

CHOICE PIECES

FOR THE

GUITAR

ARRANGED BY

W. L. HAYDEN.

Come back to Erin	CLARIBEL 35
You may win him back with kindness	EVANS 30
Birdie's Lament	EVANS 30
All among the Roses	DELAHANTY 30
When the Swallows homeward fly	ABT 30
Open the Door	MASSETT 30
Serenade	SCHUBERT 35
Forget me not	GANZ 35
Don't Judge a man by the Coat he wears	SCHULTZ 30
Come and see me	HESS 30
Aladdin Schottische	HESS 30
Blue Danube	STRAUSS 30
My Cottage trimmed with Roses	DANKS 30
Hark! the Angels sweetly singing	DANKS 30

Published by M. GRAY,

623 & 625 Clay Street,

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

101 First Street,

PORTLAND, O.

COME AND SEE ME.

Words by S. BOOTH.

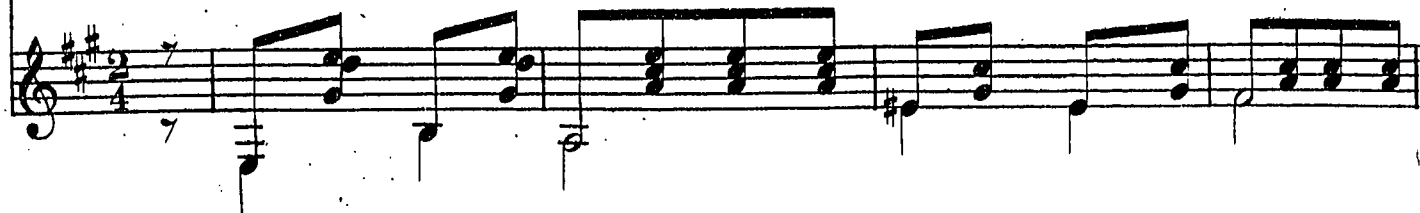

For GUITAR, by W. L. HAYDEN.

3. But all the joy of meeting these, Will surely not com-pare, To

1. As through life's journey we ad-vance, Still drawing t'wards the end, How When troubles gath-er 'round the way, And sorrows make us fret, And Entered according to Act of Congress A. D. 1873 by M. GRAY, in the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

M. G. 735

meeting one whom we es - teem The fair - est of the fair, We pleasant as we jog a - long, It is to meet a friend, Who cred-i - tors are threaten - ing, To take us up for debt, How gai - ly chat on this and that, And hint at joys to come, And take us kind - ly by the hand, And gives a friend - ly shake, And glad we are to meet a man, Who makes our cares his own, And press our service gal - lant - ly To see her safe - ly home, bids us come and see him, and will no de - ni - al take.

 tells us where to call and get the fa - vor of a loan.

SPOKEN. 1st Verse. One of those whole souled fellows who enquires after our welfare, ending with a hearty invitation . to! CHORUS. Come and see me, &c.

SPOKEN. 2^d Verse. Yes Sir, of all the friends we meet there are none so welcome as those who have Coin, and no invitations are so acceptable to a man who is in trouble, as those which fall from the lips of the Ralstons and Lathams when they say! CHORUS. Come and see me, &c.

SPOKEN. 3^d Verse. Arriving home she kindly invites us in, and after spending a delightful evening accompanies us to the door and sweetly bidding us good night crowns the climax of our bliss by saying! CHORUS. Come and see me, &c.

CHORUS.

Come and see me! come and see me! When-ev - er you come, I am al - ways at home, Come and see me! come and see me, To you I am al - ways at home

f