P R E F A C E .

The contents of THE OFFERING have been collected at intervals, and composed or arranged for special occasions, during the past ten years. The general satisfaction they have given to both Choirs and Congregations, and the urgent requests of many eminent choristers and professional friends, have induced me to select for publication, those metrical tunes and pieces which I judged likely to be most generally useful and practicable.

During the past year, a few Motetts have been published, in sheet-music form, as an experiment, under the general title "MORNING and EVENING," and the marked success of those pieces leads me to believe that the public will find in THE OFFERING a large amount of new, interesting, and effective music for social practice, as well as the ordinary and special occasions of Divine worship; at any rate, every piece in this collection has been tested by repeated use.

Although the number of metrical tunes is much less than usual in works of this kind, it is thought that The Offering contains a greater variety of new and useful tunes than can be found in any collection of Sacred Music published within many years.

A few pages have been devoted to "Responsive Selections," to be used thus; the Minister reads the first versicle, and the choir chants the first reponse; the Minister then reads the second versicle, and the choir chants the second response, and so to the end, the choir concluding with the AMEN, or one of the Ascriptions or Glorias, as may be preferred.

This method of commencing Divine worship has been adopted in many churches within a few years, and is steadily growing in favor. Should, however, any Church or Minister object to this innovation, the reponses of each selection may be used by themselves as a complete chant, without the accompanying versicles.

It is deemed proper to say that in this work the title Motett is given to those pieces, longer than Sentences, shorter than Anthems, which may be effectively sung by four or more voices, though in most cases a chorus is preferable; while the word Anthem is used to designate more elaborate pieces whose full effect imperatively requires a large number of voices. Under the heading Hymns, will be found those selections which, although not intended for use as ordinary metrical tunes, are specially adapted to the poetry to which they are set.

A special Clef has been adopted, to designate the Tenor part. While it imposes no additional labour upon the singer, (the notes being read precisely as with the G Clef,) it serves to clearly mark the score to the player, and enables the Tenors to identify their part at a glance.

DRAINESVILLE. L. M.

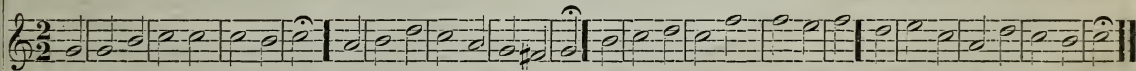

Maestoso.

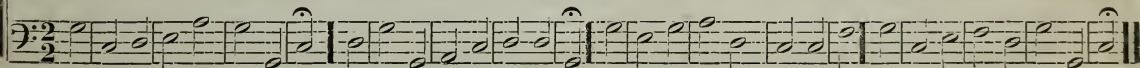

1. O Lord, thy mer-cy my sure hope, The high-est orb of heav'n transcends ; Thy sacred truth's un - measur'd scope Be-yond the spreading sky extends.

2. Thy jus-tice like the hills re-mains, Unfathom'd depths thy judgments are ; Thy prov-i-dence the world sustains, The whole cre-a-tion is thy care.

3. With thee the springs of life re-main, Thy presence is e-ter-nal day ; O let thy saints thy fa-vor gain, To upright hearts thy truth display.

Andante Divoto.

1. When streaming from the east-ern skies, The morn-ing light sa-lutes mine eyes, O Sun of right - eousness di - vine,

2. When to heaven's great and glorious King My morn-ing sac - ri - fice I bring, And mourn-ing o'er my guilt and shame,

On me with beams of mer - cy shine! Oh! chase the clouds of guilt a - way, And turn my darkness in - to day.

Ritard. A tempo. p Morendo.

Ask mer - cy in my Sa - viour's name; Then, Je - sus, cleanse me with thy blood, And be my Ad - vo - cate with God.

Andante Maestoso.

1. The Lord my pasture shall pre- pare, And feed me with a shepherd's care ; His presence shall my wants supply, And guard me with a watchful eye :

mp mp

3. Though in the paths of death I tread, With gloomy horrors o-verspread, My steadfast heart shall fear no ill, For thou, O Lord, art with me still :

My noon-day walks he shall at - tend, And all my mid-night hours de-fend.
Thy friendly crook shall give me aid, And guide me through the dread-ful shade.

