THE VALLEY OF LAUGHTER.

I KNOW a valley sweet and golden,
I know a valley fair to see,
Here where the dreams of life lie folden,
One with the vale and the slumb'ring sea.
Here where the wind-blown barley whispers
Secrets that come to our hearts so true,
Sunlight and shadow softly tell me,
Here 'twas you lov'd me and I lov'd you.

Ah! my laughing valley,
Winds blow as sweet to-day,
Here let us meet, here let us greet,
One with the winds at play.
Skies are blue and rich the clover,
Laughter rings the wide world over;
Come away! Come to-day!
Come and keep love's holiday.

I know a valley sweet and golden,
Lit by the light of the harvest moon;
Summer may pass and its dreams grow olden,
Fragrant for ever our way is strewn.
Do you remember corn-flow'rs dancing,
Do you remember when love was new?
Here in the heart of the shining valley,
Here 'twas you lov'd me and I lov'd you.

Ah! my laughing valley etc.
