, above all,—
Always to pray—I want ;
Out of the deep on Thee to call,
And never, never faint.
2. I want a true regard,
A single, steady aim,—
Unmoved by threaten'ing or reward,
To Thee and Thy great name !
A jealous, just concern,
For Thine immortal praise,
A pure desire that all may learn
And glorify Thy grace.
3. I rest upon Thy word,
The promise is for me,
My succor and salvation, Lord,
Shall surely come from Thee,
But let me still abide,
Nor from my hope remove,
Till Thou my patient spirit guide
Into Thy perfect love.

 Let heaven and earth reply,
 "Praise ye his name!"
 Angels his love adore,
 Who all our sorrows bore;
 Saints, sing for evermore,

 Our Lord and God to bless,
 Praise ye his name.

 Making a cheerful noise,
 Shouting, with heart and voice,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

 Yet will we never cease
 Praising his name;
 Still will we tribute bring;
 Hail him our gracious King;
 And, through all ages, sing
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

Solemnly, with Feeling.

caused him to repent. I'll not die here for bread I'll not die here for bread he cries, Nor starve in foreign lands, bounteous are his hands.

2. What have I gained by sin, he said,
But hunger, shame, and fear :
My father's house abounds in bread,
While I am starving here.
I'll not die here, &c.
3. I'll go and tell him all I've done,
Fall down before his face,
Unworthy to be called his son,
I'll seek a servant's place.
I'll not die here, &c.
4. His father saw him coming back,
He saw, he ran, he smiled .
And threw his arms around the neck
Of his rebellious child.
I'll die no more, &c.

5. O father, I have sinned, forgive—
Enough, the father said :
Rejoice, my house, my son's alive,
For whom I mourned as dead.
I'll die no more, &c.
 6. Now let the fatted calf be slain,
And spread the news around !
My son was dead, and lives again,
Was lost but now is found.
I'll die no more, &c.
- Tis thus the Lord his love reveals,
To call poor sinners home.
More than a father's love he feels,
And welcomes all that come
I'll die no more, &c.

 God has brought us on our way,
 Let us now a blessing seek,
 Waiting in his courts to day,—
 Day of all the week the best,
 Emblem of eternal rest.

 Through the dear Redeemer's name,
 Show thy reconciling face,
 Take away our sin and shame;
 From our worldly cares set free,
 May we trust, this day, in thee.

KINGSFORD. 7s.

1. Hark, my soul it is the Lord, 'Tis thy Sa - viour; hear his word;
 2. " Mine be an un - changing love, High - er than the heights a - bove,
 3. " Thou shalt see my glo - ry soon, When the work of grace is done.
 4. Lord! it is my chief com - plaint That my love is cold and faint;

Je - sus speaks, and speaks to thee: " Say, poor sin - ner, lov'st thou me?
 Deep - er than the depths be - neath, Free and faith - ful, strong as death
 Part - ner of my throne shalt be: Say, poor sin - ner, lov'st thou me?
 Yet I love thee, and a - dore: Oh, for grace to love thee more!

1. Soon will set the Sabbath sun,
 Soon the sacred day be gone;
 But a sweeter rest remains,
 Where the glorious Saviour reigns.
2. Pleasant is the Sabbath bell,
 Seeming much of joy to tell;
 Kind our teachers are to-day,
 In the school we love to stay.
3. But a music, sweeter far,
 Breathes where angel spirits are;

- Higher far than earthly strains,
 Where the rest of God remains.
4. Shall we ever rise to dwell
 Where immortal praises swell?
 And can children ever go
 Where eternal Sabbaths glow?
5. Yes:—that rest our own may be,
 All the good shall Jesus see;
 For the good a rest remains,
 Where the glorious Saviour reigns.

Tune, SEYMOUR. 7s.

- 1 HOLY Bible ! book divine !
Precious treasure ! thou art mine !
Mine, to tell me whence I came :
Mine, to teach me what I am.
2. Mine, to chide me when I rove ;
Mine, to show a Saviour's love ;
Mine, art thou to guide my feet,
Mine, to judge, condemn, acquit.
3. Mine, to comfort in distress,
If the Holy Spirit bless ;
Mine, to show, by living faith,
Man can triumph over death.
4. Mine, to tell of joys to come,
And the rebel sinner's doom ;
Oh, thou precious book divine,
Priceless treasure ! thou art mine !

