First system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass staff. The treble staff contains a complex melodic line with many beamed sixteenth notes and accents (^). The bass staff has a more rhythmic accompaniment with some chords and a few beamed notes. There are several asterisks (*) and a circled cross symbol (⊗) marking specific measures.

Second system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melodic line. The bass staff has a simpler accompaniment. The text con molto sentimento. is written in the bass staff. There are asterisks (*) and a circled cross symbol (⊗) marking specific measures.

Third system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melodic line. The bass staff has a simpler accompaniment. The text appassionato. is written in the bass staff. There are asterisks (*) and a circled cross symbol (⊗) marking specific measures.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melodic line. The bass staff has a simpler accompaniment. There are asterisks (*) and a circled cross symbol (⊗) marking specific measures.

Fifth system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melodic line. The bass staff has a simpler accompaniment. There are asterisks (*) and a circled cross symbol (⊗) marking specific measures.

First system of musical notation. The right hand features a continuous eighth-note pattern. The left hand has a few notes with rests. The word portament: is written above the first measure of the left hand, and p is written above the second measure. The word dolce. is written above the first measure of the right hand.

The image displays a page of musical notation for a piano piece, consisting of five systems of staves. The notation is written in a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The piece begins with a piano (p) dynamic and a tempo marking of Φ . The first system shows a continuous eighth-note melody in the right hand, with a crescendo marking (cresc:) and a dynamic increase to f in the third measure. The second system continues the melody, with a sempre accelerando instruction and a ben marcato marking. The third system features a con forza instruction and a ben marcato marking. The fourth system shows a f dynamic and a ben marcato marking. The fifth system concludes with a f dynamic and a ben marcato marking. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

First system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Treble staff features rapid sixteenth-note passages with accents. Bass staff has a half note with a fermata and a first ending bracket labeled '21'. A 'ten;' marking is above the final measure of the treble staff.

Second system of musical notation. Treble staff continues with rapid sixteenth-note passages. Bass staff features a half note with a fermata and a first ending bracket labeled '21'. A 'con impetu.' marking is below the first measure of the bass staff. A 'marcatiss:' marking is below the final measure of the bass staff.

Third system of musical notation. Treble staff continues with rapid sixteenth-note passages. Bass staff features a half note with a fermata and a first ending bracket labeled '21'. A 'f' marking is above the first measure of the bass staff. A '21' marking is below the final measure of the bass staff.

Fourth system of musical notation. Treble staff continues with rapid sixteenth-note passages. Bass staff features a half note with a fermata and a first ending bracket labeled '21'. A 'ff con passione.' marking is above the final measure of the bass staff.

Fifth system of musical notation. Treble staff continues with rapid sixteenth-note passages. Bass staff features a half note with a fermata and a first ending bracket labeled '21'. A 'con gran forza.' marking is above the first measure of the bass staff. A 'riten:' marking is below the first measure of the bass staff. A 'ff riten.' marking is above the final measure of the bass staff. A 'con tutta la forza.' marking is below the final measure of the bass staff.
