Quietly

How many ways the

In-fi-nite has Lo-night in earth & sky: A fall-ing star, a rust-ling leaf, The night wind ebb-ing by. How many ways the f cres.

In-fi-nite has: A fire-fly o-ver the sea, A whip-poor-will on the wood-ed hill, And your dear love to a tempo

How many ways the In-fi-nite has: The moon out of the east; A cloud that waits her shep-herd-ing, To wan-der sil-ver fleeced.

How many ways the Infinite has: A home-light in the west, And