My noon - day walks he shall at - tend, And all my mid - night hours de-fend.
Thy friend - ly crook shall give me aid, And guide me through the dread-ful shade.

My noon-day walks he shall at - tend, And all my mid-night hours de - fend.
Thy friendly crook shall give me aid, And guide me thro' the dread-ful shade.

MONTANA. L. M. 6 lines.

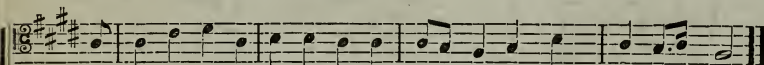

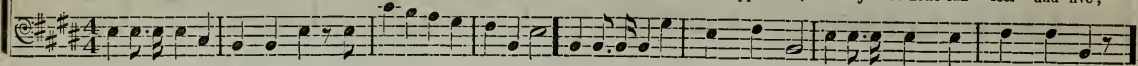

Maestoso, con Spirito.

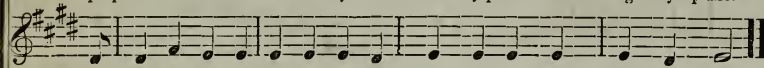

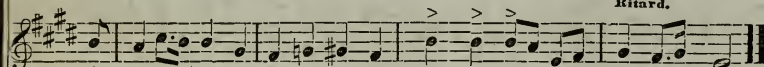

1. Fountain of light and living breath, Whose mercies never fail nor fade, Fill us with life that hath no death, Fill us with light that hath no shade ;

mf

3. Great God, whose kingdom hath no end, Into whose secrets none can dive, Whose mercy none can apprehend, Whose justice none can feel and live ;

Ap - point the rem - nant of our days To see thy power and sing thy praise.

Ritard.

What our weak minds can - not as - pire To know, Lord, teach us to ad - mire.

2.

Lord God of gods ! before whose throne Stand storms and fire, O, what shall we Return to heaven that is our own,
When all the world belongs to thee ?
We have no offering to impart
But praises and a wounded heart.

Andante con Espressione.

1. Forth from the dark and stor - my sky, Lord, to thine al - tar's shade we fly; Forth from the world, its hope and fear,

2. Long have we roamed in want and pain, Long have we sought thy rest in vain; Wildered in doubt, in dark-ness lost,

Fa - ther, we seek thy shel - ter here: Wea - ry and weak, thy grace we pray: Turn not, O Lord! thy guests a - way!

Long have our souls been tem - pest tost: Low at thy feet our - sins we lay; Turn not, O Lord! thy guests a - way!

BARMESTON. L. M.

Moderato.

1. O ren-der thanks to God a - bove, The fountain of e - ternal love; Whose mercy firm thro' a - ges past Has stood, and shall for - ev - er last.

6. Let Israel's God be ev - er bless'd, His Name eternally confess'd; Let all his saints, with full ac-cord, Sing loud A-mens, Praise ye the Lord!

BRENTSVILLE. L. M.

Con spirito.

1. O come, loud an-thems let us sing, Loud thanks to our Al - migh - ty King; For we our voi - ces high should raise, When our sal - vation's rock we praise.

2. In - to his pres - ence let us haste, To thank him for his fa - vours past; To him ad - dress, in joyful songs, The praise that to his Name be - longs:

Divoto.

1. Far from my thoughts, vain world, be gone, Let my re - lig - ious hours a - lone; Fain would my eyes my Sa - viour see; I wait a vis - it, Lord, from thee!

p

2. My heart grows warm with ho - ly fire, And kindles with a pure de - sire: Come, my dear Je - sus, from a - bove, And feed my soul with heavenly love.

BRIDGES. L. M.

Recitando.

1. To thee, O God! we hom-age pay, Source of the light that rules the day! Who, while he gilds all nature's frame, Re-flects thy rays and speaks thy name.

mf

2. In loud-er strains we sing that grace Which gives the Sun of Righteous-ness, Whose nobler light sal-va-tion brings, And scat-ters heal-ing from thy wings.

CHAPMAN. L. M.

Andante Divoto.

