

My Fairy

Lewis Carroll (1832-1898)

Gary Bachlund

Adagio rit. Andante

I have a fai-ry

6 rit. Adagio

by my side which says I must not sleep, ...not sleep, (my fair - y) -

10 rit. Andante

When once in pain I loud - ly cried it

15 rit. Adagio

said "You must not weep." Not weep. (my fair - y) -

19

Andante

If, full of mirth, I smile and grin, it says, "You must not laugh." When mp

23

rit. Adagio

once I wished to drink some gin, it said, "You must not quaff!"

27

rit. Andante

When once a meal I wished to taste it

p mp

31

said, "You must not bite." "not bite." When to the wars I went in haste it said "you must not fight."

36

42

Adagio

"What may I do?" at length I cried, tired of the pain-ful task. The 47

rit.

fai - ry qui - et-ly re-plied, and said, "You must not ask."

51

rit.

"You must not ask. You must-n't." You must-n't."

circa 2' 40"