Child of earth with the golden hair, Thy soul's too pure and thy face too fair to dwell with the creatures of mortal mould whose lips are warm as their hearts are cold.

Roam roam to our fairy home Child of earth with the golden hair.

Thou shall dance with the fairy queen Through

summer nights on the moon-lit green To music murmuring

pp

sweeter far Than ever was heard 'neath the morning's star. Roam, roam to our fai-ry home, Child of earth with the gold-en hair Roam roam to our fai-ry home

mf

Child of earth with the golden hair.

8 I'll rob of its sweets the humble bee I'll crush the wine from the cowslip - tree I'll pull thee berries I'll heap thy bed of downy moss and the poppies red. Roam roam to our fairy home Child of earth with the golden hair.

Dim sleep shall woo thee my darling boy In her mildest mood with dreams of joy and when with the morning ends her reign

pp

Pleasure shall bid thee welcome a...gain. Roam roam to our

Child of earth with the golden hair.
