

WINSOME WINNIE.

WRITTEN BY C. O. CLAYTON COMPOSED BY

J. R. THOMAS.

NEW YORK.

W. HALL & SON, 275 BROADWAY.

J. H. NELL
87 WOOD ST
PITTSBURGH

Miss Eunice R. Pease.

3

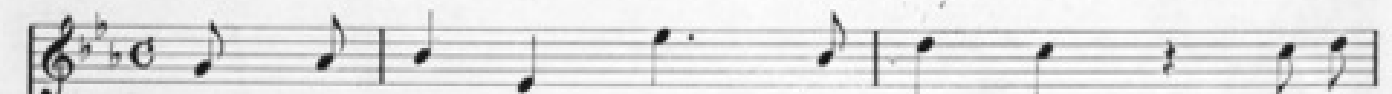

WINSOME WINNIE

OF THE MILL;

(BALLAD)

the WORDS BY C. O. CLAYTON.

the MUSIC BY J. R. THOMAS.

(I.) Where the sun, when day - light's clos - ing, Throws a
(II.) Joy - ous as the Queen of Mu - sic, War - bling (III.) Al - ways mak - ing oth - ers hap - py By some mel - low gold - en light, O'er yon snow-y cot - tage, peep - ing Thro' the some en - chant - ing lay; Fair - er than the ros - y dawn - ing, Of a kind - ly word or deed: Cheering those that bow in sor - row, Help - ing vine and blos - soms bright; There, a - mid its qui - et beau - ty, By the glo - rious sum - mer day; Grace - ful as the wel - come Flo - ra, Deck - ing those that strive in need; And the pray'rs her deeds a - wak - en, May they ev - er flow - ing rill: Dwells our gen - tle vil - lage dar - ling, Win - some for - est, vale and hill, — Is our gen - tle vil - lage dar - ling, Win - some e'er with hope's fond thrill, Guide a - right from ill and sor - row, Win - some

Win - nie, Win - nie, Win - some Win - nie of the mill. Win - some Win - nie, Win - some Win - nie,

Win - nie, Win - some Win - nie, Win - some Win - nie of the mill.