

The Other Side o' Jordan

Verse by

Frank L. Stanton

Music by

C. B. Hawley

High Voice

6

Low Voice

THE JOHN CHURCH COMPANY

CINCINNATI

NEW YORK

LONDON

"On the other side o' Jordan"
Sing brothers sing;
Better put a word in
If you're goin' there in Spring.
But it's mighty hard to go
At the meltin' of the snow,
When the mockin' bird is singin'
'Cause he loves his sweetheart so!
"On the other side o' Jordan"
Ring it to the sky!
But summer's comin' hummin',
Bees and blossoms by and by.
An' it's mighty hard to go
When the winds in music blow
The roses to your sweetheart,
'Cause their lovin' of her so.
"On the other side o' Jordan"
But any season seems,
Mighty sweet to stay here
In the valleys with the dreams.
The shiny angels know
We'll never want to go,
While a mockin' bird is singin'
'Cause he loves his sweetheart so!

—Frank L. Stanton.

High Voice

Low Voice
Original Key

3

The other side o' Jordan

FRANK L. STANTON

C. B. HAWLEY

Andante con moto

mock-in' bird is sing-in',— 'Cause he loves his sweet-heart so! "On the

rit. a tempo

oth-er side o' Jor-dan" Ring it to the sky! But sum-mer's com-in', hum-min', Bees and

f blos-soms by and by. An it's might-y hard to go When the winds in mu-sic blow the

f ros-es to your sweet-heart.— 'Cause their lov-in' of her so. "On the

rit. p

oth-er side o' Jor-dan?' But an-y sea-son seems might-y sweet to stay here In the val-leys with the dreams. The shin-y an-gels know we'll nev-er want to go While a mock-in' bird is sing-in' 'Cause he loves his sweet-heart

sol

p pp ppp

Red.