Tune, SEYMOUR. 7s.

1. SOFTLY fades the twilight ray
Of the holy Sabbath day ;
Gently as life's setting sun,
When the Christian's course is run.

2. Night her solemn mantle spreads
O'er the earth as daylight fades ;
All things tell of calm repose
At the holy Sabbath's close.
3. Peace is on the world abroad ;
'Tis the holy peace of God—
Symbol of the peace within,
When the Spirit rests from sin.
4. Still the Spirit lingers near,
Where the evening worshiper,
Seeks communion with the skies,
Pressing onward to the prize.
5. Saviour, may our Sabbaths be
Days of peace and joy in Thee,
Till in heaven our souls repose,
Where the Sabbaths ne'er shall close.

Tune, ONITIA. 7s.

- 1 SAVIOUR, may a little child
Through thy grace be reconciled,
Who can feel indeed within
Much of evil, much of sin ?
2. Yes, thou said'st, and that's my plea,
"Suffer such to come to me ;
Turn no little child away,
Heaven is fill'd with such as they."
3. Saviour ! to thine arms I fly,
Ere my childhood passes by ;
In thy fear my years be past,
Whether first, or midst, or last.

Tune, WILMOT. 7s.

1. ALL ye nations, praise the Lord !
All ye lands, your voices raise ;
Heaven and earth, with loud accord,
Praise the Lord—forever praise !
2. For his truth and mercy stand,
Past, and present, and to be.
Like the years of his right hand,
Like his own eternity.

Beautiful palms the conquerors show;
Beautiful robes the ransomed wear,
Beautiful all who enter there;
Thither I press with eager feet,
There shall my rest be long and sweet.

Beautiful songs the angels sing,
Beautiful rest, all wanderings cease,
Beautiful home of perfect peace.
There shall my eyes the Saviour see,
Haste to this heavenly home with me.

Tune, WEBB. 7s & 6s. Double.

1. Now be the gospel banner
In every land unfurled;
And be the shout, Hosanna!
Re-echoed through the world:
Till every isle and nation,
Till every tribe and tongue
Receive the great salvation,
And join the happy throng.
2. What though the embattled legions
Of earth and hell combine?
His arm throughout their regions,
Shall soon resplendent shine;
Ride on, O Lord, victorious;
Immanuel, Prince of Peace,
Thy triumph shall be glorious;
Thy empire shall increase.
3. Yes, thou shalt reign forever,
O Jesus, King of kings;
Thy light, thy love, thy favor,
Each ransomed captive sings;
The isles for thee are waiting,
The deserts learn thy praise;
The hills and valleys greeting,
The song responsive raise.

Tune, MISSIONARY HYMN. 7s & 6s. Double.

1. To Thee, my God and Saviour,
My heart exulting springs,
Rejoicing in thy favor,
Almighty King of kings;
I'll celebrate thy glory,
With all the saints above,
And tell the wondrous story
Of thy redeeming love.
2. Soon as the morn with roses
Bedecks the dewy east,
And when the sun reposes
Upon the ocean's breast,

My voice in supplication,
Jehovah, thou shalt hear,
Oh! grant me thy salvation,
And to my soul draw near.

3. By thee, through life supported,
I pass the dangerous road,
With heavenly hosts escorted
Up to their bright abode;
There cast my crown before thee,
My toils and conflicts o'er,
And day and night adore thee—
What can an angel more?

Tune, WEBB. 7s & 6s. Double.

1. Go when the morning shineth,
Go when the moon is bright,
Go when the eve declineth,
Go in the hush of night;
Go with pure mind and feeling,
Drive earthly thoughts away,
And, in thy closest kneeling,
Do thou in secret pray.
2. Remember all who love thee,
And who are loved by thee;
Pray, too, for those who hate thee,
If any such there be;
Then, for thyself, in meekness,
A blessing humbly claim,
And blend with each petition
Thy great Redeemer's name.
3. Or if 'tis e'er denied thee
In solitude to pray,
Should holy thoughts come o'er thee,
When friends are round thy way,
E'en then the silent breathing,
Thy spirit raised above,
Will reach his throne of glory,
Where dwells eternal love.

Tune, MISSIONARY HYMN. 7s & 7s. Peculiar.

