

Osculetur me

Canticum Canticorum 1,1+2

G.P. da Palestrina

1525 - 1594

Intavolierung - Anton Höger

The musical score is written for a single melodic line, likely for a lute or similar fretted instrument. It consists of a series of notes with stems and flags, indicating a specific rhythm. Below the notes is a lute tablature, which uses letters (a, b, c, d, e, f) to represent fret positions on the strings. The score is divided into systems, with measure numbers 7, 12, and 18 indicated. The tablature is written in a style common in the 16th century, with letters placed below the staff lines. The notes are written in a simple, clear style, with stems and flags indicating the rhythm. The overall structure of the score is organized into measures, with some measures containing multiple notes. The tablature is aligned with the notes, providing a direct mapping between the written notes and the fret positions on the instrument.
