

18927 m

A SONG FOR THE TIMES

Give the poor
all they honestly earn

WORDS BY
M. H. TORMEY.
Music by
J. R. THOMAS.

4

NEW YORK
PUBLISHED BY ARTHUR E. THOMAS, 819 BROADWAY.

Boston.
O. DITSON & CO.

Chicago.
WHITE, SMITH & CO.
Copyright 1881 by M. H. Tormey.

St. Louis.
J. L. PETERS.

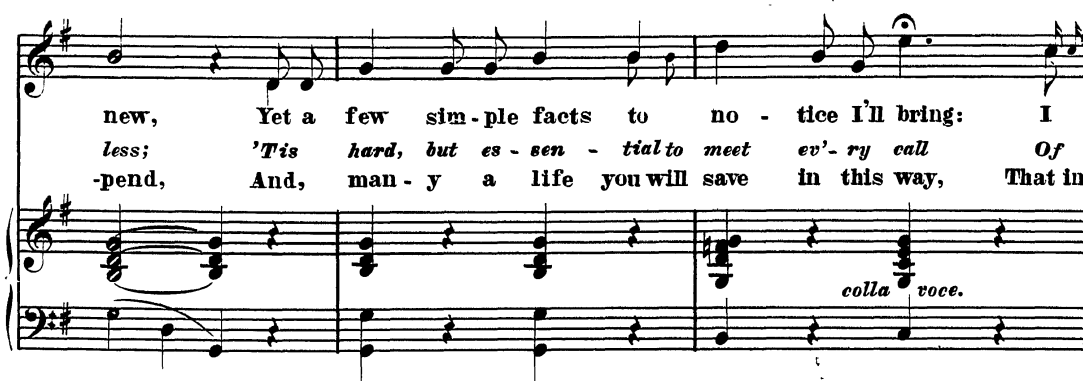

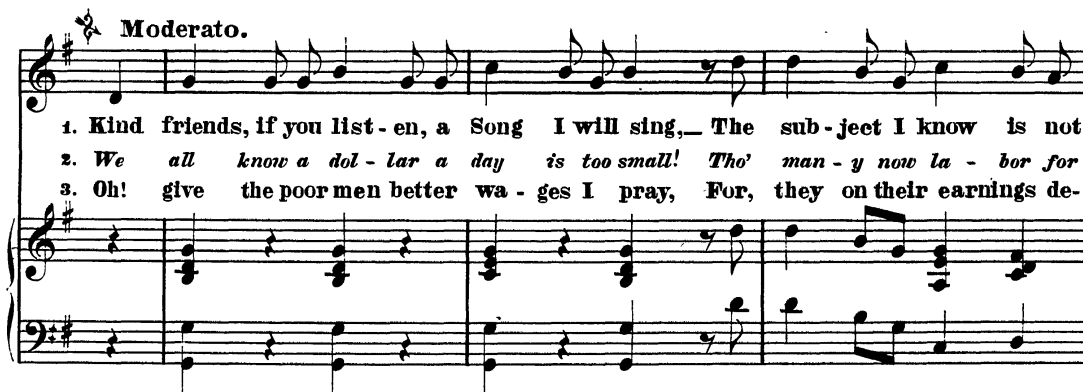

Give the poor all they honestly earn.

WORDS BY
M. H. TORMEY.
MUSIC BY
J. R. THOMAS.

Con spirito.

Moderato.

3

plaintivo.

find from expe - rience true. "I pit-y the poor man" the lit - tle ones home in dis - tress; If the rich were but lib - 'ral the pris - on might oth - er-wise end! If they ask a fa - vor don't p plaintivo.

declamatio.

rich often say, "His heart in its tri - als must burn! But poor could live, And joy in their homes would re - turn, If push them a - side, — Per - haps it may yet be your turn! While you've espressivo. rit.

how can we help him? 'Tis ea - sy if they Give the poor all they honest-ly earn.
 they who have millions re - mem - ber and give, Give the poor all they honest-ly earn.
 thousands to spare, your purse open wide: Give the poor all they honest-ly earn.

mf colla voce.

CHORUS.

Sopr. Oh, yes! there is plen - ty for all who ex - ist, We Alto.

Tenor. Oh, yes! there is plen - ty for all who ex - ist, We

Bass.

Accomp't

should keep each-oth - er in turn; If they who are wor - thy you should keep each-oth - er in turn; If they who are wor - thy you

rit.
wish to as - sist, Give the poor all they hon - est - ly earn!

rit.
wish to as - sist, Give the poor all they hon - est - ly earn!

rit.
colla voce.

ritempo.
mf f pesante. f D. S.
(Clayton)