PRAELUDIUM.

Ped.

Handwritten musical score for piano, page 15. The score is written in B-flat major (two flats) and 2/4 time. It consists of three systems of music, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system includes a first ending bracket labeled "2º" over the first two measures. The notation features various rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The piece concludes with a double bar line at the end of the third system.

PRAELUDIUM.

First system of musical notation for the Praeludium, measures 1-4. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The notation is in grand staff (treble and bass clefs). Measure 1 has a whole rest in the treble and a whole note in the bass. Measure 2 has a quarter rest in the treble and a quarter note in the bass. Measure 3 has a half note in the treble and a half note in the bass. Measure 4 has a quarter note in the treble and a quarter note in the bass. The word "Man." is written below the bass staff at the end of the system.

Second system of musical notation for the Praeludium, measures 5-8. The notation continues in grand staff. Measure 5 has a quarter note in the treble and a quarter note in the bass. Measure 6 has a quarter note in the treble and a quarter note in the bass. Measure 7 has a quarter note in the treble and a quarter note in the bass. Measure 8 has a quarter note in the treble and a quarter note in the bass.

Third system of musical notation for the Praeludium, measures 9-12. The notation continues in grand staff. Measure 9 has a quarter note in the treble and a quarter note in the bass. Measure 10 has a quarter note in the treble and a quarter note in the bass. Measure 11 has a quarter note in the treble and a quarter note in the bass. Measure 12 has a quarter note in the treble and a quarter note in the bass.

Fourth system of musical notation for the Praeludium, measures 13-16. The notation continues in grand staff. Measure 13 has a quarter note in the treble and a quarter note in the bass. Measure 14 has a quarter note in the treble and a quarter note in the bass. Measure 15 has a quarter note in the treble and a quarter note in the bass. Measure 16 has a quarter note in the treble and a quarter note in the bass. The number "49" is written above the treble staff in the second measure of this system. The number "5651. 2." is written below the bass staff at the end of the system.

Lento e mesto.

PRAELI DIUM.

This musical score is for a piece titled "Praeli dium." It is written for piano in a key of two flats (B-flat major or D-flat minor) and common time (C). The tempo and mood are indicated as "Lento e mesto." The score consists of four systems of music, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system includes a "Ped." (pedal) marking. The second and third systems also include "Ped." markings. The fourth system concludes with the text "Cantus firmus 5651. 2." below the staff. The music features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests, creating a somber and contemplative atmosphere.

PRAELUDIUM.

Ped. Cantus firmus.

The musical score consists of four systems of piano and pedal parts. The piano part is written in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature (C). The pedal part is written in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The tempo and mood are indicated as "Lento e mesto." The score is labeled "PRAELUDIUM." and "Ped. Cantus firmus." The first system shows the beginning of the piece with a complex piano melody and a steady pedal accompaniment. The second system continues the piano melody with some rests, while the pedal part remains active. The third system features a more active piano melody with many sixteenth notes. The fourth system concludes the piece with a final cadence in the piano part and a sustained pedal note.

Lento e mesto.

PRAELUDIUM.

The first system of musical notation for the Praeludium. It consists of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The music features a complex, flowing melody in the treble clef, with many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The bass clef provides a steady accompaniment with eighth and sixteenth notes. A 'Ped.' (pedal) marking is placed below the bass staff towards the end of the system.

The second and third systems of musical notation for the Praeludium. The second system continues the intricate melodic lines in both hands, with frequent chromaticism and rapid passages. The third system shows a continuation of the texture, with the treble clef often playing more active roles than the bass clef. The overall mood is somber and contemplative, as indicated by the tempo and mood markings.

The fourth system of musical notation for the Praeludium. It concludes the piece with a final cadence. The 'Cantus firmus.' label is written in the bass staff of this system, indicating a specific melodic line that serves as the basis for the composition. The system ends with a double bar line.

Largo.

Mit dumpfen Stimmen.

PRÆLUDIUM.

Man.

This musical score is for a piano prelude in B-flat major, marked 'Largo' and 'Mit dumpfen Stimmen' (with dull voices). The piece is in common time (C) and consists of 21 measures. The notation is arranged in four systems, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system begins with a 'PRÆLUDIUM.' label and a 'Man.' (Mancuso) dynamic marking. The melody is primarily in the right hand, featuring a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the tempo is indicated as 'Largo'.

Largo.

PRAELEDIUM.

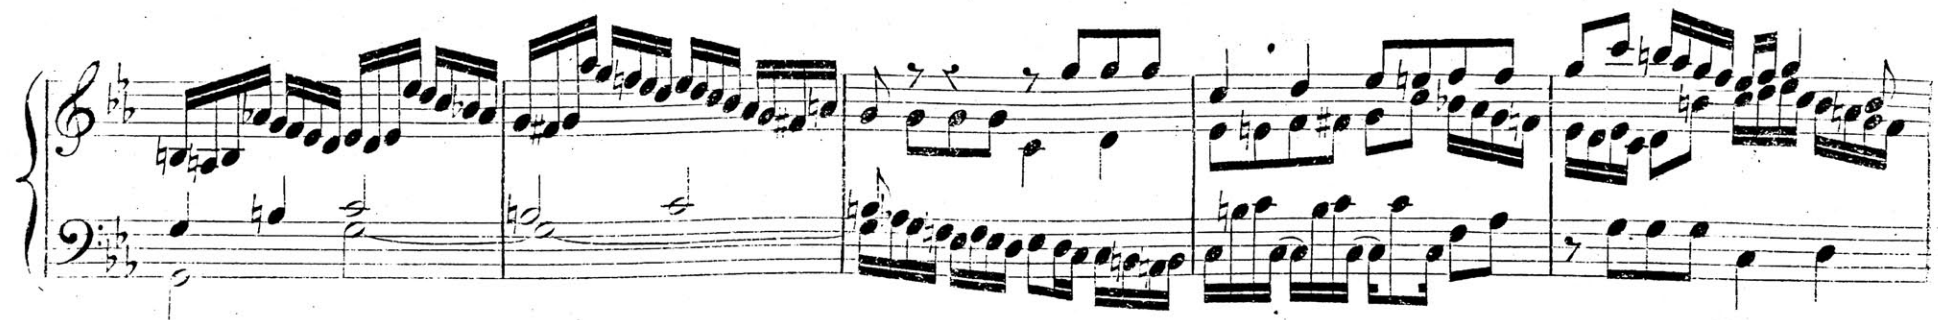

Ped.

The Praeludium section consists of two systems of piano accompaniment. The first system is marked 'Largo.' and includes a 'Ped.' (pedal) instruction. The second system continues the melodic and harmonic development with various ornaments and trills.

Larghetto con moto.

FUGUE.

The Fugue section consists of a single system of piano accompaniment. The fugue is marked 'Larghetto con moto.' and shows the beginning of the main theme in the right hand.

The image displays four systems of musical notation, each consisting of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The music is written in a key with two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and accidentals. The first system shows a complex melodic line in the treble and a more rhythmic bass line. The second system features a more active bass line with many sixteenth notes. The third system has a more melodic bass line with some rests. The fourth system shows a more complex melodic line in the treble and a more rhythmic bass line.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of four systems of grand staves. Each system contains a treble and a bass staff joined by a brace. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 2/4. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. The piece concludes with a double bar line at the end of the fourth system.
