Mary Gray

Words and Music by John Rogers Thomas

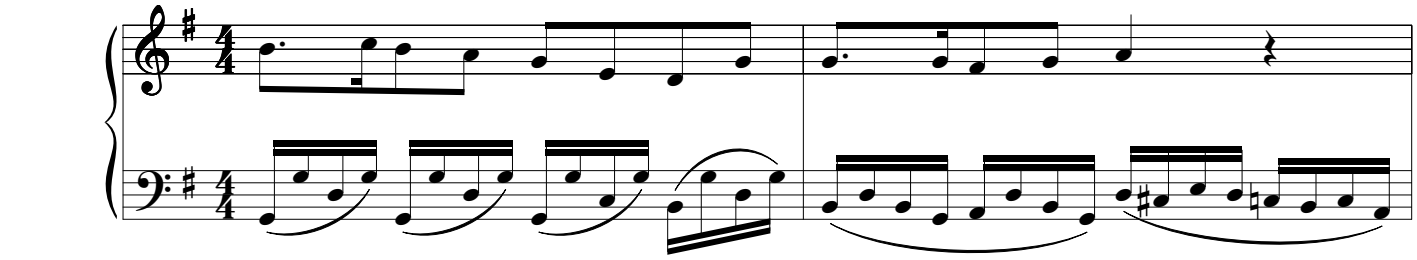
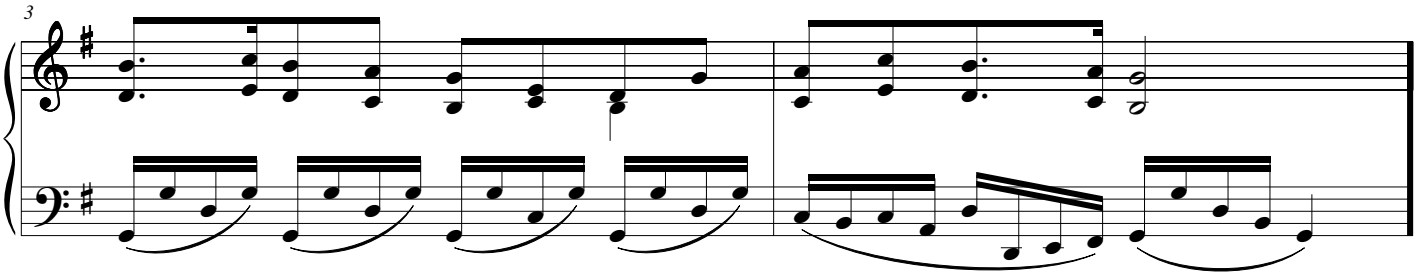
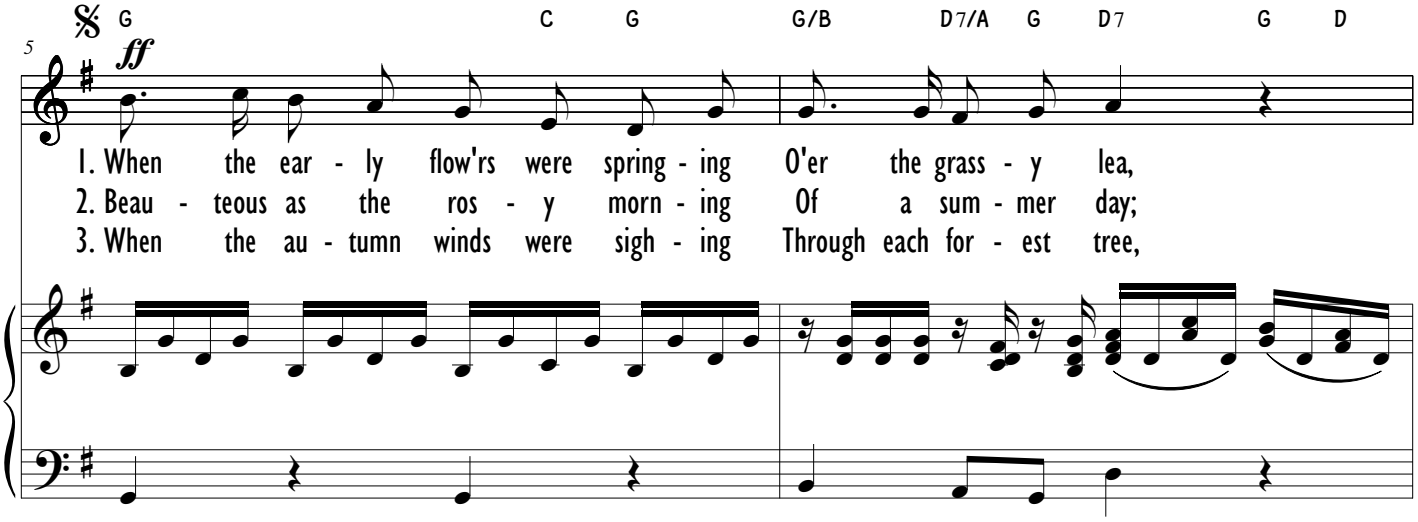
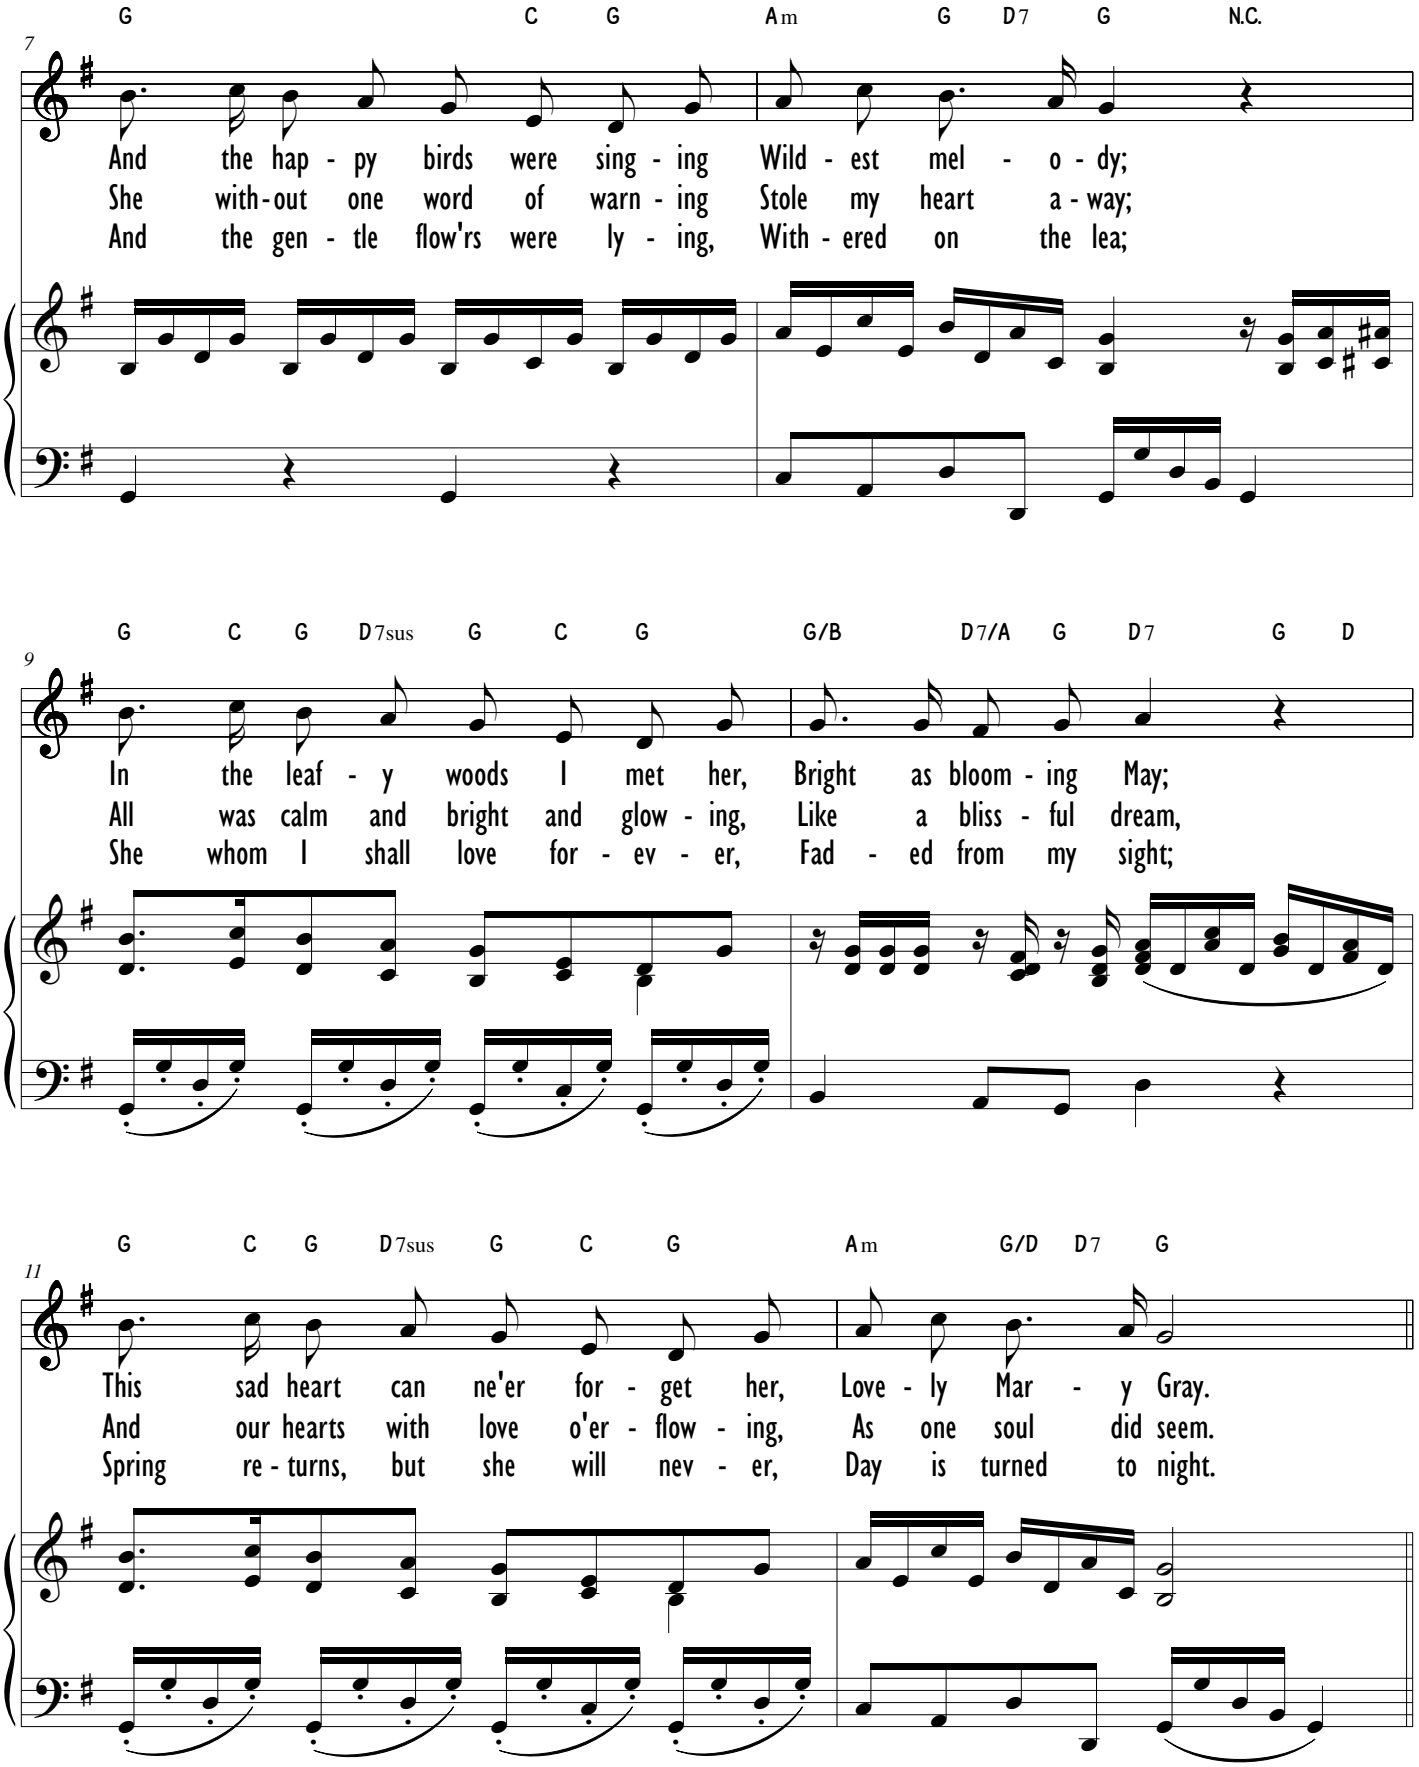
Adagietto con espressione