1. From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Africa's sunny fountains
Loll down their golden sand;
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.
2. What though the spiky breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle,
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile?
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown:
The heathen, in his blindness,
Bows down to wood and stone.
3. Shall we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,
Shall we, to men benighted,
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation! O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name!
4. Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole;
Till, o'er our ransomed nature,
The Lamb, for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

Tune, ARIEL. C. P. M.

1. WHEN thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come
To take thy ransomed people home,
Shall I among them stand?
Shall such a worthless worm as I,
Who sometimes am afraid to die,
Be found at thy right hand?

2. Best saviour, grant it, by thy grace,
Be thou my only hiding-place,
In this, the accepted day;
Thy pardoning voice, oh, let me hear,
To still my unbelieving fear:
Nor let me fall, I pray.
3. And when the archangel's trump shall sound,
Let me among thy saints be found,
To see thy smiling face;
Then, in triumphant strains I'll sing,
While heaven's resounding mansions ring
With shouts of sovereign grace.

Tune, SPARKLING AND BRIGHT. P. M.

1. GUSHING so bright in the morning light,
Gleams the water in yon fountain;
As purely, too, as the early dew
That gems the distant mountain.
Then drink your fill of the grateful rill,
And leave the cup of sorrow;
Though it shine to-night in its gleaming light,
'Twill sting thee on the morrow.
2. Quietly glide in their silvery tide,
The brooks from rocks to valley;
And the flashing streams, in the broad sunbeams,
Like a bannered army rally.
Then drink, etc.
3. Touch not the wine, though brightly it shine,
When nature to man has given
A gift so sweet, his wants to meet,
A beverage that flows from heaven.
Then drink, etc.
4. Not only here of the water clear,
Is God the lavish giver;
But when we rise to yonder skies
We'll drink of life's bright river.
Then drink, etc.

THE HAPPY CHANGE.

CHORUS.

ONE VOICE.

While from guilt set free; They cherished bliss-ful hopes of heaven; But 'twas not so with me.
 Him I could not see; My friends were happy in his love, But 'twas not so with me.
 From my fears I'm free; Once oth-ers praised Him all the day, And now 'tis so with me.
 "Op-ea-na-to-me!" His word ob-eyed, how sweet our joy! Oh, 'twill be so with thee!

1. When lit - tle Sam - uel woke, And heard his Mak - er's voice, At ev - ery word he

O bless - ed, hap - py

spoke, How much did he re - joice; O

O bless - ed, hap - py child, to find, The child to find, The God of heaven so near and kind, The God, &c.

O bless - ed, hap - py child, to find, The God of heaven so near and kind.
bless - ed, hap - py child, to find, The God of heaven so near and kind.

God of heaven so near and kind, The God of heaven so near and kind.

2. If God would speak to me,
And say he was my Friend,
How happy would I be!
O, how would I attend!
The smallest sin I then should fear
If God Almighty were so near.

3. And does he never speak?
O yes! for in his word
He bids me come and seek
The God whom Samuel heard.
In almost every page I see
The God of Samuel calls to me.

4. And I, beneath his care,
May safely rest my head;
I know that God is there,
To guard my humble bed;
And every sin I well may fear,
Since God Almighty is so near.

5. Like Samuel, let me say,
Whene'er I read his word,
"Speak, Lord, I would obey
The voice that Samuel heard;"
And when I in thy house appear,
Speak, for thy servant waits to hear.

Tune, PISGAH. 8s, 7s & 4s.

1. CHILDREN, hear the melting story
Of the Lamb that once was slain,
'Tis the Lord of life and glory;
Shall he plead with you in vain?
O receive him,
And salvation now obtain.

2. Yield no more to sin and folly,
So displeasing in his sight;
Jesus loves the pure and holy,—
They alone are his delight:
Seek his favor,
And your hearts to him unite.

3. All your sins to Him confessing,
Who is ready to forgive;
Seek the Saviour's richest blessing,
On his precious name believe;
He is waiting;
Will you not his grace receive?

Tune, PISGAH. 8s, 7s & 4s.

1. In the vineyard of our Father,
Daily work we find to do;
Scattered gleanings we may gather,
Though we are but young and few;
Little clusters
Help to fill the garner, too.

2. Toiling early in the morning,
Catching moments through the day,
Nothing small or lowly scorning,
So along our path we stray;
Gathering gladly
Free-will offerings by the way.

3. Not for selfish praise or glory,
Not for objects nothing worth—
But to send the blessed story
Of the Gospel o'er the earth—
Telling mortals
Of our Lord and Saviour's birth.

