

238482 500

DELIVERED TO THE
MAY 11 1900
Department

Songs and Ballads

BY POPULAR COMPOSERS

Words by C.O. Clayton

Morning. H. P. Danks.
Kitten Bells. T. B. Bishop.
Sing me the Old Songs. H. Millard.
I am tired of the Bards. J. J. Freeman.
Let us be Friends Again. J. R. Thomas.
Some day when I am far away. C. E. Pratt.
I know a Cool and pleasant nook. H. P. Danks.
While listening to the Woodbirds Song. C. E. Pratt.
Come sing me a bonnie Scotch ballad. A. Sedgwick.
I am Wandring Alone in the Twilight. J. E. Perring.
I faithful still will be. H. Millard.
I have a little Sweetheart. J. R. Thomas.
Kathleen Magrey. H. Millard.
He is not Here. H. Tucker.
Hearer of Prayer. J. R. Thomas.
Together Again. H. Millard.

4
Each

Published by
M. C. GRAY,
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. PORTLAND, OREGON.
623 & 625 CLAY ST. 101 FIRST ST.

LITH. R. YELLER, 100 WOOSTER ST. N. YORK.

To Jennie Osborne.

I HAVE A LITTLE SWEETHEART.

BALLAD.

3

Words by C. O. CLAYTON.

Music by J. R. THOMAS.

Playfully.

Playfully.

157 = 3

M. G. 722

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1872, by Oakes & Clayton, in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington.

aught on this planet we live on, To aught in the o - cean or air, No, the aught on this planet we live on, To aught in the o - cean or air; No, the Voice of this lit - tle sweet-heart, Is for me be - yond com - pare.

 Eyes of this lit - tle sweet-heart, Are for me be - yond com - pare.

III. Yes,

I have a lit - tle sweet-heart, And her love will make me strong, Thro' life to urge and do what's right, And as swift-ly flee the wrong! But my Love for this lit - tle sweet-heart, I will not—I can-not com - pare To aught on this plan-et we live on, To aught in the o - cean or air, No, my Love for this lit - tle sweet-heart, Is for me be - yond com - pare.

5

Fine.