

A HEART THAT'S KIND AND TRUE

Ballad

Written by

HENRY F. WATSON

AND RESPECTFULLY INSCRIBED TO

Miss Kate A. Wescott

OF ST. LOUIS MO

MUSIC BY

CHAS. BALMER.

NEW YORK

Published by WM. HALL & SON 229 Broadway.

St. Louis BALMER & WEBER.

A HEART THAT'S KIND AND TRUE.

Charles Balmer.

MODERATO.

mf

I've sung of eyes that bright - - ly beam, And cheeks of ro - - - sy hue; A no - - bler lay be now my 503

3

Dim. mf

theme_ A heart that's kind and true..... The eye that Ritardando.

beams most bright - ly now Must pale with lapse of years ; . . .

Rit.

a tempo.

.... And sor - rows soon will cloud the brow Which now most fair ap - - pears

mf

grace

Dim.

But there's a gem of price-less worth, And fade-less p beau-ty, too,..... Too rare, too bright, too good for Dim.

mf

earth_ A heart that's kind and true..... Thou la- - - dy, mf

Ritardando.

hast with-in thy breast That gem so rich and rare;

Rit:

a tempo.

. . . . And ne'er was maid of heav'n more blest— So good and yet so fair.

mf

Dim.