4. Up and ever at our calling,
Till in death our lips are dumb;
Or till—sin's dominion falling—
Christ shall, in his kingdom, come,
And his children
Reach their everlasting home.

5. Steadfast, then, in our endeavor,
Heavenly Father, may we be;
And forever, and forever,
We will give the praise to thee.
Hallelujah!
Singing, all eternity.

1. } Je - sus, lov - er of my soul Let me to thy bo - som fly, }
 } While the billows near me roll, While the tempest still is high; } Hide me, O my Saviour, hide.

Till the storm of life is past; Safe in - to the ha - ven guide, O receive my soul at last.

2. Other refuge have I none ;
 Hangs my helpless soul on thee ;
 Leave, O leave me not alone ;
 Still support and comfort me ;
 All my trust on thee is stayed ;
 All my help from thee I bring ;
 Cover my defenseless head
 With the shadow of thy wing.
3. Thou, O Christ, art all I want ;
 More than all in thee I find ;
 Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
 Heal the sick, and lead the blind.

- Just and holy is thy name ;
 I am all unrighteousness ;
 False and full of sin I am ;
 Thou art full of truth and grace.
4. Plenteous grace with thee is found, —
 Grace to cover all my sin ;
 Let the healing streams abound ;
 Make and keep me pure within.
 Thou of life the fountain art ;
 Freely let me take of thee ;
 Spring thou up within my heart
 Rise to all eternity.

Tune, WESLEY. 7s. 8 lines.

1. CHILDREN of the heavenly King,
As ye journey, sweetly sing ;
Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
Glorious in his works and ways.
Ye are traveling home to God,
In the way the fathers trod ;
They are happy now, and ye
Soon their happiness shall see.
2. Shout, ye little flock, and, blest,
You near Jesus' throne shall rest ;
There your seats are now prepared,
There your kingdom and reward.
Lord! submissive make us go,
Gladly leaving all below,
Only thou our Leader be,
And we still will follow thee.

Tune, IVES. 7s. 8 lines.

1. PALMS of glory, raiment bright,
Crowns that never fade away,
Gird and deck the saints in light,
Priests and kings and conquerors they.
2. Yet the conquerors bring their palms
To the Lamb amidst the throne,
And proclaim, in joyful psalms,
Victory through his cross alone.
3. Kings for harps their crowns resign,
Crying, as they strike the chords,
"Take the kingdom—it is thine,
King of kings, and Lord of lords!"
4. Who are these ?!—on earth they dwelt,
Sinners once of Adam's race:
Guilt and fear and suffering felt,
But were saved by sovereign grace.
5. They were mortal, too, like us ;
Ah! when we, like them, shall die,
May our souls, translated thus,
Triumph and shine on high!

Tune, BENEVENTO. 7s. 8 lines.

1. WHILE, with ceaseless course, the sun
Hasted through the former year,
Many souls their race have run,
Never more to meet us here.
Fixed in their eternal state,
They have done with all below ;
We a little longer wait ;
But how little, none can know.
2. As the winged arrow flies,
Speedily the mark to find ;
As the lightning, from the skies
Darts, and leaves no trace behind :—
Swiftly thus our fleeting days
Bear us down life's rapid stream ;
Upward, Lord, our spirits raise ;
All below is but a dream.
3. Thanks for mercies past, receive,
Pardon of our sins renew ;
Teach us henceforth how to live
With eternity in view.
Bless thy word to young and old ;
Fill us with a Saviour's love ;
And, when life's short tale is told,
May we dwell with thee above.

Tune, MARTYN. 7s. 8 lines.

1. MARY, to the Saviour's tomb,
Hasted at the early dawn ;
Spice she brought, and sweet perfume,
But the Lord she loved had gone.
For awhile she lingering stood,
Filled with sorrow and surprise ;
Trembling, while a crystal flood
Issued from her weeping eyes.
2. But her sorrows quickly fled,
When she heard his welcome voice ;
Christ had risen from the dead ;
Now he bids her heart rejoice :
What a change his word can make,
Turning darkness into day !
Ye who weep for Jesus' sake,
He will wipe your tears away

 When the favor divine
 I first found in the blood of the Lamb;
 When my heart it believed,
 What a joy it received,
 What a heaven in Jesus' name

 My Redeemer to know,
 And the angels could do nothing more
 Than to fall at his feet,
 And the story repeat,
 And the lover of sinners adore.