1. E - ter - nal God, thou Light divine, Fountain of un - exhausted love, O, let thy glories on me shine, In earth beneath, from heaven above.

mp

2. Thou art the weary wanderer's rest, Give me the ea - sy yoke to bear; With steadfast patience arm my breast, With spotless (Omit.)..... love and ho - ly fear.

CARLINGFORD. L. M.

ENGLISH THEME.

13

Maestoso.

1. In glad amazement, Lord, I stand, A - midst the bounties of thy hand: How numberless those bounties are! How rich, how various, and how fair!

6. Give me, at length, an angel's tongue, That heaven may echo with my song: The theme, too great for time, shall be The joy of long e - Omit, ter - ni - ty.

Ritard.

DACOTA. L. M.

Allegro.

1. Come, O my soul, in sa - cred lays, Attempt thy great Creator's praise: But, O, what tongue can speak his fame? What mortal verse can reach the theme?

mf

2. Enthroned amid the radiant spheres, He glo - ry like a garment wears; To form a robe of light di - vine, Ten thou - sand suns a - round him shine.

Allegro con Spirito.

1. Let one loud song of praise a - rise To God, whose goodness ceaseless flows ; Who dwells enthroned above the skies, And life and breath on all be-stows.

f mp Crescendo. f Ritard.

2. In ar-dent ad-o - ra-tion joined, O - be-dient to thy ho - ly will. Let all our fac - ul - ties, combined, Thy just commands, O God ! ful - fil.

ECCO. L. M. N. B. For the third verse, and for any other Hymn, use the first half on the next page.

Adagio.

1. Lo, God is here! Let us a - dore, And humbly bow before his face ; Let all with-in us feel his power, Let all with-in us seek his grace.

p

2. Lo, God is here! Him day and night, United choirs of angels sing ; To him enthroned above all height, Heaven's host their noblest homage bring.

3. Being of beings, may our praise Thy courts with grateful homage fill!

Oh thou, to whom in ancient time, The lyre of Hebrew bards was strung.

EUPHRATES. L. M.

Con affetto.

1. When we, our wearied limbs to rest, Sat down by proud Eu-phrates' stream, We wept, with doleful thoughts oppressed, And Zion was our mournful theme.

p Crescendo.

2. Our harps, that, when with joy we sung, Were wont their tuneful part to bear, With si-lent strings, neglected hung, On wil-low trees that withered there.

Detailed description: This is a musical score for the hymn 'EUPHRATES'. It consists of two systems of music. The first system is for the first verse and includes a piano (p) dynamic marking and a crescendo instruction. The second system is for the second verse. HESSE. L. M.

Moderato e Risoluto.

High in the heavens, eternal God, Thy good - - - ness in full glory shines, Thy truth shall break thro' ev'ry cloud That veils and darkens thy designs.

Thy truth shall break thro' ev'ry cloud that veils,

High in the heavens, eternal God, Thy goodness in full glo-ry shines; Thy truth shall break thro' ev'ry cloud, That veils and darkens thy designs.

High in the heav'ns, e-ter-nal God, Thy goodness in full glo-ry shines; Thy truth shall break thro' ev'ry cloud, MORLEY. L. M.

From HAYDN.

Maestoso.

1. Blest Spirit! source of grace divine! What soul-refreshing streams are thine: O bring these healing waters nigh, Or we must droop, and fall, and die.

mf What soul re-fresh - - ing streams are thine;

4. May this blest torrent near my side Thro' all the desert gently glide; Then, in E-manuel's land a-bove, Spread to a sea of (Omit.....) joy and love.

1st time. Last time.

ONALBA. L. M.

From MOZART.

Andantino.

1. In sleep's serene ob - liv - ion laid, I safe - ly passed the si - lent night: Again I see the breaking shade, I drink a - gain the morning light.

p

4. A deep - er shade shall soon impend, A deep - er sleep my eyes oppress; Yet then thy strength shall still defend, Thy goodness still delight to bless.

RAPIDAN. L. M.

Moderato.

1. E - ter - nal Source of eve - ry joy! Well may thy praise our lips employ, While in thy temple we ap - pear, Whose good - ness crowns the circling year.

mf

2. Wide as the wheels of na - ture roll, Thy hand supports the steady pole: The sun is taught by thee to rise, And dark - ness when to veil the skies.

