

O quam suavis

Roman Breviary, feast of Corpus Christi,
First Vespers, antiphon to the Magnificat

MASSIMO SCAPIN

Andante

The musical score consists of five staves. The top four staves represent vocal parts: Soprano (G clef), Alto (C clef), Tenor (G clef with a 8 below it), and Bass (F clef). The bottom staff represents the Organ. The music is in common time (indicated by a '3' over a '4') and is written in G major (two sharps). The vocal parts enter at different times, singing the words "O quam su-". The organ part begins earlier, with a dynamic marking p legato. The bass part has a dynamic marking p at the end of its line. The vocal entries occur later in the piece.

Andante

This section shows the organ and pedal parts. The organ part continues from the previous section, with a dynamic marking p legato. The organ part consists of two staves: treble and bass. The bass staff is labeled "Pedals". The organ part ends with a dynamic marking p.

This section shows the final part of the organ and bass parts. The organ part continues from the previous section, ending with a dynamic marking p. The bass part continues from the previous section, ending with a dynamic marking p.

*How kind and gentle you are, o Lord. You showed your goodnes to your sons by giving them bread from heaven.
 You filled the hungry with good things, and the rich you sent away empty.*