4. Jesus, all the day long,
 Was my joy and my song;
 Oh! that all his salvation might see;
 He hath loved me, I cried,
 He hath suffered and died,
 To redeem such a rebel as me.

5. Oh! the rapturous height
 Of that holy delight
 Which I felt in the life-giving blood!
 Of my Saviour possessed,
 I was perfectly blest,
 As if filled with the goodness of God.

DUET.

The few bar- id mornings that dawn on us here Are enough for life's woes—full enough for its cheer.
 E'en the rapture of pardon is mingled with fears, And the cup of thankgiv- ing with pen- itent tears.
 There sweet be my rest till he bid me a- rise, To hail him in tri- umph de- scending the skies.
 Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains, And the noontide of glory e- ter- nal-ly reigns.
 While the anthems of rapture unceasing- ly roll, And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul!

1. The lord is my Shepherd, no want shall I know;
 I feed in green pastures, safe folded I rest;
 He leadeth my soul where the still waters flow,
 Restores me when wand'ring, redeems when oppress'd.
2. Thro' the valley and shadow of death tho' I stray,
 Since thou art my Guardian, no evil I fear.
 Thy rod shall defend me, thy staff be my stay,
 No harm can befall with my Comforter near.

3. In the midst of affliction my table is spread;
 With blessings unmeasured my cup runneth o'er;
 With perfume and oil thou anointest my head;
 O, what shall I ask of thy providence more?
4. Let goodness and mercy, my bountiful God,
 Still follow my steps till I meet thee above:
 I seek, by the path which my forefathers trod,
 Thro' the land of their sojourn, thy kingdom of love.

WE WON'T GIVE UP THE BIBLE.

Arr. by A. CULL. 109

1. We won't give up the Bible, God's holy book of truth, The blessed staff of hoary age, The guide of early youth.
2. We won't give up the Bible, For it alone can tell The way to save our ruined souls From being sent to hell.

1. We love to go to Sab-bath school, Sis-ter and I, sis-ter and I;
 2. Our Teacher we do dear-ly love— Sis-ter and I, sis-ter and I;

And, be the weather foul or fair, We pur- pose to be al- ways there,
 She comes and takes us by the hand, And points us to the bet- ter land,

 And tries to make us un- derstand— Sis-ter and I, sis-ter and I.

 Sister and I, sister and I;
 While many boys and girls there are,
 Whose parents for them do not care,
 We of the good things richly share—

 Sister and I, sister and I;
 For if we love and serve him best,
 In his own bosom we shall rest,
 And be in heav'n forever blest—

3 What sight is that which, near me,
Makes home a happy place,
And has such power to cheer me?—
It is my mother's face.
What sound is that which ever
Makes my young heart rejoice
With tones that tire me never?
It is my mother's voice.

4 When she is ill, to tend her
My daily care shall be;
Such help as I can render
Will all be joy to me.
Though I can ne'er repay her
For all her tender care,
I will honor and obey her,
While God our lives shall spare.

ONLY BE SURE OF HEAVEN.

Tune on the 121st page.

1. WHAT though we slumber with the dead,
An hundred years to come?
What though for us no tears are shed,
An hundred years to come?
Our Saviour slept
In Joseph's tomb,
And shall we fear
Its shadowy gloom?
Ah, no! triumphant faith shall sing
That death has lost its venom'd sting,
Since Christ our Lord has come.
2. Our Father, thou that hearest prayer,
Imploring now we come,
O may thy grace each one prepare
For death, our certain doom.
Then doubt nor fear
Shall dim that hour,
When we shall feel
The tyrant's power;
But joyful shall our spirits rise,
To greet thy coming in the skies,
To bring thy children home.
3. All, all who shall in Jesus sleep,
An hundred years to come,
Not one will ever wake to weep,
An hundred years to come.
They only die
To live again
In worlds of light,
With Christ to reign.
Then hail, all hail! each passing year
Your rapid flight shall bring us near
To our eternal home.

4. 'T is well to die, if this shall be,
An hundred years to come,—
If in that land safe dwellers we,
An hundred years to come,—
Where sin comes not,
With dark alloy,
Nor death, to mar
Our rising joy;
Where God away shall wipe all tears,
And life shall measure endless years
In heaven, our blissful home. J. B. OSGOOD.