Risoluto.

1. Father of lights! we sing thy name Who kindlest up the lamp of day; Wide as he spreads his golden flame, His beams thy power and love display.

mf

2. Fountain of good! from thee proceed The copious drops of genial rain, Which, o'er the hill and thro' the mead, Revive the grass, and swell the grain.

SHARPE. L. M.

Recitativo.

1. My dear Re-deemer, and my Lord, I read my du-ty in thy word; But in thy life the law ap-pears Drawn out in liv-ing char-ac-ters.

mf

3. Cold mountains and the midnight air Witnessed the fer- vor of thy prayer, The desert thy temptations knew, Thy con- flict, and thy vic-tory, too.

UNDERWOOD. L. M.

From BEZANBYEN.

Andante.

1. Oh, that my load of sin were gone, Oh, that I could at last submit At Je - sus' feet to lay it down, To lay my soul at Je - sus' feet.

2. Rest for my soul I long to find; Sa - viour of all, if mine thou art, Give me thy meek and low - ly mind, And stamp thine image on my heart.

WARE. L. M.

Cantabile.

1. Tho' I walk through the gloomy vale, Where death and all its ter - rors are, My heart and hope shall nev - er fail, For God my Shepherd's with me there.

2. Amid the darkness and the deeps, Thou art my comfort, thou my stay; Thy staff supports my fee - ble steps, Thy rod di - rects my doubt - ful way.

DUNLATH. L. P. M. (II-2.)

Con Spirito.

1. Ye saints and ser-vants of the Lord, The triumph of his name re-cord; His sa-cred name for-ev-er bless:

mf

2. God, thro' the world, ex-tends his sway! The regions of e-ter-nal day But shadows of his glo-ry are:

Where'er the circling sun dis-plays His ris-ing beams or set-ting rays, Due praise to his great name ad-dress.

To him whose ma-jes-ty ex-cels, Who made the heaven where-in he dwells, Let no cre-a-ted power com-pare.

Maestoso.

The Lord hath spoke, the might-ty God Hath sent his sum - mons all a - broad, From dawning light till day declines:

mf The Lord hath spoke, the mighty God,

The Lord hath spoke, the migh - - ty God Hath sent his sum - mons all a-broad, The list'ning earth his voice hath heard,

The Lord hath spoke, the mighty God,

The list'ning earth his voice hath heard, And he from Zion hath ap-pear'd, Where beau-ty in per - fec - tion shines.

The list'ning earth his voice hath heard, And he from Zi - on hath appear'd,

The list'ning earth his voice hath heard, And he from Zi - on hath appear'd, Where beau - ty in per - fec - tion shines.

The list'ning earth his voice hath heard, And he from Zion hath appear'd,

EVELYN. L. M. Double.

Andante Moderato.

1. God of the rolling orbs above, Thy name is written clearly bright In the warm day's un - varying blaze, Or evening's golden shower of light :

mp

2. God of the world, the hour must come, And nature's self to dust re - turn ; Her crumbling altars must decay ; Her incense-fires shall cease to burn :

Detailed description: This system contains the first two stanzas of the hymn. It features four staves: a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and two single treble clef staves. The music is in 3/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The tempo is marked 'Andante Moderato' and the dynamic is 'mp'. The lyrics are printed below the staves, with the first two lines of the first stanza on the top staff and the first two lines of the second stanza on the second staff.

For every fire that fronts the sun, And every spark that walks a - lone Around the utmost verge of heaven, Were kindled at thy burning throne.

RITARD.

But still her grand and lovely scenes Have made man's warmest praises flow, For hearts grow holier as they trace The beauty of the world be - low.

Detailed description: This system contains the continuation of the hymn. It features four staves: a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and two single treble clef staves. The music continues from the previous system. The lyrics are printed below the staves, with the first two lines of the third stanza on the top staff and the first two lines of the fourth stanza on the second staff. The tempo marking 'RITARD.' is placed at the end of the second staff.

Moderato.

