LA REDOWA.

snd REDOWA WALTZ is an imitation of the pas de Basque (more lengthened) in the 12t and 2nd beats of the measure, the 3nd differs in the right foot being placed in front instead of remaining behind the left. This step is executed alternately with the left, and right foot, but in setting out with the left foot it should be done backwards, in order to effect the turn.

N. B. The musicof the new waltz, now in great favor, requires an undulating rhythm quite peculiar. The type of it is to be found in the REDOWA of GAWLIKOWSKI, generally adopted in Paris

Promenade passe Allemande.