Words by W. C. BROWN. A HUNDRED YEARS TO COME. Music by J. R. OSGOOD. 121
 Pla. Gliding movement.

Where! where will be the birds that slug, A hundred years to come? The flowers that now in beauty spring, A hundred years to come? The ro-sy lips, the lofty brow, The heart that beats Se gay-ly now, { O where will be love's beaming eye,

 Joy's pleasant smile, and sorrow's sigh } A hundred years to come.

2 Who'll press for gold this crowded street.
 A hundred years to come?
 Who'll tread yon church with willing feet,
 A hundred years to come?
 Pale, trembling age, and fiery youth,
 And childhood with its heart of truth,
 The rich, the poor, on land and sea,
 Where will the mighty millions be
 A hundred years to come?

3 We all within our graves shall sleep
 A hundred years to come;
 No living soul for us will weep
 A hundred years to come;
 But other men our lands will till,
 And others then our streets will fill,
 While other birds will sing as gay,
 And bright the sun shine as to-day
 A hundred years to come.

Tune, "KIND WORDS."

1. JESUS forever lives,
Praise we his name;
His blood salvation gives,
His love proclaim.
Once He with pitying eye,
Looked on our misery,
Saw us condemned to die;
For us He died.

Chorus.—Jesus forever lives,
Ever lives, ever lives,
Jesus forever lives,
Yes, ever lives.

2. Jesus forever reigns,
Crown we our King;
His glory wakes the strains;
Saints, angels sing.
Though He a babe became,
Dwelt in a mortal frame,
Bore for us grief and shame,—
Now King He reigns.

Chorus.—Jesus forever reigns, &c.

3. Jesus forever loves;
Precious His grace!
Those whom He once approves,
Lives to His praise.
No change of worldly state,
No scorn of vile or great,
Can his regard abate.
Faithful His love!

Chorus.—Jesus forever loves, &c.

4. Jesus forever saves
Those whom He loves;
Over sorrow's wildest waves
His power He proves,

When night is long and drear,
When grief is most severe,
He bids us never fear;
He lives to save.

THE BIBLE AND LIBERTY.

For Fourth of July. Tune, "WEBB."

1. ONCE more with hallowed feeling,
We join the blest employ,
Our nation's praises pealing
In songs of festive joy;
And back the loud hosanna
Shall roll from sea to sea,
Till mountain and savanna
Re-echo—"We are free."
2. We love the Book which lighted
The glow of patriot fires,
When Freedom was benighted,
In the bosom of our sires.
They shed their blood to save us,
And gained our liberty;
But the greatest boon they gave us
The Bible was made free!
3. Our land is Virtue's dwelling,
Here Science builds her shrine,
And happy hearts are swelling
With joy almost divine:
And we, in emulation,
Here pledge ourselves to be
The guardians of the Nation—
We'll keep the Bible free!
4. Then come, with hallowed feeling,
Join in the blest employ,
Our nation's praises pealing
In songs of festive joy.
Till back the loud hosanna
Shall roll from sea to sea,
From mountain and savanna,—
We'll keep the Bible free!—REV. S. DYER.

 Rejoice, rejoice, the promised time is coming,
 Rejoice, rejoice, Jerusalem shall sing;
 And truth shall sit on every hill,
 And blessings flow in every rill,
 And praise shall every heart employ,
 And every voice shall shout with joy:
 Rejoice, rejoice, the promised time is coming,
 Rejoice, rejoice, Jerusalem shall sing.

3. Rejoice, rejoice, the promised time is coming,
 Rejoice, rejoice, the Prince of Peace shall reign;
 And lambs shall with the leopard play,
 For naught shall harm in Zion's way:
 Rejoice, rejoice, the promised time is coming,
 Rejoice, rejoice, the Prince of Peace shall reign.
 The sword and spear, of needless worth,
 Shall prune the tree and plow the earth:
 And peace shall smile from shore to shore,
 And nations learn to war no more:
 Rejoice, rejoice, the promised time is coming,
 Rejoice, rejoice, the Prince of Peace shall reign.

OH! THE SABBATH MORNING.

Tune—"PRAIRIE FLOWER."

1. On! the Sabbath morning, beautiful and bright,
Joyfully we hail its golden light;
All the gloomy shadows chasing far away,
Bring us the pleasant day.