1. How shall we praise thee, Lord of light! How shall we all thy love declare! The earth is veiled in shades of night, But heaven is open to our prayer.

mp Ritard.

3. But thou art present with us here, As in thy glittering, high domain; And grateful hearts and humble fear Can never seek thy face in vain.

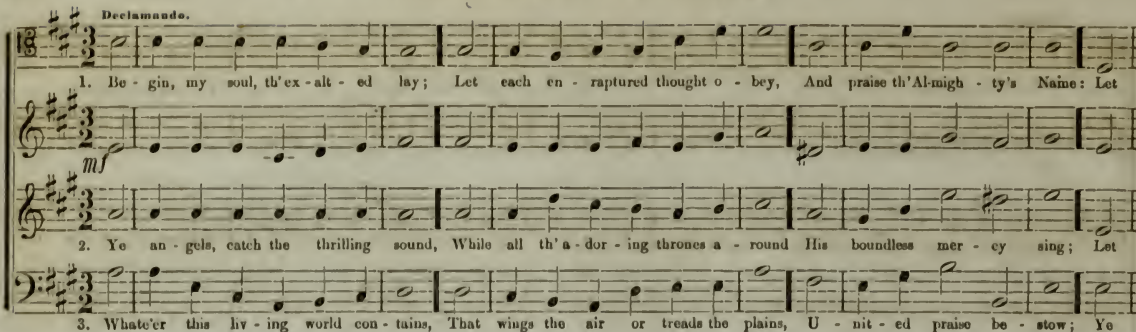

That heaven, so bright with stars and suns, That glorious heaven which has no bound, Where the full tide of being runs, And life and beauty glow a-round.

Cres. f Ritard.

Help us to praise thee, Lord of light; Help us thy boundless love declare; And, while we crowd thy courts to-night, Aid us, and hearken to our prayer.

PESARO. C. M.

From ROSSINI.

Moderate,

1. This is the day the Lord hath made, Let young and old re-joice: To him be vows and homage paid, Whose ser-vice is our choice.

2. This is the hom-age he requires; The voice of praise and prayer, The soul's affections, hopes, desires, Ourselves and all we are.

mp

Recitativo Larghetto.

C. M. My offerings to God's house I'll bring, And there my vows will pay, Which I with solemn zeal did make In trouble's dis-mal day.

8 & 6. My God, my Fa-ther, while I stray Far from my home on life's rough way, O, teach me from my heart to say, "Thy will, my God, be done."

RELIEF. C. M.

Maestoso.

1. In my distress to God I cried, Who kind-ly did re-lieve, And from the grave's ex-pect-ing mouth My hope-less life retrieve

3. His wrath has but a moment's reign, His fa-vor no de-cay; The night of grief is rec-om-pensed With joy's re-turning day.

RUTLAND. C. M.

Mae-sto-so.

1. Let all the lands with shouts of joy, To God their voi - ces raise; Sing psalms in honor of his Name, And spread his glorious praise.

3. Thro' all the earth the nations round Shall thee their God con - fess; And, with glad hymns, their awful dread Of thy great name ex - press.

The musical score for 'Rutland' is written in 2/2 time with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. Larghetto.

1. Ho - ly Spir - it from on high, Bend o'er us a pity-ing eye; Now re - fresh the drooping heart, Bid the power of sin de - part.

3. Teach us, with re - pent - ant grief, Hum - bly to im - plore re - lief, Then the Sa - viour's love re - veal, And our broken spir - its heal.

OLFARA. 7s. (III-1.)

Moderato.

1. As the sun's en - liven-ing eye Shines on eve - ry place the same; So the Lord is always nigh To the souls that love his name.

2. When they move at du - ty's call, He is with them by the way; He is ev - er with them all, Those who go and those who stay.

3. From his ho - ly mer - cy - seat Noth - ing can their souls con - fine; Still in spir - it they may meet, And in sweet com - mun-ion join.

PENRHYN. 7s. (III-1.)

Con Spirito.

1. "Joy to those that love the Lord!" Saith the sure, e - ter - nal word ; Not of earth the joy it brings, Tempered in ce - les - tial springs.

3. 'Tis a joy that, seated deep, Leaves not when we sigh and weep ; Spreads it - self in virtuous deeds, Sighs for woe, in pi - ty bleeds.

