

There's Millions In It

Words by George Cooper

Music by John Rogers Thomas

Scherzando

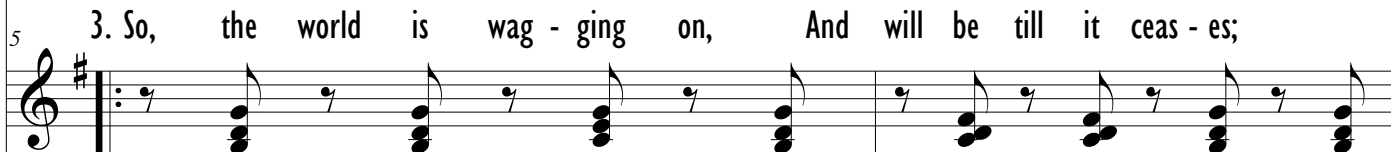

G C/G G D7 G

2. "Fitz Au - gus - tus" is a youth Whose noo - dle is the light - est;

3. So, the world is wag - ging on, And will be till it ceas - es;

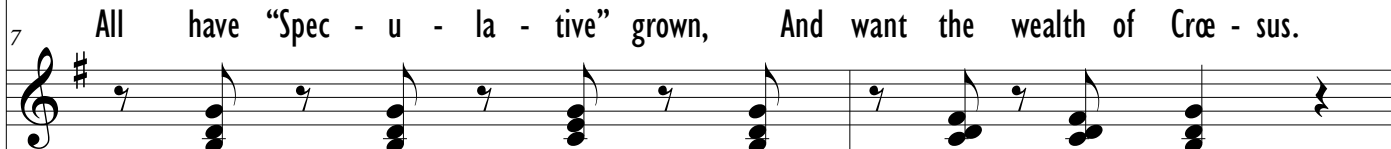

G C/G G D7 G

Comes a - long the wid - ow "Truth" With eyes that are the bright - est.

All have "Spec - u - la - tive" grown, And want the wealth of Crœ - sus.

©1874

Edited by Robert A. Hudson

5/23/2016

9 D A7/E D/F# D A7/C# A7(omit 5) D

“Spec - u - la - tion” nev - er stops When once we all be - gin it;
 Now, her dimes are on the wane, His for - tune she must win it;
 Old and young their for - tune see, And strug - gle on to win it;

11 D A7/E D/F# G D/A A7(omit 5) D

Land, or gold, or flour, or hops, Why “there’s mil - lions in it!”
 “Spec - u - la - tion” is her game, Why, “there’s mil - lions in it!”
 Each pet scheme they all a - gree, Why, “there’s mil - lions in it!”

13 G D

“Hogs!” Why here’s a for - tune there, An - y - one may win it;

15

D D7 G

"Corn!" its wealth I can't com - pare, Why, "there's mil - lions in it!"

15

f

17 Spoken

1. "Yes, it don't make any difference for instance
2. "Dear little charmer so unsophisticated
3. "Mules," or "eyewash" or

"Hogs!" Why here's a for - tune there,

17

f

G D D D7 G

19

An - y - one may win it; "Corn!" its wealth I can't com - pare, Why, "there's mil - lions in it!"

19

f

22

22

22