Chorus. Day, calm and holy—day nearest heaven,
Day which a Father's love has given;
Oh! the Sabbath morning! beautiful and bright,
Glad we hail its golden light.

2. All the days of labor ended one by one,
Glad are we the six days' work is done;
Glad to have a day of sweet and holy rest,
'T is the day that God has blest,
Day calm and holy, &c.

3. Let us spend the moments of this holy day,
So that when they have all passed away,
Sweet 'twill be to think—the quiet Sabbath ev'n
Bring us one day nearer heaven.
Day, calm and holy, &c.

Tune—NUREMBERG.

1. I AM young, but I must die,
In my grave I soon shall lie;
Am I ready now to go,
If the will of God be so?
2. Lord, prepare me for my end,
To my heart thy Spirit send.
Help me, Jesus, thee to love,
Take my soul to heaven above.
3. Then I shall with Jesus be
Then I shall my Saviour see;
Never more to suffer pain,
Never more to sin again.

SABBATH SCHOOL FESTIVAL.

Tune—"O, COME LET US SING."

1. How blest, blest are we,
On this our festal evening,
Where every heart can share a part
Of joy full and free;
And join to sing, in joyful lays,
Our hymn of gratitude and praise,
To Him who crowns our days—
How blest, blest are we.

2. While years rush along,
May we be ever hastening
To worlds above of light and love,
To join that bright throng;
Oh, may we ever keep the way,
That leads to everlasting day,
And never, never stray,
While years rush along.

3. Our life glides away,
Like silent waters flowing;
And ere we think we reach the brink
Where all launch away;
Then, while its moments wing their flight,
We'll spend each one in doing right,
Working with all our might,
While life glides away.

4. Oh, Saviour above!
Our humbler prayer accepting,
Grant us the grace to spend our days
In joy, peace and love;
And when the scenes of life are o'er,
Then take us to yon heavenly shore,
Safely, forevermore,
To dwell in thy love!

dens of crime, Gather them in, in their early prime. Gladly! gladly! gladly we'll hear and obey;

Hear and obey! Hear and obey! Hear and obey the Savior's rule And gather them all to the Sabbath school

2 Gather them in, in the numbers vast,
Which common arithmetic scarce can east;
Gather them in from the countless throng
Which in heaven shall raise the endless song.
Gladly! Gladly! &c.

3 Gather them in from the drunkard's cup,
Drying the sources of vigor up;
Gather them in from the scenes of strife;
Gather them in to the way of life.
Gladly! Gladly! &c.

4 Gather them in from the blow and curse,
Making, by cruelty, bad ones worse;
Gather them in to the gentle rule
Of the Christian church and the Sabbath-school.
Gladly! Gladly! &c.

5 Gather them in with a burning zeal;
Gather them in for the nation's weal;
Gather them in for the garner above,
Where faith and hope shall be lost in love.
Gladly! Gladly! &c.

OH! I'LL BE A GOOD CHILD.

Words by Rev. C. W. DENISON.
SOLO or DUET.

2. When wick-ed children tempt me to play, I'll ask my Saviour to send them a-way; And read my Bi-ble and keep the rule, And ear-ly come to the Sab-bath school.

if they want me to do any wrong, I'll go to the Lord with my lit-tle song.

CHORUS.

Oh! yes, Oh! yes, I love my teacher still, I'll be a good child, in-deed I will.

3. On the holy Sabbath day I love,
I'll raise my song to the God above;
My childish feet shall tread the court,
Where happy Christian flocks resort.
Oh! yes, oh! yes, &c.

4. When all my journey on earth is done,
I'll quick to the arms of my Shepherd run;
He'll fold me close to his gentle breast,
There safe for ever will I rest.
Oh! yes, oh! yes, &c.

NOT TOO FAST.

1. Great Shepherd of the sheep, Who all thy flock doth keep, Leading by waters calm,
 2. I fear I may be torn By many a sharp set thorn, As far from Thee I stray,—

 My weary feet may bleed, For rough are paths which lead Out of thy pleasant way.

 Thy tender arm, and strong,
 The weary one will bear;
 And thou wilt wash me clean,

 Cleansed and made pure within,
 Dear Saviour, whose I am,

THANKS FOR THE PAST, AND RESOLVES FOR THE FUTURE.

Tune—"HAPPY DAY."