Detailed description: This is a musical score for the hymn 'Penrhyn'. It consists of four staves. The first staff is the vocal line, starting with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a 2/2 time signature. The tempo/mood is 'Con Spirito'. The lyrics are: '1. "Joy to those that love the Lord!" Saith the sure, e - ter - nal word ; Not of earth the joy it brings, Tempered in ce - les - tial springs.' The second staff is a piano accompaniment, starting with a treble clef, the same key signature and time signature, and a dynamic marking of 'mf'. The lyrics continue: '3. 'Tis a joy that, seated deep, Leaves not when we sigh and weep ; Spreads it - self in virtuous deeds, Sighs for woe, in pi - ty bleeds.' The third and fourth staves are further piano accompaniment, with the third staff in treble clef and the fourth in bass clef, both in the same key signature and time signature.

RAVENNA. 7s. (III-1.)

Adagio.

1. When in si - lence, o'er the deep, Darkness kept its deathlike sleep ; Soon as God his mandate spoke, Light in wondrous beauty broke.

Allegretto.

1. Hear what God, the Lord, hath spok-en: O my peo-ple, faint and few, Com-fort-less, af-flict-ed, brok-en, Fair a-bodes I build for you;

3. Ye, no more your suns de-scending, Waning moons no more shall see; But, your griefs for ev-er end-ing, Find e-ter-nal noon in me;

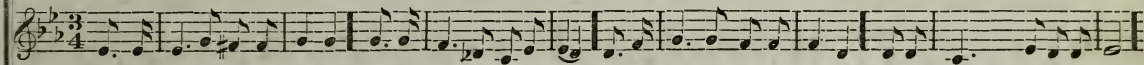

Scenes of heart-felt trib-u-la-tion Shall no more perplex your ways: You shall name your walls salvation, And your gates shall all be praise.

God shall rise, and, shining o'er you, Change to day the gloom of night; He, the Lord, shall be your glo-ry, God your ev-er-last-ing light.

Andante.

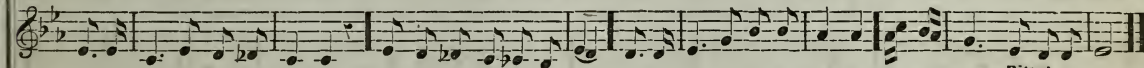

1. Guide me, O thou great Je - ho-vah, Pilgrim thro' this barren land, I am weak, but thou art mighty, Hold me with thy power - ful hand.

3. Feed me with the heavenly man-na In this bar-ren wil-der-ness, Be my sword, and shield, and banner, Be the Lord my righ - teous-ness.

2. O-pen now the crys-tal fountain Whence the liv-ing waters flow; Let the fie-ry, cloudy pil-lar, Lead me all my journey through.

4. When I tread the verge of Jor-dan, Bid my anxious fears sub-side; Death of death, and hell's destruction, Land me safe on Canaan's side.

Ritard.

FORTH. 8s & 7s. (III-3.)

Andante con moto.

1. Praise the Lord; ye heav'ns adore him; Praise him, an-gels, in the height, Sun and moon, re-joice before him; Praise him, all ye stars of light.

mf

2. Praise the Lord, for he hath spoken; Worlds his mighty voice o-bey'd; Laws, which never can be brok-en, For their guidance he hath made.

ZION. No. 1. 8s & 7s. (III-3.)

From GLUCK.

Moderato, con Spirito.

1. Glorious things of thee are spoken, Zi-on, ci-ty of our God; He whose word can ne'er be broken Chose thee for his own a-bode, Chose thee for his own a-bode.

mf

3. On the Rock of Ages founded, What can shake her sure repose? With salvation's wall surrounded, She can smile at all her foes, She can smile at all her foes.

Ritard.

Andantino.

1. Thro' the day thy love has spared us, Now we lay us down to rest; Thro' the si - lent watch-es guard us,

mp

2. Pil - grims here on earth and strangers, Dwelling in the midst of foes, Us and ours preserve from dan - gers,

Let no foe our peace mo - lest; Fa - ther, thou our guardian be; Sweet it is to trust in thee.

