T'OTHER SIDE OF JORDAN.

3

Moderato.

PIANO

I'm going to sing a song, Which is not ve - ry long, I wrote it all out this morning, 'Tis the most pop'lar song That has been sung of late, And it's call'd on the other side of Jordan.

hard road to travel I be - leive.

A dandy came to town and he took a week around,
He had no change to pay his boardin,
The Landlord he said, if the bill was not paid
He would send him to the other side of Jordan.
I took up my banjo, &c.

4.
Said I, dearest girl when united we are,
I think at first we'd better go a boardin,
The Eutaw, the Fountain, or Barnum's Hotel
Is equal to the other side of Jordan.
I took up my banjo, &c.

3.
I went out last night to see a young Lady,
I really could scarcely squeeze a word in,
When I asked her where we'd live after our wedding day,
Says she on the other side of Jordan.
I took up my banjo, &c.

5.
There's Stephen Arnold Douglass & his Nebraskabill
Has made Congressmen talk just accordin,
But Congressmen and Senators will never be quiet,
Until they get the other side of Jordan.
I took up my banjo, &c.

6.
The Russians and the Turks are now at war,
Their countries you know are a borderin;
The English and the French have gone to help the Turks
To send the Russians to the other side of Jordan.
I took up my banjo, &c.