1. THE year has flown, and we again
In festive joys together meet;
And oh, we sing a sweeter strain
Than e'er before, our friends to greet,
Blessed year, blessed year,
To many hearts now gathered here,
For they have bathed in Mercy's pool,
Led thither by the Sabbath School;
Blessed year, blessed year,
Which led us to the Saviour here.
2. God's holy Word has been our guide,
Enlightened by the Spirit's ray;
We thus were taught how Jesus died
To wash our guilt and sins away.
Blessed hour, blessed hour,
When first we felt the Saviour's power;
And from that Fountain ever full;
Grace overflowed our Sabbath School:
Blessed hour, blessed hour,
When first we felt the Saviour's power.
3. As in the clear and quiet skies,
The clustering stars of evening shine,
The light of truth upon our eyes
Has shone with beams of grace divine;
Blessed light, blessed light,
Which led our feet from error's night,
And brought us to the heavenly stream
Where "living waters" ever gleam,
Blessed light, blessed light,
Still guide us to its waters bright.
4. Now let us all resolve anew,
That love and zeal shall ne'er grow cool;
But strive henceforth what each can do,
To make a better Sabbath School;
Blest employ, blest employ;
On earth there is no sweeter joy,
Than, seated in the Sabbath School,

To train the young for Jesus rule.
Blest employ—blest employ,
We all can share this heavenly joy,

NO SORROW THERE.

Tune—"NO SORROW THERE."

1. COME sing to me of heaven,
When I 'm about to die,
Sing songs of holy ecstasy,
To waft my soul on high!
- Chorus.* There'll be no sorrow there,
There'll be no sorrow there,
In heaven above, where all is love,
There'll be no sorrow there.
2. When cold and sluggish drops
Roll off my marble brow,
Break forth in songs of joyfulness,
Lest heaven begin below.
There 'll, &c.
3. When the last moments come,
Oh, watch my dying face,
To catch the bright seraphic glow,
Which in each feature plays.
There 'll, &c.
4. Then to my raptured ear,
Let one sweet song be given;
Let music charm me last on earth,
And greet me first in heaven.
There 'll, &c.
5. Then close my sightless eyes,
And lay me down to rest,
And clasp my cold and icy hands,
Upon my lifeless breast.
There 'll, &c.
6. When round my senseless clay,
Assemble those I love—
Then sing of heaven, delightful heaven,
My glorious home above.
There 'll, &c.

3. Ah, little children, learn of us
 That life must pass away,
 That all the lovely things of earth
 Must perish and decay.
 Learn from us not to love too well
 Earth or earth's fairest things,
 But seek, and ever strive to gain
 Th' riches that have no wings. .

4. Such riches, children; you will find
 In love, in faith, and prayer,
 In looking toward your heavenly home,
 Placing your treasure there.
 In deeds of charity to all
 You have the power to bless:
 These, when all earthly powers fail,
 Will bring you happiness.

FINE. f Chorus. Repeat from S to Fine.

2. Just at an aged birch-tree's foot,
 A little girl and boy reclined,
 His hand in hers she kindly put,
 And then I saw the boy was blind!
4. "Dear Mary," said the poor blind boy,
 "That little bird sings very long;
 Say, do you see him in his joy,
 And is he pretty as his song?"
5. "Yes, Edward, yes," replied the maid,
 "I see the bird on yonder tree;"
 The poor boy sighed and gently said,—
 "Sister I wish that I could see!"
6. "The flowers, you say, are very fair,
 And bright green leaves are on the trees.

- And pretty birds are singing there—
 How beautiful for one who sees!
7. "Yet I the fragrant flower can smell,
 And can feel the green leaf's shade,
 And I can hear the notes that swell
 From those dear birds that God has made.
 8. "So, sister, God to me is kind,
 Though sight, alas! he has not given;
 But tell me, are there any blind
 Among the children up in heaven?"
 9. "No, dearest Edward, there all see!
 But wherefore ask a thing so odd?"
 "O Mary, he's so good to me,
 I thought I'd like to look at God."

 Though clouds rise dark between;
 Faith views the radiant dome,

 From the never-setting sun!
 O thou trembling morning star!
 Soon our journey will be done
 To the new Jerusalem.

 O sweet rest, eternal there!
 When shall all the exiles come,
 Where they cease from earthly care,
 In the new Jerusalem?

 Heavenly mansions, fair to see;
 Blessed Lord! thy heavens bow,