In thine arms let us re - pose, And, when life's short day is past, Rest with thee in heaven at last.

Ritard.

Cantabile.

1. Praise the Lord, when blush-ing morning Wakes the blossoms fresh with dew, Praise him when reviv-ed cre - a - tion Beams with beauties fair and new.

2. Praise the Lord, when ear - ly breez-es Come so fragrant from the flowers, Praise, thou willow, by the brook-side, Praise, ye birds, a - mong the bowers.

4. Praise the Lord, ye hosts of heaven, Angels, sing your sweetest lays; All things ut-ter forth his glo-ry, Shout a - loud Je - ho-vah's praise.

BURKESVILLE. 6s & 4s.

Con Spirito.

1. Come, thou Almighty King! Help us Thy name to sing, Help us to praise! Father all glo-ri-ous, O'er all vic-to-ri-ous, Come and reign over us Ancient of Days!

mf

2. Come, Thou eter-nal Word, By heaven and earth adored, Our prayer attend! Come and this people bless; Give to Thy truth success; Spirit of Holi-ness, On us de-scend!

3. Come, holy Com-forter, Thy sacred witness bear In this glad hour! Thou who almighty art. Rule now in eve-ry heart, Never from us de-part, Spirit of power!

DORPRAT. 6s & 4s.

Maestoso.

1. Praise ye Jehovah's name; Praise thro' his courts proclaim; Rise and adore; High o'er the heavens above Sound his great acts of love, While we his grace approve, Vast as his power.

2. Now let the trumpet raise Triumphant sounds of praise, Wide as his fame; There let the harp be found; Organs, with solemn sound, Roll your deep notes around, Filled with his name.

3. While his high praise ye sing, Shake every sounding string: Sweet the accord! He vital breath bestows: Let every breath that flows His noblest fame disclose: Praise ye the Lord.

Andantino.

1. Oh God, thy grace impart; Re-vive my fainting heart; My zeal in-spire; Re-veal thy-self to me, And may my love to thee Pure, warm, and changeless be, A liv-ing fire.

2. While life's dark maze I tread, And grief around me spread, Be thou my guide; Bid darkness turn to day, Wipe sorrow's tears a-way, Nor let me ev-er stray, From thee a-side.

Ritard.

CHANT. Save me, O God.

Solo. Chorus.

1. Save me, oh God, for the waters are come in to my soul; I am come to deep waters, where the floods overwhelm me.
2. Oh God, thou knowest my folly, and my sins are not hid from thee, Let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, Oh God of Israel.
3. Oh rescue me, and let me not sink; Save and deliver me from the deep waters.
4. Hear me, oh God, for thy loving kindness is great; Turn unto me, according to the multitude of thy tender mercies. A - men.

MINISTER.

1. GOD spake these words and said—"I am the Lord thy God ; thou shalt have none other gods but me. (Response 1.)
2. Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven- above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them : for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me ; and show mercy unto thousands in them that love me, and keep my commandments.
3. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain : for the Lord will not hold him guiltless, that taketh his name in vain. (Response 3.)
4. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do ; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work ; thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day : wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it. (Response 4.)
5. Honor thy father and thy mother ; that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. (Response 5.)
6. Thou shalt do no murder. (Response 6.)
7. Thou shalt not commit adultery. (Response 7.)
8. Thou shalt not steal. (Response 8.)
9. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour. (Response 9.)
10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his. (Response 10.)

N. B. Instead of the above responses, the following may be used for the 1st to the 9th inclusive.

- 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 & 9. Lord have mercy up- | on | us, || and incline our | hearts to | keep this | law.

MINISTER.

And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain : and when he had sat down, his disciples came unto him. And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

1. Blessed are the poor in spirit : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. (Response 1.)
2. Blessed are they that mourn : for they shall be comforted. (Response 2.)
3. Blessed are the meek : for they shall inherit the earth. (Response 3.)
4. Blessed are they that do hunger and thirst after righteousness : for they shall be filled. (Response 4.)
5. Blessed are the merciful : for they shall obtain mercy. (Response 5.)
6. Blessed are the pure in heart : for they shall see God. (Response 6.)
7. Blessed are the peace-makers : for they shall be called the children of God. (Response 7.)
8. Blessed are they that are persecuted for righteousness' sake : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. (Response 8.)
9. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. (Response 9.)
10. Rejoice and be exceeding glad ; for great is your reward in heaven : for so persecuted they the prophets who were before you. (Response 10.)

