

Still I Love Thee.

C. T. LOCKWOOD.

ANDANTINO.

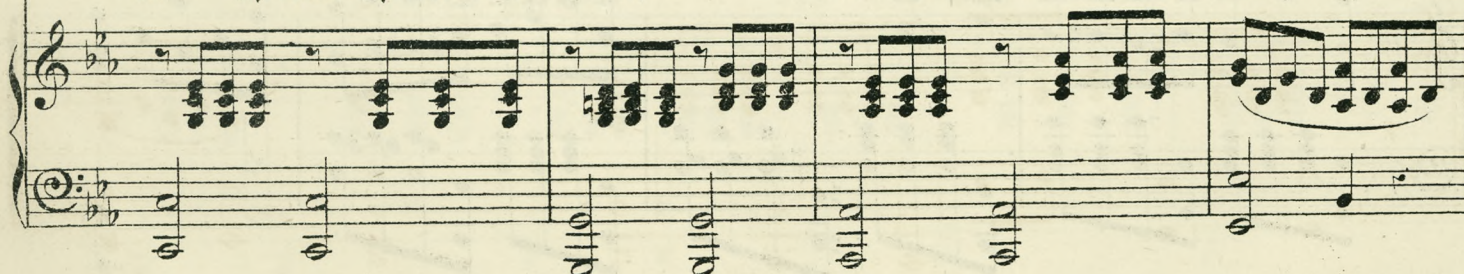

1. What should make thee sad, my dar - ling ? Why those pearly tears I see ?
 2. O'er the bo - som of the o - cean Shall the seabird cease to rove,
 3. Joy - ful - ly, when first I found thee, Bow'd my soul at love's be - hest ;

Have I caus'd one thought of sor - row ? Have I not been kind to thee ?
 Sun and stars shall cease their mo - tion, Winds and clouds forget to move,
 Now when sor - row ga - ther round me, Thou a - lone canst make me blest ;

By the stars that shine a - bove us By their wondrous my - ste - ry,
 Ere my love for thee shall fal - ter, Or my faith for - got - ten be ;
 Be my heart thy throne for e - ver, Let all tears for - got - ten be ;

By this heart that beats with - in me, Still I love thee, love but thee.
 All things else on earth may al - ter, Still I'll love thee, love but thee.
 Weal or woe es-trange us ne - ver, Still I love thee, love but thee.

CHORUS.

AIR
ALTO.

What should make thee sad, my dar - ling? Why those pearly tears I see?

TENOR.
BASS.

PIANO.

Have I caus'd one thought of sor - row? Have I not been kind to thee?