

NEWEST OF SONGS
J. R. Thomas.

№ 1. HAUNTING EYES.

№ 4. MUST WE THEN MEET AS STRANGERS.

№ 2. GOLDEN HOURS.

№ 5. HOME BELOW AND HEAVEN ABOVE.

№ 3. TIT, TAT, TOE.

№ 6.

4

BOSTON.

Published by OLIVER DITSON & CO. 451 Washington St.

PHILADA.
LEE & WALKER.

CINN.
JOHN CHURCH & CO.

NEW YORK.
C. H. DITSON & CO.

BOSTON.
J. C. HAYNES & CO.

CHICAGO.
LYON & HEALY.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1875 by Oliver Ditson & Co. in the office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

J. B. BURNETT, 204 N. LYN 120 WASH ST. BOSTON.

Written for and sung by Mr. Alfred Wilkie.

3

HAUNTING EYES.

Ballad.

Words by CAROLINE NORTON.

Music by J.R. THOMAS.

Andantino.

VOICE

PIANO

1. In the hour..... I first be - held thee, Soft thy
2. Oh, those eyes!..... their love - ly sha - dow Stole the kind - - - ly glances fell, And my heart bowed down be - light of life a - way, And my heart, in lan - guid

cres. dim.
fore thee, As be - neath a ma - gic spell Since that dreaming, Id - ly pines from day to day Vain the time like some sweet phan - - - tom, In my ev' - - - ning's dew - y cool - - - ness, Vain the

cres. dim.
home thy form doth rise, And where e'er my sad gaze calm of mid - night skies; E'en with dark - - - ness clos - ing cres.

dim.

wan - ders, There I meet..... thy haunt-ing eyes!..... And where round me, Still I see..... those haunt-ing eyes!..... E'en with dim.

f espress.

e'er..... my sad gaze wan - ders, There I meet..... thy haunt-ing dark - - - ness clos-ing round me, Still I see..... those haunt-ing

a piacere

eyes! Thy haunting eyes! Thy haunt - ing eyes! Those haunting eyes! Those haunt - ing

colla voce p f

eyes!
 eyes!