First line to be chanted alternately by Tenor and Bass.

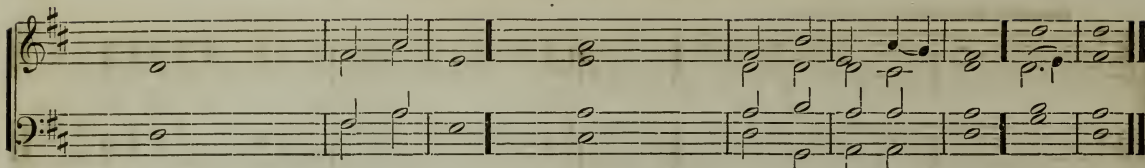

The musical score consists of two staves, a Tenor staff (top) and a Bass staff (bottom). The Tenor staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The Bass staff begins with a bass clef and the same key signature. The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with various note values and rests. The first line of music is marked as being chanted alternately by Tenor and Bass. The score includes bar lines and repeat signs.

QUARTETT AND CHORUS. Hear me, Jehovah.

Andante Divoto.

Organ. mf p

The first system of the score features an organ part. It begins with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The organ part starts with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic and then moves to piano (p). The music consists of a series of chords and melodic lines, with some notes beamed together.

Soprano Solo.

Hear me, Je - lo - vah, oh Lord, give ear un - to my prayer, that cometh not out of feigned lips; oh

The second system shows the vocal entry for the Soprano Solo. The melody is written on a treble clef staff. The lyrics are: "Hear me, Je - lo - vah, oh Lord, give ear un - to my prayer, that cometh not out of feigned lips; oh". The music is in the same key and time signature as the organ part.

p

The second system of the organ part continues the accompaniment. It features a steady rhythmic pattern of chords in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The dynamic is marked piano (p).

Alto Solo.

Lord at - tend un - to my cry. For thou, Lord, wilt hear me; in -

The third system shows the vocal entry for the Alto Solo. The melody is written on a treble clef staff. The lyrics are: "Lord at - tend un - to my cry. For thou, Lord, wilt hear me; in -". The music continues in the same key and time signature.

The final system of the organ part concludes the piece. It features a similar rhythmic accompaniment to the previous organ systems, with a final cadence. The dynamic remains piano (p).

poco Ritard.A tempo.Duetto.

for thou wilt hear me, Show thy lov - ing kind - ness un - - to me.

This system contains the second vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line continues in the same treble clef and key signature. The piano accompaniment continues on the two staves. The tempo marking poco ritard. appears above the vocal line towards the end of the system. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

 Ye saints and servants of the Lord.....L. P. M..... 22
 Your harps ye trembling saints.....S. M..... 49

The Hymn-tunes are divided into four classes. Class 1, comprises the tunes intended for choral choirs. Class 2, comprises the tunes which may be effectively sung by either large or small choirs. Class 3, comprises the pieces intended for highly cultivated Quartets, and which cannot (except under special and rare circumstances,) be adequately rendered by more than four voices. Class 4, comprises the pieces intended only for choir studies, and not designed for use in public worship.

INTRODUCTION TO THE INDEX OF ANTHEMS, MOTETTS, HYMNS, &c.

The Anthems, Motetts, Quartetts and Hymns are classified thus ; Class 1, consists of pieces intended for use at the opening or close of Divine Service, and suitable for choirs of ordinary proficiency. Class 2, comprises those pieces designed for the same general purpose as the foregoing, but requiring a higher degree of musical skill and attainment on the part of the singers. Class 3, embraces the selections for special occasions, as ANNIVERSARIES, ORDINATIONS, INSTALLATIONS, and FESTIVALS ; also for advanced Singing Schools, concerts of Sacred music, and Musical Conventions. No classification is made of the Chants, as the character of the words will be a sufficient guide to the Chorister as to their appropriateness in time and place.