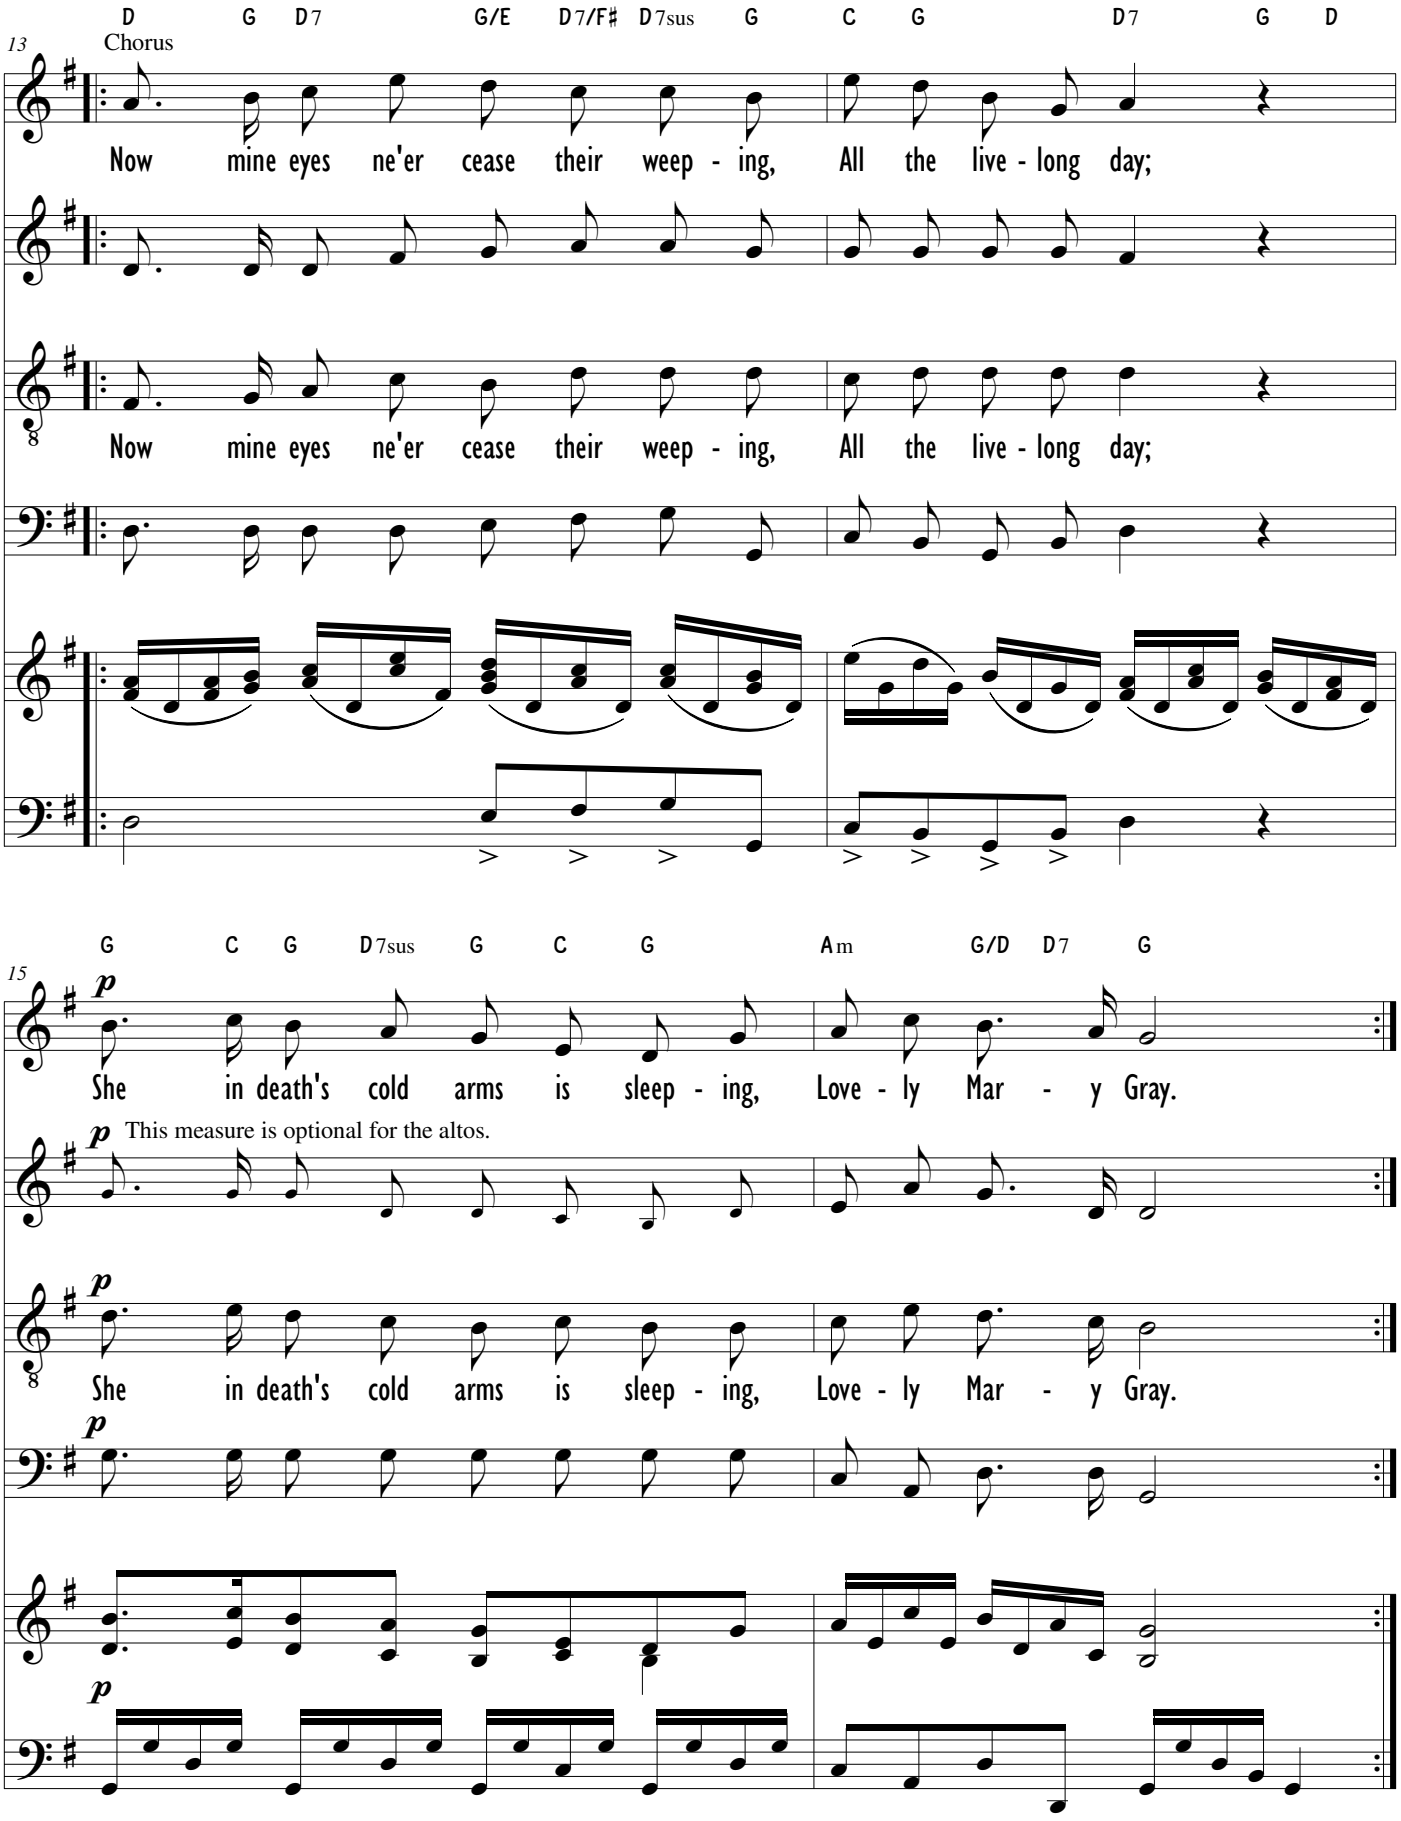




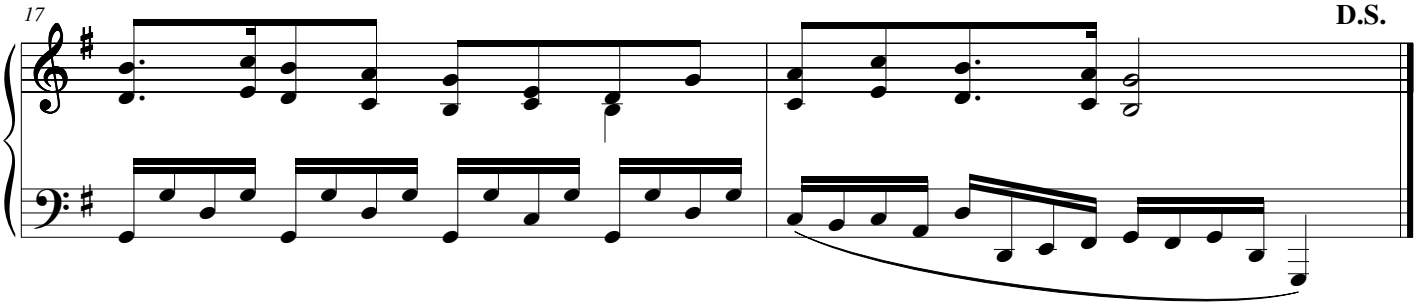
©1854
Edited by Robert A. Hudson
8/5/2016



G C G Am G D7 G N.C.
7
And the hap - py birds were sing - ing Wild - est mel - o - dy;
She with-out one word of warn - ing Stole my heart a - way;
And the gen - tle flow'rs were ly - ing, With - ered on the lea;
G C G D7sus G C G G/B D7/A G D7 G D
9
In the leaf - y woods I met her, Bright as bloom - ing May;
All was calm and bright and glow - ing, Like a bliss - ful dream,
She whom I shall love for - ev - er, Fad - ed from my sight;
G C G D7sus G C G Am G/D D7 G
11
This sad heart can ne'er for - get her, Love - ly Mar - y Gray.
And our hearts with love o'er - flow - ing, As one soul did seem.
Spring re - turns, but she will nev - er, Day is turned to night.



13
Chorus
D G D7 G/E D7/F♯ D7sus G C G D7 G D
Now mine eyes ne'er cease their weep - ing, All the live - long day;
Now mine eyes ne'er cease their weep - ing, All the live - long day;
15
G C G D7sus G C G Am G/D D7 G
p
She in death's cold arms is sleep - ing, Love - ly Mar - y Gray.
p This measure is optional for the altos.
p
She in death's cold arms is sleep - ing, Love - ly Mar - y Gray.
p
p



17
D.S.